David Cutcliffe

HEAD COACH
8TH SEASON AT DUKE
ALABAMA, 1976

David Cutcliffe, the 2013 National Coach of the Year who has earned both ACC and SEC Coach of the Year honors in a distinguished career that includes the mentoring of Super Bowl MVP quarterbacks Peyton and Eli Manning, was named Duke University's 21st head football coach on December 15, 2007.

Cutcliffe is 40-48 (.455) in seven seasons at Duke and owns an overall head coaching ledger of 84-77 (.522). Cutcliffe's 40 victories in seven years with the Blue Devils are 30 more than the program's total in the previous eight seasons (2000-07) combined. In addition to guiding the Blue Devil gridiron program, Cutcliffe serves on the American Football Coaches Association's Board of Trustees.

Cutcliffe's 2014 squad continued the elevation of the program as it captured nine wins, marking the first time in school history the Blue Devils have posted consecutive seasons with nine-plus victories. In addition, Duke earned a berth in an unprecedented third straight bowl game last winter, playing in the Hyundai Sun Bowl and Cutcliffe was honored as the AFCA's Region I Coach of the Year.

In 2013, Cutcliffe guided the Blue Devils to a school record 10 wins, including the ACC Coastal Division championship and an appearance in the 46th annual Chick-fil-A Bowl where Duke's matchup with Texas A&M registered nearly nine million viewers to rank as ESPN's most-watched non-BCS bowl game. For his efforts, Cutcliffe was named the National Coach of the Year by five outlets — American Football Coaches Association, Bobby Dodd Foundation, Maxwell Football Club, Sporting News and Walter Camp Foundation — while earning his second consecutive ACC Coach of the Year citation.

Duke's ascension to the top of the division standings has been spearheaded by Cutcliffe, who took over the program prior to the 2008 campaign after the Blue Devils had won just 10 total games in the previous eight seasons. Cutcliffe's vision has come together in the last three years with 25 victories, tied for the winningest three-year stretch in program history, three bowl appearances and the 2013 ACC Coastal Division championship.

Highlights from the last three years include an eight-game winning streak in 2013 (Duke's longest since 1941), the program's first appearance in the BCS standings in 2013 and in the College Football Playoff rankings in 2014 and a final national rankings in both polls in 2013 (22nd by USA Today/Coaches & 23rd by Associated Press) to mark Duke's first showing in a final poll since 1962. Cutcliffe directed the 2013 Blue Devils to a school record four fourth quarter victories as well as, for the first time since 1971, two wins over nationally-ranked opponents. A year later, Cutcliffe had Duke as high as No. 19 in both the USA Today and Associated Press polls, its highest AP ranking since Nov. 12, 1994. Duke also won two or more games as a ranked team in consecutive years for the first time since the 1954-55 seasons.

Individual talent was nearly as high as team success in 2014 as the Blue Devils had six All-America picks, tied for the third most in a year in program history and the most in a campaign since six in 1965. Right guard Laken Tomlinson became just the fifth Blue Devil to be named consensus All-America and in April was a first round (No. 28 overall to the Detroit Lions) in the 2015 NFL Draft. Tomlinson was named to eight All-America teams in 2014, the most by any player in a year in Duke history. Safety Jeremy Cash became Duke's first All-America choice in consecutive years since Clarkston Hines in 1988-89.

Under Cutcliffe's guidance, wide receiver Jamison Crowder finished his career in 2014 with 283 receptions, tied with former Blue Devil wideout Conner Vernon (2009-12/283) for the Duke and ACC career records. A fourth round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft, Crowder also capped his career with the second most receiving yards in program history (3,641 — third-most in the ACC) and joined Hines (1987-88-89) as the only ACC players with three 1,000-yard seasons. Another record breaker in 2014 under Cutcliffe's tutoring was quarterback Anthony Boone, who won 19 games as a starter, surpassing Jerry Barger (1951-54; 17) for the most victories by a Duke signal caller in program history.

Duke continued its off-the-field success under Cutcliffe in 2014 as linebacker David Helton became Duke's first National Football Foundation William V. Campbell Trophy winner, awarded to the nation's absolute best college football student-athlete. Helton was also a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honoree and the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner. Tomlinson was named to the AFCA Good Works Team, the fifth such selection under Cutcliffe at Duke. Tomlinson also was named the Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award recipient and was one of a league-high 13 Blue Devils to receive Academic All-ACC honors.

Cutcliffe's 2013 squad featured three All-America selections — Cash, Crowder and kickoff returner DeVon Edwards — as well as a school record 11 All-ACC picks. A perfect November record of 4-0 included wins over N.C. State, Miami, Wake Forest and North Carolina and propelled the Blue Devils into the Dr Pepper ACC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In addition, Duke enjoyed a perfect 5-0 record on the road — the program's best mark since 1962 — and won four-plus home games and four-plus away games in a season for just the third time in school history, joining the 1939 & 1941 teams, all after being a consensus last place projection in the conference standings.

Duke's 2013 club became the first ACC squad to lose its first two conference games and win the division championship. Other highlights included a league-high 21 selections to the Academic All-ACC team, numerous school records including most points and total offensive yards and cornerback Ross Cockrell being selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

In 2012, Cutcliffe was named the ACC Coach of the Year after leading the Blue Devils to the program's first bowl game appearance since 1994. Duke enjoyed the year with nine players earning All-ACC recognition including first team selections Cockrell, punter Will Monday and Vernon.

In addition, quarterback Sean Renfree, who threw for over 3,000 yards for the second time in his career, achieved numerous accolades including the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award, the Pop Warner National College Football Award and the ACC's Jim Tatum Award while earning a spot on the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Renfree went on to be a seventh round pick of the Atlanta Falcons in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Cutcliffe's innovative offensive scheme was again put on display during the 2012 season as the Blue Devils scored a school single-season record 410 points and became just the second team in ACC history to boast two receivers — Vernon and Crowder — with at least 1,000 receiving yards apiece. The Crowder-Vernon combination also established a conference record for most combined receptions (161) while becoming the first duo in league history to post 75 or more receptions each.

Vernon closed his career as the ACC's all-time leader in both pass receptions (283) and receiving yards (3,749) while Crowder etched his name into the NCAA record book with a 99-yard touchdown reception from Renfree against Miami.

The 2011 season — Cutcliffe's fourth in Durham — featured outstanding play from safety Matt Daniels, a first team All-ACC and second team All-America selection who represented Duke in the annual East-West Shrine Game. The Fayetteville, Ga., native posted 128 tackles, 14 pass break-ups and two interceptions in his final season. Following the season, Duke had a then ACC-record 19 players named to the league's academic all-conference squad. The Blue Devils broke the record a year later in 2012 with 20 selections.

In 2010, the Blue Devil offense produced an average of 381.3 yards per game — Duke's highest total since 1989 — as Renfree became just the fourth player in school history to throw for over 3,000 yards. In addition, kicker Will Snyderwine was a first team All-America honoree after booting a school single-season record 21 field goals and compiling 95 points to post the second-highest single-season total in Duke history.

Cutcliffe's second campaign at Duke — 2009 — yielded a 5-7 ledger to give the program its most wins in a season since 1994. Quarterback Thaddeus Lewis, a two-time All-ACC selection who became just the second player in ACC history to throw for over 10,000 yards and later started the regular season finale for the Cleveland Browns in 2012 before throwing for 1,092 yards for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, led the conference in passing after throwing for 3,330 yards and 20 touchdowns against just eight interceptions.

In 2008, Cutcliffe led the Blue Devils to four victories — matching the school's win total from the previous four seasons combined.

Duke's fan support also has increased since Cutcliffe took the helm of the gridiron program. In his first season, Duke set a school single-season record with four home crowds of 30,000 or more spectators. Eighteen of Duke's 47 home dates in the Cutcliffe Era have reached 30,000 fans — compared to just four of the previous 47 home games prior to his arrival. In 2010, Duke established a school record for attendance with 201,248 total spectators at Wallace Wade Stadium.

Cutcliffe, born September 16, 1954, came to Duke after serving the previous two seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee. His head coaching experience includes a six-year stint at the University of Mississippi from 1999-04 where he compiled a 44-29 (.603) ledger with five winning seasons, five bowl game appearances and a share of the SEC Western Division championship in 2003. Cutcliffe was named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2003 after leading the Rebels to a 10-3 record including a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl.

Cutcliffe has participated in 25 bowl games including the 1982 Peach, 1983 Florida Citrus, 1984 Sun, 1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach, 1990 Cotton, 1991 Sugar, 1992 Fiesta, 1993 Hall of Fame, 1994 Florida Citrus, 1994 Gator, 1996 Florida Citrus, 1997 Florida Citrus, 1998 Orange, 1998 Independence, 1999 Independence, 2000 Music City, 2002 Independence, 2004 Cotton, 2007 Outback, 2008 Outback, 2012 Belk, 2013 Chick-fil-A and 2014 Sun. He owns a 4-4 (.500) record as a head coach in bowl tilts with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech.

As a member of the coaching staff at Tennessee from 1982-98, Cutcliffe helped the Volunteers to five SEC championships, 16 bowl games in 17 seasons and the national title in 1998. His first tenure with the Vols featured the mentoring of quarterbacks Andy Kelly, Heath Shuler, Tee Martin and Peyton Manning.

Kelly, who played at Tennessee from 1988-91 and graduated atop the school's career passing chart, has gone on to become the Arena Football League's career leader in pass completions, pass attempts, passing yards and touchdown passes. Shuler, a first team All-America choice in 1993 after throwing for 2,353 yards and a then school-record 25 touchdowns, was the third overall pick by the Washington Redskins in the 1994 NFL Draft. In November of 2006, Shuler was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from North Carolina's 11th congressional district.

By throwing for 19 touchdowns against just six interceptions, Martin directed the Volunteer offense in 1998 as Tennessee went 13-0 and captured the SEC and national championships. Peyton Manning's career concluded in 1997 when the signal-caller threw for 3,819 yards and 36 touchdowns while earning first team All-America honors as well as the Maxwell Award presented annually to the nation's top player. Peyton Manning was the top pick in the 1998 NFL Draft, earned league MVP honors in 2003, 2004, 2008 and 2009 and was named the MVP of Super Bowl XLI as his Indianapolis Colts defeated the Chicago Bears, 25-17, on February 4, 2007.

In 1997, the Tennessee offensive unit established school single-season standards for first downs (300), pass completions (296), pass attempts (492), passing yards (3,981), passing touchdowns (37) and total offense (5,794) as the Volunteers went 11-2 and defeated Auburn, 30-29, in the SEC championship game.

In 1998, Cutcliffe was honored with the Frank Broyles Award, an honor given annually to the top assistant coach in the country. During Cutcliffe's tenure as offensive coordinator from 1993-98, Tennessee enjoyed four 1,000-yard rushers in Charlie Garner (1,161 in 1993), James Stewart (1,028 in 1994), Jay Graham (1,438 in 1995) and Jamal Lewis (1,364 in 1997). Stewart (19th overall pick by Jacksonville in 1995) and Lewis (5th overall pick by Baltimore in 2000) went on to be first round selections in the NFL Draft.

On December 2, 1998, Cutcliffe was named the head coach at Ole Miss and coached the Rebels in their 35-18 Independence Bowl win over Texas Tech to conclude the 1998 campaign.

While at Ole Miss, Cutcliffe tutored 2003 SEC Player of the Year Eli Manning. Manning was a first team All-America pick as a senior, closed his career with an SEC-record 10,119 passing yards and was the top overall choice in the 2004 NFL Draft. In his fourth professional season, he guided the New York Giants to the Super Bowl and earned MVP honors after throwing for 255 yards and two touchdowns in a 17-14 win over the New England Patriots on February 3, 2008.

Cutcliffe also coached three-time All-SEC running back Deuce McAllister, who set Rebel career records for rushing yards (3,060) and rushing touchdowns (37) and was a first round selection of the New Orleans Saints in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Cutcliffe's recruiting efforts at Ole Miss produced three national award winners in Eli Manning (2003; Maxwell Award), Jon Nichols (2003; Lou Groza Award presented annually to the top kicker in the nation) and Patrick Willis (2006; Butkus Award presented annually to the top linebacker in the country). During his six seasons at the helm of the Rebel program, Mississippi set school single-season records for total offense, passing offense and scoring offense while winning twice at both Auburn and LSU, securing consecutive victories over Florida, and defeating both Arkansas and South Carolina on three occasions.

In the spring of 2005, Cutcliffe joined the coaching staff at Notre Dame, but resigned from the post for health reasons. He then returned to Knoxville prior to the 2006 season. Cutcliffe helped the Volunteers to a 19-8 record from 2006-07 with two appearances in the Outback Bowl. In 2007, Tennessee went 10-4 with a 6-2 league mark en route to winning the SEC Eastern Division crown. The Tennessee offense allowed an NCAA-low four sacks on the year, and quarterback Erik Ainge earned MVP honors of the Outback Bowl after throwing for 365 yards and two touchdowns as the Volunteers defeated Wisconsin, 21-17. Tennessee running back Arian Foster rushed for 1,193 yards on the year while wide receiver Lucas Taylor reached the 1,000-yard plateau for receiving yards. In addition, offensive guard Anthony Parker garnered second team All-America accolades.

With Cutcliffe at offensive coordinator, Tennessee scored 30 or more points in 62 of 100 games, posting a 59-3 (.952) ledger in those contests. The Volunteers compiled an overall record of 173-54-7 (.754) during his 19 seasons. Cutcliffe is the only coach in SEC history to have two quarterbacks throw for over 10,000 career yards while his offenses produced the all-time leading passers, rushers and receivers at both Ole Miss and Tennessee.

Cutcliffe's coaching tenure as both an assistant and head coach features five quarterbacks that have surpassed the 3,000-yard barrier in a single season: Peyton Manning (Tennessee, 1996 & 1997), Eli Manning (Ole Miss, 2002 & 2003), Ainge (Tennessee, 2007), Lewis (Duke, 2009) and Renfree (Duke, 2010). In addition, nine of Cutcliffe's signal-calling pupils have either earned all-conference honors or led their respective team to a bowl game victory.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Cutcliffe graduated from the University of Alabama in 1976. He got his start in coaching at Banks High School — his alma mater — and spent four years as an assistant coach before becoming the head coach in 1980.

Cutcliffe is married to the former Karen Oran of Harriman, Tenn., and they have four children (Chris, Marcus, Katie [Kolls] & Emily), one daughter-in-law (Molly), one son-in-law (Chris Kolls) and two grandsons (Shivers & Bennett).

Scottie Montgomery

BAXTER FAMILY ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (QB)

7TH SEASON AT DUKE

DUKE, 2000

Scottie Montgomery, a 2000 graduate of Duke University, serves as the program's Baxter Family Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator while mentoring the Blue Devil quarterbacks.

The 2015 campaign marks Montgomery's second as both primary offensive play-caller and quarterbacks coach at Duke. Montgomery, who starred as an All-ACC wideout at Duke from 1996-99, rejoined the Duke staff prior to the 2013 season after serving the previous three seasons (2010-11-12) as an assistant coach with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers. The Cleveland County, N.C., native spent four seasons (2006-07-08-09) on the Blue Devil staff under head coaches Ted Roof and David Cutcliffe.

During his first year as offensive coordinator, Montgomery oversaw an attack that tallied 421 points, the second-highest single season total in program history, behind only the 2013 squad, which Montgomery served as Duke's wide receivers coach. The Blue Devil offense finished 2014 averaging 32.38 points per game, marking the first time in program history to average 30.00 or more points for three straight years. The 2014 unit also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense, reaching the 5,000-yard plateau for the third straight season, a first in program history. Last season's Blue Devil offensive unit became the first in school history to average 180-plus rushing yards and 210-plus passing yards per game.

Montgomery will be tasked with grooming a new starting quarterback in 2015 following the graduation of Anthony Boone, who left Duke as the all-time winningest starting quarterback and agreed to terms with the NFL's Detroit Lions in the spring. Boone was an All-ACC pick as a senior and finished his career having completed 540-of-923 (.585) passes for 5,789 yards with 38 touchdowns and 24 interceptions while rushing 230 times for 800 yards and 16 touchdowns.

In 2013, Montgomery guided Duke's receiving unit that included first team All-ACC wideout Jamison Crowder, who set a conference single-season record with 108 pass receptions for 1,330 yards and eight touchdowns.

Coaching the wide receivers, Montgomery helped the Steelers to a three-year regular season record of 32-16 including the 2010 AFC North division championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLV, where Pittsburgh fell to the Green Bay Packers, 31-25. The Steelers also reached the playoffs in 2011. Among the wideouts mentored by Montgomery were Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown. A four-time NFL Pro Bowl selection, Ward finished his career as the organization's all-time leader in receptions (1,000), receiving yardage (12,083) and receiving touchdowns (85). Wallace earned a Pro Bowl bid in 2011 after catching 72 passes for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns while Brown was the Steelers' team MVP in 2011 after becoming the first player in NFL history to amass 1,000-plus yards both receiving and on kick returns.

During his previous four-year coaching tenure at Duke, Montgomery mentored several of the finest wide receivers in school and ACC history. Eron Riley was a two-time All-ACC selection in 2006-07 and caught 144 career passes for 2,413 yards and 22 touchdowns while his 16.77 career yards per catch averaged was the fourth-highest in Duke history at the time of his graduation. Donovan Varner and Conner Vernon both were recruited to Duke by Montgomery out of Miami and enjoyed outstanding careers in Durham. A first team All-ACC pick in 2009, Varner caught 207 passes for 2,660 yards from 2008-11 while Vernon, a three-time (2010-11-12) all-league selection, became the ACC's career leader in both catches (283) and receiving yardage (3,749).

As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996-99, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving three straight seasons (1997-98-99) and twice earned the program's Carmen Falcone Award (1998 & 1999) as the Most Valuable Player. He became just the third player in school history to lead the program in receptions in three straight years, joining Howard Pitt (1951-52-53) and Stan Crisson (1961-62-63), and became just the sixth Blue Devil to earn multiple team MVP honors.

Montgomery closed his own collegiate career with 171 catches for 2,379 yards and 13 touchdowns. He caught 51 passes in both 1997 and 1999 and registered a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998.

Montgomery's name is etched into the Duke record book for longest plays with an 88-yard pass from Bobby Campbell against Vanderbilt in 1998 and a 99-yard kickoff return versus Wake Forest in 1999. Montgomery finished his career ranking among Duke's all-time leaders in kickoff returns (63) and kickoff return yards (1,515) and all-purpose yardage (4,188).

During his senior campaign in 1999, Montgomery established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565 and he continues to hold two of Duke's top single-game totals for all-purpose yardage with 262 versus Vanderbilt in 1998 and 250 against Virginia in 1999. In the Vanderbilt contest, he registered 243 receiving yards, a total that at the time marked the fourth-highest single-game performance in school history.

Montgomery played professionally with the NFL's Denver Broncos (2000-02) and Oakland Raiders (2003). He is married to the former Ebony McDuffie of Detroit, Mich., and the couple has two sons, Cassius (born September 24, 2009) and Moses (born June 27, 2013).

John Latina

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH (OL)

RUN GAME COORDINATOR

4TH SEASON AT DUKE

VIRGINIA TECH, 1981

John Latina joined the Duke staff in December of 2011 and serves as the program's Assistant Head Coach and Run Game Coordinator. A member of David Cutcliffe's staff at Ole Miss from 1999-2004, Latina coaches the offensive line. After serving the 2012 season as an assistant coach, Latina was promoted to his current role in February of 2013.

Latina may have had his most decorated group in 2014 as right guard Laken Tomlinson became Duke's fifth consensus All-America honoree and was a first round selection (No. 28 overall) in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. Honored with the ACC's McKevlin Award as the league's male athlete of the year for 2014-15, Tomlinson also received the Courage Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America in conjunction with the Orange Bowl, an award presented annually to a player, coach or support person in college football who displays courage, on or off the field, and was named to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, which recognizes community service in addition to academic and athletic achievement. Also, left tackle Takoby Cofield earned third team All-ACC accolades and signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Washington Redskins in the spring.

The offensive line surrendered just 41.0 tackles for lost yardage in 2014, an average of 3.15 TFL per game — and both totals were the lowest in the nation. The Blue Devils also allowed 13.0 sacks in 2014, tied for the 10th fewest allowed among FBS programs, as Duke led the ACC in fewest sacks allowed per passing attempt for the second straight season.

Latina's unit also opened holes for a 2014 rushing attack that averaged 181.85 rushing yards per game, its highest average since gaining 198.64 yards per contest in 1977. Since Latina arrived after the 2011 season, Duke has nearly doubled its average rushing yards per game, from 94.08 yards per game in 2011 to last year's total.

The 2013 offensive line was spearheaded by a pair of All-ACC selections — first team pick Tomlinson and third team choice Perry Simmons — as the Blue Devils ranked among ACC leaders in sacks allowed per passing attempt (1st; 27.8), scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the 2013 Duke squad set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

Duke's offensive front aided in the protection of quarterbacks Anthony Boone and Brandon Connette, who combined to complete 296-of-467 (.634) passes for 3,472 yards with 26 TDs while opening holes for a ground attack that featured Connette's school single-season record-tying 14 rushing touchdowns.

Simmons saw his career come to a close after 50 consecutive starts at right tackle, and the two-time Academic All-America choice was named one of 16 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes. In addition, he was the recipient of the 2013 Jack Tatum Award as the ACC's top senior student-athlete for football.

In 2012, the Duke offensive line, headlined by All-ACC selections Dave Harding and Simmons, ranked second in the conference in sacks allowed per game as quarterback Sean Renfree topped the 3,000-yard barrier for the second time in his career.

Duke's 2012 passing game also featured All-ACC receivers Jamison Crowder (76 receptions, 1,074 yards, 8 touchdowns) and Conner Vernon (85-1,074-8), and the duo set a conference single-season record for most combined catches while becoming just the second pair in league history to each post over 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.

In May, 2012, Harding spearheaded a well-digging mission trip to Ethiopia that included teammates Coffield, Conor Irwin, Brian Moore, Simmons, Tomlinson, Joey Finison, Teddy Force, Travis Gibson and Cody Robinson.

Latina joined the Duke staff following two years (2010-11) as the offensive coordinator at the University of Akron. Prior to that, he mentored the offensive line for four seasons (2005-08) at Notre Dame.

During Latina's stint in South Bend, the Notre Dame offensive front opened holes for a pair of 1,000-yard rushing seasons for running back Darius Walker, who became just the fourth Irish running back to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards in consecutive seasons. In 2006, the line helped protect quarterback Brady Quinn as he surpassed 3,000 passing yards for the second consecutive campaign en route to receiving the Maxwell Award and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award.

Notre Dame participated in the Fiesta, Sugar and Hawai'i bowl games during Latina's coaching tenure.

Latina's six-year (1999-04) tenure at Ole Miss was headlined by five winning seasons and four bowl game appearances — Independence Bowl (twice), Music City Bowl and Cotton Bowl. In 2003, the Rebels went 10-3, shared the SEC Western Division championship with LSU and defeated Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl as the offense established school records for points scored (442) and total offensive yards (5,631). That squad was led by quarterback Eli Manning, who earned SEC Player of the Year and first team All-America honors before being selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft.

No stranger to the ACC, Latina spent five years (1994-98) at Clemson, helping the program to three bowl games — once to the Gator Bowl and twice to the Peach Bowl. While with the Tigers, he coached six All-ACC offensive linemen.

Latina also spent five seasons (1989-93) at Kansas State where, in 1993, the Wildcats went 9-2-1, defeated Wyoming in the Copper Bowl and finished the year ranked 20th in the Associated Press poll. The bowl win capped Kansas State's most successful season in over eight decades.

Before his time at Kansas State, Latina served on the football staffs at both Pittsburgh (1982) and Temple (1983-88).

A 1981 graduate of Virginia Tech, Latina lettered three seasons as an offensive lineman with the Hokies. The New Castle, Pa., native spent the 1981 season as a graduate assistant coach, helping his alma mater to the Peach Bowl.

Latina and his wife, Michele, also from New Castle, have two sons, John and Michael.

Jim Knowles

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR (ILB)

6TH SEASON AT DUKE

CORNELL, 1987

Jim Knowles was added to the Blue Devil staff on December 28, 2009 and serves as the program's Defensive Coordinator and inside linebackers coach. He was the head coach at Cornell for six seasons (2004-09) and a member of David Cutcliffe's 2003 staff at Ole Miss.

Knowles' 2014 defensive unit yielded 21.77 points a game, marking the fifth-best mark since 1976 and tops since allowing 20.58 points per game in 1994. Anchoring the defense was All-America safety Jeremy Cash, All-ACC safety DeVon Edwards and all-league linebacker David Helton as each tallied 100-plus tackles, becoming the eighth trio in program with 100 or more stops apiece. Cash and Helton were the first Duke players with 100 or more stops in consecutive seasons since Vincent Rey and Michael Tauiliili in 2007-08.

The trio helped Duke hold held seven opponents to under 20 points in 2014, the program's most since 1974. The Blue Devils kept five foes to 13 or fewer points last season after having seven opponents under 13 points in head coach David Cutcliffe's previous six seasons.

In 2013, Duke's defense included three first team All-ACC picks in linebacker Kelby Brown, Cash and cornerback Ross Cockrell, marking Duke's highest total of defensive first team selections since 1974. With 133 tackles on the year, linebacker Helton led the ACC in total stops while Cash finished second with 121. Brown was tops in the league in tackles per game (10.4) in conference play.

Cockrell was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

The Blue Devils recorded 26 takeaways in 2013 — the fourth-highest total in the ACC — and their average points allowed in the fourth quarter (4.64) ranked second in the conference, trailing only national champion Florida State. In addition, Duke won all four of its road ACC games by allowing an average of 19.5 points per contest in victories over North Carolina, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

The Blue Devils had three members of its defensive unit earn All-ACC honors in 2012: defensive end Kenny Anunike (Honorable mention), safety Walt Canty (2nd team) and Cockrell (1st team). Anunike led Duke in sacks for the second straight season; Canty paced the squad in tackles with 109 while Cockrell, an honorable mention All-America pick by Sports Illustrated, posted an ACC-best five interceptions on the year.

In 2011, the Duke defense was led by safety Matt Daniels, who earned first team All-ACC and second team All-America honors after posting 126 tackles. Daniels went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's St. Louis Rams.

Knowles coached the Blue Devil safeties in 2010 as Daniels led the charge with 93 tackles, six tackles for loss, seven pass breakups, three caused fumbles and two fumble recoveries. His three forced fumbles ranked second in the ACC. In addition, Canty carded 63 tackles while Lee Butler chipped in 58 stops.

In addition, Knowles oversaw the mid-season transition of August Campbell from line-backer to safety and the redshirt freshman responded with a school record 95-yard fumble return for a touchdown against Boston College. The return broke the 54-year old record of 77 yards set by Ed Rushton against Pittsburgh in 1956.

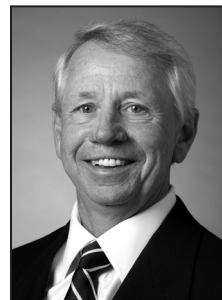

A 1987 graduate of Cornell, Knowles spent nine years (1988-96) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, helping the Big Red to Ivy League championships in 1988 and 1990. In his first stint at Cornell, he coached defensive line (1988), running backs (1989-94) and linebackers (1995-96) while coordinating the staff's recruiting efforts (1995-96). He was named Cornell's 25th head football coach in January, 2004, and guided the Big Red to an overall ledger of 26-34 with a 16-26 record in Ivy League play.

In his first season at the helm of the Big Red program, Knowles turned a 1-9 squad that lost seven games by at least two touchdowns into a 4-6 unit that went 4-3 in conference play and lost all six contests by 10 points or less. Cornell's 2004 squad became the first team in Ivy League history to go from zero conference wins to a winning league slate in just one season. Under Knowles, Cornell posted three consecutive seasons (2005-06-07) at .500 or better for the first time since 1990-91-92 and, in 2007, enjoyed a stretch of scoring 30 or more points in four straight games for the first time since 1921 while home attendance nearly doubled from the 2006 campaign.

In his lone season at Ole Miss, Knowles aided the Rebels to a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC Western Division championship and a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl. Coaching the linebackers while serving as recruiting coordinator, Knowles helped the Ole Miss defense rank 14th in the nation in rushing defense while the Rebels held eight opponents -- including eventual national champion LSU -- to 21 or fewer points.

Knowles spent six seasons (1997-02) on the staff at Western Michigan University, serving the last two campaigns as defensive coordinator. In 2002, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference and ranked 28th nationally in total defense and featured Jason Babin, the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the school's first NFL first round draft pick. In 2001, Western Michigan paced the conference and ranked 17th nationally in pass defense. Knowles' tenure with the Broncos also included three shutouts during the 2000 season -- the school's highest total since 1971 — and the development of two-time All-MAC pick Dan Falcon (1997-98) and Ryan Bauer, who led the league in sacks in 1997.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Knowles was a three-year letterman and All-Ivy League selection as a defensive end at Cornell before graduating in 1987 with a bachelor's degree from the School of Industrial and Labor Relations. He and his wife, Nancy, have three children — Halle, Luke and Jack.

Jim Collins

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR (OLB/DE)

14TH SEASON AT DUKE

ELON, 1974

Jim Collins was named to the Duke coaching staff in January of 2008 to begin his third stint with the Blue Devils. Collins was a graduate assistant with head coach Steve Sloan in 1983 and later served five campaigns from 1985-89 under both Sloan and Steve Spurrier. Collins serves as the Assistant Defensive Coordinator and coaches the Blue Devil outside linebackers and defensive ends.

A year ago, Collins guided linebacker David Helton to first team All-ACC honors. Helton led the league in tackles per game (10.31) for the second straight year, becoming only the fifth player in league history to repeat as tackle champion, and the first since NFL Pro Bowler Luke Kuechly from 2009-11. Helton recorded 134 tackles, tied for the 14th-highest single-campaign total in school history, and ended his career ranked 10th in program history in tackles with 347, becoming the 15th Blue Devil to reach the 300-tackle plateau.

Off the field, Helton's 2014 campaign was one of the finest in Duke history as he received the National Football Foundation (NFF) William V. Campbell Trophy, given to the best collegiate football student-athlete in the nation, as well as the ACC's Jim Tatum Award, presented to the top senior football student-athlete in the league. In addition, Helton was an NFF Scholar-Athlete Award selection and a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy.

In 2013, the Duke defensive unit was paced by linebackers Kelby Brown and Helton. Brown, a first team All-ACC pick and three-time league player of the week honoree, registered 114 tackles with 11.0 tackles for loss and a pair of interceptions while Helton led the conference in total stops with 133.

Duke's linebacking group in 2012 featured a four-man rotation with senior Austin Gamble, sophomores C.J. France and Helton and redshirt freshman Kyler Brown. The group combined for 203 tackles.

In 2011, Collins mentored a linebacking unit that featured zero seniors as sophomore Kelby Brown and Gamble ranked third and fifth on the team in tackles with 65 and 43 stops, respectively. Brown also led the Blue Devils in tackles for loss despite missing two games due to injury.

Two of Collins' pupils were recognized following the 2010 season as senior Abraham Kromah was an honorable mention All-ACC pick while Brown received Freshman All-America accolades. Kromah paced Duke in tackles with 120 stops — including a career-high 20 in the season finale against North Carolina — while Brown, who played in just nine contests, led the nation in fumble recoveries per game (0.44) and totaled 63 tackles.

In 2008 and 2009, Collins coached a pair of honor-earning linebackers in Michael Tauiliili and Vincent Rey. Tauiliili received All-America accolades in 2008 after leading the ACC in tackles with 140 while Rey was an All-ACC selection in 2009. Both players finished their respective careers ranking among the top tacklers in Duke history and signed free agent contracts with NFL clubs — Tauiliili with the Indianapolis Colts in 2009 and Rey with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2010.

A native of Greensboro, N.C., Collins began his coaching career at Page (N.C.) High School in 1974. He then served as the defensive coordinator at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1980 before coaching the defensive backs and outside linebackers at Appalachian State from 1981-82. After one season at Duke as a graduate assistant coach, he was the defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State in 1984.

In 1985, Collins returned to Durham for a five-year stint with the Blue Devils. Coaching Duke's linebackers, he mentored Mike Junkin, a second team All-America pick in 1986 who became the school's all-time leading tackler and was a first round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 1987 NFL Draft. Collins served as Duke's co-defensive coordinator in 1989 as the Blue Devils posted an 8-4 record, won seven straight games to close the regular season, captured the ACC championship and participated in the All American Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Collins then went with Spurrier to Florida, serving on the staff from 1990-01. During his tenure with the Gators, he worked with the linebackers, defensive ends and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator as Florida compiled an overall record of 122-27-1. The successful 12-year run included the 1996 national championship with a 52-20 victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl as well as an 82-12 record in SEC regular season action, nine 10-win seasons, 10 campaigns ranked in the top 10 of the final Associated Press national poll, six SEC titles, 11 bowl game berths, 81 All-America citations and 13 first round NFL Draft selections.

In 2002-03, Collins worked with the NFL's Washington Redskins, coaching the linebackers while assisting with special teams. He then Collins joined the staff at Marshall where he guided the defensive backs in 2004 before coordinating the defense for the next two years. In 2005, his Thundering Herd defensive unit led Conference USA in total defense while ranking 12th nationally against the pass.

During his college coaching career, Collins has participated in 14 bowl games: 1989 All American, 1992 Sugar, 1992 Gator, 1994 Sugar, 1995 Sugar, 1996 Fiesta, 1997 Sugar, 1998 Citrus, 1999 Orange, 2000 Citrus, 2001 Sugar, 2002 Orange, 2004 Fort Worth and 2012 Belk.

Collins played defensive back at Elon College before graduating in 1974 with a degree in physical education. He later earned a master's degree in education from North Carolina A&T in 1979. Collins married Yvonne Knutson on January 24, 2015. Collins, whose first wife, Geri, of nearly 38 years passed away in December of 2012, has one daughter, Jennifer.

Zac Roper

ASSISTANT COACH (TE)

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

RECRUITING COORDINATOR

8TH SEASON AT DUKE

OLE MISS, 2001

A member of the Duke staff since January of 2008, Zac Roper serves as the program's Special Teams Coordinator and Recruiting Coordinator while coaching the tight ends.

The 2014 campaign may have been Roper's best coaching performance as Duke had four All-America special teams performers. Punt returner Jamison Crowder picked up second team All-America accolades from Lindy's while kickoff returner DeVon Edwards, punter Will Monday and kicker Ross Martin all were honorable mention choices by Sports Illustrated.

Crowder returned two punts for touchdowns, including the game-winning score at Syracuse, and averaged 12.7 yards per runback. Edwards broke off a 99-yard kickoff return for a score at Pittsburgh and finished the year averaging 25.7 yards per return. Martin set school single-season and career scoring records during the 2014 campaign while extended his school record streak of consecutive PATs to 110. He enters his senior year with 52 career field goals, three shy of the Blue Devil record, after making 19-of-21 attempts in 2014.

Monday was a key part of Duke's punt unit, which yielded just 33 return yards, or 2.54 yards a game and 2.06 yards per runback. The 2.06 yards a return were tied for the third-best mark nationally. Monday dropped 17 punts inside the 20-yard line and caused 20 fair catches while booting 13 for 50 or more yards.

At tight end, Roper and the Blue Devils overcame the preseason loss of All-ACC performer Braxton Deaver, who suffered a season-ending injury in August. David Reeves led the unit with three touchdown receptions including the game-winning score in Duke's 20-13 triumph over Virginia.

In 2013 — Roper's first year directing the Blue Devil tight ends — Duke's offense featured third team All-ACC choice Deaver at tight end, and Reeves. Deaver finished the year with 46 catches for 600 yards and four touchdowns while Reeves became the first player in Duke history with touchdown receptions in multiple bowl games.

Under Roper's guidance, Duke boasted a pair of 2013 All-Americans in the return game with both Crowder and Edwards garnering recognition. Crowder averaged 16.0 yards per punt return and posted two returns for touchdowns while Edwards, who returned a pair of kickoffs for scores, averaged 30.2 yards per kickoff return. In addition, Martin and Monday earned All-ACC honors in 2013.

Roper mentored the Blue Devil running backs in each of his first five seasons in Durham. Duke's rushing attack in 2012 featured three backs — Jela Duncan, Josh Snead and Juwan Thompson — that totaled 1,401 yards while averaging 4.95 yards per carry. The trio also combined for 53 pass receptions for an additional 263 yards.

On the special teams front, Martin and Monday enjoyed successful rookie campaigns as both earned Freshman All-America recognition. Martin set an ACC freshman and school single-season record with 106 total points while Monday led the ACC in punting average.

In 2011, Duke scored 19 times on the ground, matching the program's top output since 1995. Thompson was one of just six running backs in the ACC to amass 450-plus rushing yards, five or more rushing TDs and 20-plus receptions on the year.

In the three-year span from 2010-12, the Blue Devils recovered an ACC-best eight on-side kicks while ranking among the top four in kickoff coverage all three seasons. In addition, Duke was second in the ACC in punt return average in 2012 and scored two touchdowns.

Under Roper's direction, kicker Will Snyderwine earned first team All-America honors from the American Football Coaches Association in 2010 after booting a school single-season record 21 field goals along with all 32 of his PAT attempts.

Also in 2010, Duke's rushing game showed marked improvement by nearly doubling its yardage total from the previous year while rushing for 19 scores.

Snyderwine garnered All-ACC honors in 2009 after making 17 field goals.

In 2008, Roper managed the unexpected loss of returning starting running back Re'quan Boyette by preparing three backs — Clifford Harris, Jay Hollingsworth and Tony Jackson — for action despite the trio combining for a total of 92 career rushing attempts entering the year. The combination rushed for 1,003 yards while catching 51 passes for an additional 421 yards.

From 2005-07, Roper helped Cornell University to an overall ledger of 16-14. He coached the running backs and tight ends during his first two seasons before switching to cornerbacks in 2007 and also served as special teams coordinator. Roper coached or recruited eight Ivy League Player of the Week selections.

On the special teams front in 2007, Cornell paced the league in punt return average — returning two punts for touchdowns during the year — and kickoff coverage. The Big Red also posted touchdowns via fake field goal and kickoff return. Coaching the running backs in 2006, Roper tutored Luke Siwula, who rushed for 885 yards en route to receiving All-Ivy League honors. In 2005, Cornell finished the year ranked 10th nationally in rushing offense.

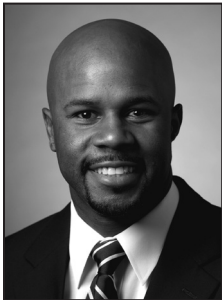

Roper's work with the Cornell placekickers yielded zero missed point after touchdown attempts over his three seasons as A.J. Weitsman and Peter Zell combined to boot 84 consecutive extra points. In addition, Weitsman established a Cornell single-season record with 14 field goals while punter Michael Bolling downed 23-of-52 punts inside the 20 yard-line without a touchback in 2005.

Prior to joining the Big Red staff, Roper spent four years at Ole Miss as a graduate administrative aide and graduate assistant coach under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe, working with the wide receivers, tight ends and placekickers. Mississippi's 2003 squad won 10 games with a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-28, in the Cotton Bowl.

Ole Miss kicker Jonathan Nichols enjoyed a sensational season in 2003 by earning All-SEC and All-America honors while winning the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker. He graduated as the school's all-time leader in total points (344) and finished his career having made 117 consecutive PATs. Punter Cody Ridgeway was an all-league choice in 2003.

Roper was an undergraduate assistant coach at Oklahoma from 1996-98. He graduated from Ole Miss in 2001 with a degree in political science and went on to earn a master's degree in higher education/student personnel two years later.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Roper is married to the former Rebecca Harvey of Bossier City, La., and the couple has one son, Joshua (born January 5, 2009) and one daughter, Mikayla (born December 12, 2010).

Derek Jones

ASSISTANT COACH (CB)

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
8TH SEASON AT DUKE

OLE MISS, 1996

Derek Jones joined the Blue Devil coaching staff in January of 2008 and coaches the cornerbacks. Jones also assists Zac Roper with Duke's special teams units.

In 2014, Jones helped cornerbacks Breon Borders and Bryon Fields through their first year as starters. Borders led the Blue Devils with three interceptions and was second on the squad with nine passes defended. He added 39 tackles and one fumble recovery. An Academic All-ACC pick, Fields finished tied for fourth on the team with 70 tackles and tallied 2.5 tackles for lost yardage to go along with an interception return for a touchdown.

Duke enjoyed plenty of success on the special teams front in 2014 with punt returner Jamison Crowder, kickoff returner DeVon Edwards, kicker Ross Martin and punter Will Monday each earning All-America honors. Crowder went on to be a fourth round selection by the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Jones was instrumental in the development of Ross Cockrell, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. A two-year team captain, Cockrell started 49 games at Duke and finished with 233 tackles, 12 interceptions and 42 pass breakups while twice earning first team All-ACC honors in 2012 and 2013. The Waxhaw, N.C., native departed the Blue Devil program as the school's all-time leader in total passes defended (54) and became the first defensive back to be drafted since 1996.

Also in 2013, Borders established the Duke single-season record for interceptions by a freshman (4) and set an ACC Championship Game record for interceptions with two against eventual national champion Florida State.

In 2012, Cockrell earned first team All-ACC and honorable mention All-America honors after posting 71 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss, five interceptions and 13 pass breakups. The five interceptions were tops in the conference. In addition to Cockrell, safety Walt Canty also garnered All-ACC accolades in 2012, receiving a second team citation. Canty paced the Blue Devils in tackles with 109 while closing an outstanding 49-game career that included 262 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, three interceptions, 10 pass breakups and five caused fumbles.

In 2011, safety Matt Daniels — who signed with the NFL's St. Louis Rams in the spring 2012 — was a first team All-ACC and second team All-America pick after registering 126 tackles.

Cockrell earned Freshman All-America accolades in 2010 after leading the Blue Devils with three interceptions while ranking second among ACC rookies in total passes defended (10). Also, five different defensive backs registered interceptions for the Blue Devils last season, and Daniels ranked among the conference leaders in both tackles per game (6th; 7.8) and caused fumbles (2nd; 0.25).

One of Jones' pupils, Leon Wright, concluded an outstanding career in 2009 by earning honorable mention All-ACC honors after totaling 58 tackles, five interceptions and eight pass breakups. Wright was instrumental in Duke's 35-19 come-from-behind win at Army in week two of the 2009 season, returning two interceptions for touchdowns in the fourth quarter, and signed a free agent contract with the NFL's New York Giants in the spring of 2010.

Another cornerback under Jones' guidance, Chris Rwabukamba, was a fourth round draft selection of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the 2010 Canadian Football League Draft.

In 2008, the Blue Devil defense allowed 23.4 points per game — the lowest total in 20 seasons — and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

Prior to joining the Duke staff, Jones helped Memphis to a 7-6 overall record in 2007 — a five-game improvement in the win column from the previous year — with a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. One of Jones' pupils, LaKeitharun Ford, was named co-MVP of the squad after posting 45 tackles and two interceptions.

In 2006, Jones coached the cornerbacks at Tulsa as the Hurricane defense ranked first in Conference USA in pass defense and total defense. Tulsa posted an 8-5 ledger that season and participated in the Armed Forces Bowl. Cornerback Nick Graham earned all-conference honors and is a current member of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to joining the Tulsa staff, Jones worked one season (2005) as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State University where the Blue Raiders ranked 30th nationally against the pass.

Jones received his start in coaching at Ole Miss in 1998 as a graduate assistant for football operations and recruiting. He then served as a defensive graduate assistant coach in 1999 with the Rebels under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe.

From 2000-04, Jones served as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Murray State, mentoring seven all-conference selections in five years. The Racers enjoyed defensive success during Jones' tenure, leading the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense in 2003 and, one year later, ranking 11th nationally in total defense and 23rd nationally in scoring defense.

A native of Woodruff, S.C., Jones lettered four seasons as a cornerback at Ole Miss from 1993-96. He was a two-time second team All-SEC pick, captained the Rebels in 1996 and was selected to play in the prestigious Blue-Gray All-Star Classic following his senior campaign. He also earned All-SEC accolades in track and field as a sprinter.

Jones received a degree in public administration from Ole Miss in 1996, and then played professionally with the Toronto Argonauts and Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and Nashville Kats of the Arena Football League. He and his wife, Naketa, have two daughters, Madison and Brooklyn Savannah. Jones has another daughter, Darquisha.

Re'quan Boyette

ASSISTANT COACH (RB)

4TH SEASON AT DUKE

DUKE, 2009

Former two-time Duke captain Re'quan Boyette joined the Blue Devil staff in July of 2012 and coaches the running backs. Boyette served as a graduate assistant coach during the 2012 season before being promoted to assistant coach in February of 2013.

During the 2014 season, his second as the running backs coach, Boyette guided Duke's stable of four backs to a combined 1,767 rushing yards. As a whole, Duke rushed for 2,364 yards and an average of 181.8 yards per contest, its highest average since 1977. The Blue Devils tallied 20 or more rushing touchdowns in consecutive years for the first time since the 1994-95 seasons. Duke also had three players with five or more rushing touchdowns for just the fourth time in program history.

In 2014, Boyette mentored rookie Shaun Wilson, who established the Duke single-game rushing record with a 245-yard performance against Kansas. Wilson's 245 yards were the 29th-most by an ACC running back and his three touchdowns were the most by a Duke freshman. Wilson also became just the second player in Duke history to have two rushes of 68 or more yards in the same game. In the Hyundai Sun Bowl, junior Shaquille Powell rushed for 119 yards, the third-highest bowl game total in school history.

The rushing performances helped Duke finish 2014 averaging 32.38 points per game. It marked the first time in program history averaging 30.00 or more points for three straight years.

In 2013, Boyette directed Duke's running back unit for the first time as four Blue Devils — senior Juwan Thompson, junior Josh Snead and sophomores Jela Duncan and Powell — shared the responsibility as the featured back. The foursome combined to rush for 1,905 yards and eight touchdowns while catching 34 passes for 288 yards and three additional scores.

Snead, who topped the 100-yard barrier three times on the season including a career-high 138-yard outing in Duke's 48-30 win over Miami and a 104-yard performance in the Chick-fil-A Bowl against Texas A&M, led Duke in rushing with 651 yards while posting the fourth-highest single-season yards per carry average at 6.08. Snead enters the 2014 campaign as one of just two players nationally to have multiple 100-yard rushing bowl games to his credit.

The 2013 Blue Devil offense ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the 2013 Duke squad set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

As a graduate assistant coach in 2012, Boyette was a part of a Blue Devil offense that scored a then school single-season record 410 points as Duke reached a bowl game for the first time since 1994. He worked primarily with the running backs as the trio of Thompson, Snead and Duncan combined to rush for 1,401 yards on 283 attempts, averaging 4.95 yards per carry.

Thompson, who signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Denver Broncos in May of 2014, emerged as one of the most versatile backs in the league while Snead capped off the 2012 season by rushing for a then career-high 107 yards on 17 attempts in the Belk Bowl against Cincinnati. Duncan was an honorable mention Freshman All-America selection by College Football News in 2012 after becoming the ninth rookie to lead the Blue Devils in rushing.

A native of Wilson, N.C., Boyette lettered five seasons (2005-06-07-08-09) as a running back at Duke and served as team captain in both 2008 and 2009. Rushing 314 times for 1,202 yards and five touchdowns in his career, he became the 37th player in school history to reach the 1,000-yard mark on the ground. Boyette, who missed the entire 2008 campaign due to injury, twice led the Blue Devils in rushing in 2006 and 2007.

In addition, he caught 47 career passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns.

On October 22, 2005, Boyette matched the 10th-longest rushing attempt in Duke history with a 78-yard effort against Florida State en route to a career-best 123-yard performance.

In 2008, Boyette was named to the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team and represented Duke at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, La., on January 2, 2009.

Boyette graduated from Duke in 2009 with a degree in sociology.

Jeffrey Faris

ASSISTANT COACH (WR)

4TH SEASON AT DUKE

DUKE, 2011

Former Blue Devil safety Jeffrey Faris joined the Duke staff in July of 2012 and coaches the wide receivers. Faris served as a graduate assistant coach, working primarily with the offense, for the 2012 and 2013 seasons before being promoted to assistant coach in March of 2014.

In 2014, Faris guided senior Jamison Crowder to a record-breaking finish to the Monroe, N.C., native's career. Crowder ended his career with 283 receptions to match the Duke and ACC career records previously set by former teammate Conner Vernon. Crowder's 3,641 receiving yards marked the second most by a Blue Devil rank third in ACC history, behind only Vernon (3,749) and Florida State's Rashad Greene (3,830). In addition, Crowder joined Duke's Clarkston Hines (1987-89) as the only ACC players with three 1,000-yard seasons and finished as the only player in ACC history to catch 100 or more passes in a season (108 receptions in 2013).

Crowder was a fourth round choice of the Washington Redskins in the 2015 NFL Draft, becoming Duke's first wide receiver selected since Hines went in the ninth round to the Buffalo Bills in 1990.

Also in 2014, wideout Issac Blakeney turned in his best year as a Blue Devil and caught 47 passes for 559 yards and a team-high seven touchdowns. Blakeney agreed to terms with the NFL's San Francisco 49ers following the season.

Faris will oversee this year's wide receiving unit, which will be led by senior Max McCaffrey, who caught 37 passes for 385 yards and three touchdowns last season. Last year's wideouts helped Duke average 32.38 points per game. It marked the first time in program history averaging 30.00 or more points for three straight years.

In 2013, Faris worked alongside Scottie Montgomery with Duke's wide receivers as the Blue Devil offense ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the 2013 Duke squad set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

Faris graduated from Duke in 2011 with a degree in economics. In 2009, he earned the Mike Suglia Award, an honor presented annually to the sophomore member of the Duke football program who best exemplifies the academic and athletic qualities of the late Mike Suglia.

In 2011, Faris received the Micah Harris Trinity Teammate Award which is presented each season to a Duke player who displays the traits of a true teammate — character, unselfishness, compassion and pride. In the spring of 2011, Faris was honored by the ACC with a Top 6 For Service award.

Faris, a native of Knoxville, Tenn., earned a master's degree in economics from Duke in 2012 and a master's degree in Christian studies in 2013.

Matt Guerrieri

ASSISTANT COACH (S)

4TH SEASON AT DUKE

DAVIDSON, 2011

Matt Guerrieri joined the staff in July of 2012 and serves as an assistant coach. Guerrieri served as a graduate assistant coach with the Blue Devils for his first three seasons and was promoted to assistant coach in January of 2015.

In Guerrieri's three seasons on the Duke staff, the Blue Devils compiled 25 wins, captured the 2013 ACC Coastal Division championship and made three straight bowl game appearances.

Guerrieri coached Duke's safeties in 2013 and 2014, where he aided in the development of Jeremy Cash, a two-time All-America choice, and DeVon Edwards, an All-ACC selection in 2014. Over the past two seasons, Cash has registered 235 tackles, 20.0 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks and six interceptions. In 2014, he was the only defensive back in the nation to post 100-plus tackles, 10.0-plus tackles for loss and 5.0-plus quarterback sacks. Edwards enjoyed a banner season in 2014 by recording 133 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks, one interception and five caused fumbles. He reached double figures in the tackle column seven times including a career-high 15 stops against North Carolina.

As Duke went 9-4 and earned a berth in the 81st Hyundai Sun Bowl, the Blue Devils ranked among the nation's leaders in third down defense (15th), pass efficiency defense (23rd) and scoring defense (24th). Both Edwards (7th; 0.38) and Cash (17th; 0.31) ranked among the nation's top 20 in caused fumbles per game while Edwards placed 19th in the country in solo tackles per game (5.9). In the ACC, Edwards ranked third in total tackles per game (10.23) while Cash was eighth (8.54). Duke's third starting safety, Deondre Singleton, finished the year with 70 tackles and seven pass breakups.

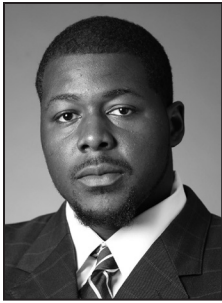

In 2013, the Blue Devils recorded 26 takeaways and their average points allowed in the fourth quarter (4.64) ranked second in the conference, trailing only eventual national champion Florida State. In addition, Duke won all four of its road ACC games by allowing an average of 19.5 points per contest in victories over North Carolina, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

Before joining the Blue Devils, Guerrieri served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Lenoir-Rhyne University in 2011, helping coach the secondary and the outside linebackers. He assisted in guiding the Bears to the 2011 South Atlantic Conference championship and coached safety Michael Green to all-conference and all-region honors.

Guerrieri was a three-year letterman on the gridiron at Davidson College, where he started at safety. He served as senior captain for the Wildcats and was a three-time All-Pioneer Football League Honor Roll selection.

Guerrieri, who graduated from Davidson in 2011 with a degree in sociology, earned a master's degree in Christian studies from Duke in 2014.

Marcus Johnson

QUALITY CONTROL (Offense)

OLE MISS, 2004

Former NFL lineman Marcus Johnson joined the Duke staff in July of 2011 and serves in the capacity of offensive quality control. Johnson worked as an assistant with the football program's strength and conditioning unit during the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

In 2014, Johnson worked with a Duke offense which scored 421 points, the second-highest single season total in program history, behind only the 2013 squad. The offense finished 2014 averaging 32.38 points per game, the first time in program history averaging 30.00 or more points for three straight years. The 2014 unit also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense, reaching the 5,000-yard plateau for the third straight season, a first in program history.

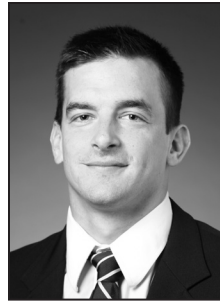

In 2013, Duke ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the Blue Devils set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

A native of Coffeeville, Miss., Johnson lettered four seasons (2001-02-03-04) as an offensive lineman at Ole Miss under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe, serving as team co-captain as a senior. He helped the Rebels to 28 wins over four years, the SEC Western Division co-championship in 2003 and a pair of bowl game appearances.

After earning second team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press as a senior, Johnson represented Ole Miss at the 2004 Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

A second round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2005 NFL Draft, Johnson spent four seasons (2005-06-07-08) with the Vikings and helped the squad to the NFC North Division championship and a playoff berth in 2008. After spending the 2009 campaign with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he closed his playing career with a stint with the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Johnson, who graduated from Ole Miss in 2004 with a degree in criminal justice while minoring in sociology, has one daughter, London.

Patrick O'Connor

QUALITY CONTROL (Defense)

DICKINSON, 2010

Patrick O'Connor joined the Duke football staff in July of 2012 and works in the capacity of defensive quality control. He spent the 2012 campaign as a Football Operations Assistant, working primarily with the Blue Devil defense.

In 2014, the Blue Devils yielded 21.77 points a game, the fifth best mark since the start of the 1976 season and best since allowing 20.58 points per game in 1994. Duke had three players record 100 or more tackles as the defense held seven opponents to under 20 points in 2014, its most in a year since keeping eight under 20 in 1974. The Blue Devils kept five foes to 13 or fewer points last season after having seven opponents under 13 points in head coach David Cutcliffe's previous six seasons.

The Blue Devils recorded 26 takeaways in 2013 — the fourth-highest total in the ACC — and their average points allowed in the fourth quarter (4.64) ranked second in the conference, trailing only national champion Florida State. In addition, Duke won all four of its road ACC games by allowing an average of 19.5 points per contest in victories over North Carolina, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

O'Connor, a native of Exton, Pa., came to Durham after working as an assistant football coach and teaching aide at Downingtown (Pa.) East High School.

A 2010 graduate of Dickinson College with a degree in philosophy, O'Connor was a four-year letterman on the gridiron as a wide receiver and helped the Red Devils to 31 victories from 2006-09. He set school records for career pass receptions (167) and receiving yardage (2,548) and, as a junior, established Centennial Conference single-season records for receiving yards (1,324) and 100-yard receiving games (8).

Josh Grizzard

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

3RD SEASON AT DUKE

YALE, 2012

Josh Grizzard joined the Duke coaching staff in July of 2013 and serves as graduate assistant coach working primarily with the offensive unit. Grizzard served as a Football Operations Assistant during the 2013 season.

In 2014, Grizzard was part of a Duke program that won nine or more games in consecutive seasons for the first time in program history while the Blue Devils also made an unprecedented third straight bowl appearance. Headlined by five All-ACC picks in quarterback Anthony Boone, tackle Takoby Cofield, wide receiver Jamison Crowder, center Matt Skura and guard Laken Tomlinson, Duke compiled 421 points — the second-highest single season total in program history — and ranked among the ACC leaders in fourth down conversions (16; 1st), fewest turnovers lost (15; 2nd), red zone offense (.875; 3rd), scoring offense (32.4; 4th), rushing offense (181.8; 5th), first downs per game (22.0; 5th). In addition, the 2014 offensive unit that became the first in school history to average 180-plus rushing yards and 210-plus passing yards per game.

In 2013, the Blue Devils ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg). On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the 2013 Duke squad set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

A native of Zebulon, N.C., Grizzard played football at Yale before graduating with a degree in political science in 2012. He went on to serve as a Team Operations Intern with the NFL's Carolina Panthers during the organization's training camp prior to the 2012 season.

Grizzard is currently pursuing a master's degree in Christian studies.

Eli Keimach

2ND SEASON AT DUKE

MASSACHUSETTS, 2014

Eli Keimach joined the Duke coaching staff in July of 2014 and serves as a graduate assistant coach while working primarily with the offensive unit.

In 2014, Keimach was part of an offensive coaching staff that helped the Blue Devils score 421 points, the second-highest single season total in program history, as Duke matched the program's second-highest single-season win total with nine victories. The 2014 unit also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense, reaching the 5,000-yard plateau for the third straight season, a first in program history.

A native of Sharon, Mass., Keimach previously worked with the University of Massachusetts football program as a recruiting and operations assistant (2010-12) and at Amherst College as an assistant wide receivers coach (2012-13).

Keimach, who graduated from Massachusetts in 2014 with a degree in sport management, is currently pursuing a master's degree in liberal studies.

Clayton McGrath

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH (DT)

3RD SEASON AT DUKE

BROWN, 2012

Clayton McGrath, a former football letterman at Brown University, joined the Duke staff in July of 2013 and serves as a graduate assistant coach on the defensive side of the ball. The 2015 campaign will be his first coaching the defensive tackles.

During the 2014 season, McGrath was part of a defensive coaching group that watched Duke hold five opponents to 13 or fewer points, the most since 1971. The Blue Devils allowed 21.77 points a game, the fifth best mark since the start of the 1976 season and best since allowing 20.58 points per game in 1994. Duke also forced 21 turnovers with 10 fumbles recovered and 11 interceptions.

McGrath aided in the development of ends Kenny Anunike and Justin Foxx in 2013. Anunike, who led the Blue Devils in sacks in each of his final three seasons and signed with the NFL's Denver Broncos in May of 2014, was a two-time All-ACC pick while Foxx, who was a captain of Duke's ACC Coastal Division championship team in 2013, finished his 45-game career with 152 tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks.

In 2013, the Blue Devils recorded 26 takeaways — the fourth-highest total in the ACC — and their average points allowed in the fourth quarter (4.64) ranked second in the conference, trailing only national champion Florida State. In addition, Duke won all four of its road ACC games by allowing an average of 19.5 points per contest in victories over North Carolina, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

In 2012, McGrath served as an assistant coach at Wesleyan University, working with the defensive line as the Cardinals posted the program's first winning season in 10 years.

McGrath, who helped Brown to four straight winning seasons and the Ivy League championship in 2008, was a two-time All-Ivy League selection in 2010 and 2011. As a junior, he led the conference in tackles for loss while ranking third in quarterback sacks.

A native of Longmeadow, Mass., McGrath graduated from Brown in 2012. His father, Neil, is an assistant coach on the Brown football staff. McGrath, the brother of fellow Duke graduate assistant coach Sam McGrath, is currently pursuing a master's degree in Christian studies.

Sam McGrath

1ST SEASON AT DUKE

Brown, 2012

Sam McGrath joined the Duke coaching staff in July of 2015 and serves as a graduate assistant coach while working primarily with the defensive unit.

A native of Longmeadow, Mass., McGrath previously worked with the Wagner College (2014) football program as an outside linebackers/safeties coach, at Stevenson University (2013-14) as a graduate assistant coach and at Fairleigh Dickinson University (2012) as an outside linebackers coach and assistant special teams coordinator.

McGrath, whose brother Clayton is also a member of the Duke staff, graduated from Brown in 2012 with a bachelor of arts and from Stevenson in 2014 with a master of science.

Kevin M. White

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
ADJUNCT PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, 1972

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 64, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. In 2006, White was named the GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-A Central Region Athletic Director of the Year while at Notre Dame. In 2013, White was named one of four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision recipients of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA. A testament to the respect he has garnered within college athletics, White earned multiple high profile awards in 2014-15, including the National Football Foundation's John L. Toner award, Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, Bobby Dodd AD of the Year, and the 2015 Carl Maddox Sports Management Award.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient and modern department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke's fundraising efforts during an economic downturn; completed partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams; commissioned a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured seven NCAA Championships – women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and 2015, men's lacrosse in 2010, 2013 and 2014, and women's golf in 2014 – and 17 ACC titles. On the strength of 20 teams participating in postseason competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 20th in the 2015 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 20th-place showing marked the 12th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 20 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's seven years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012), 12th (2013), ninth (2014) and 20th (2015) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Sixty-eight Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past seven seasons with 11 – men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013, 2014) and women's tennis (2009, 2010, 2014) – reaching No. 1. In all, 118 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure. In 2014-15, Duke captured its fifth NCAA Championship in men's basketball, while the women's golf and lacrosse teams both advanced to the NCAA semifinals.

Individually, 244 student-athletes earned All-America, 417 All-ACC and 211 All-Region or District honors the past seven years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 12 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012 and 2014), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012).

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2014-15 academic year, 25 of 26 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better, while 123 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the fall semester, and 94 did so in the spring. Overall, 495 Duke student-athletes made the All-ACC Honor Roll (led ACC for the 27th time in the past 28 years).

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 98% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 16 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Also, an ACC-best 15 Blue Devil teams were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sports in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report, including the men's basketball and football teams. In the 2015 report, Duke (992) ranked second among all FBS schools, behind only Wisconsin (998). In all, Duke totaled the highest APR scores among ACC institutions in 12 of the league's 25 sports – baseball (996), women's fencing (1000), football (992), women's golf (1000), men's lacrosse (1000), women's lacrosse (1000), rowing (1000), men's swimming and diving (1000), men's tennis (1000) and volleyball (1000).

Four Duke student-athletes were selected as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, while 23 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Scholar All-America accolades. In White's seven-year tenure, former women's tennis player Parker Goyer won a Rhodes Scholarship (2009), while track and field student-athletes Sally Liu (2009) and Allie Speidel (2011) earned Marshall Scholarships.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, over 500 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 2,000 community service hours during the 2014-15 academic year.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. A portion of ticket sales Blue Devil regular season home sporting events are directed annually to the Duke University Libraries and the Rubenstein-Bing Civic Engagement program. Per White's vision from 2011, the Duke Athletics Library Fund has generated significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution. The civic engagement program was started in 2015 in a partnership with Stanford University. The foundation of the venture includes student-athletes from both Duke and Stanford working together in under-resourced communities in the United States and abroad. Through immersive three-week summer service assignments, the student-athletes will have opportunities otherwise not afforded them during the school year due to academic and athletic responsibilities.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign is a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways – for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). Several facility projects have been initiated, including numerous renovations to Wallace Wade Stadium, modifications to the front of Cameron Indoor Stadium, and the new Scott Pavilion, which will house several of Duke Athletics' administrative units, as well as new strength and conditioning and sports medicine areas.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the recently formed Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Moreover, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football." Always in demand as a visionary leader, White currently serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) Board of Directors and on the Advocates for Athletic Equity Board of Directors.

For several years, he was a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. In addition, he previously was an ex-officio member of the Sugar Bowl Committee during his tenure at Tulane, was a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee while at Arizona State, and also worked closely with the Fiesta Bowl during his stay in Tempe.

Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 24 current or former directors of athletics were mentored by White.

Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter. Additionally, White was recognized with honorary degrees from Loras College (2012), the United States Sports Academy (2007) and St. Joseph's College (2001).

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 12 grandchildren.
