KERSTIN KIMEL

HEAD COACH • 21ST SEASON AT DUKE
MARYLAND, 1993

The only head coach in Duke women's lacrosse history, Kerstin Kimel has led the program from its inception in 1996, molding the Blue Devils into one of the nation's elite teams.

In Kimel's 20 seasons at the helm of Duke women's lacrosse, she has guided the Blue Devils to seven national semifinals, four ACC regular season titles, an ACC Tournament Championship and 18 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances - the third longest current streak in the nation.

A five-time ACC Coach of the Year, Kimel has overseen 56 All-America selections, 74 all-region honorees and 64 All-ACC picks. Six of her former players have competed on the U.S. National Team, representing the United States at the 2009 and 2013 World Cups. The Blue Devils have achieved equal success in the classroom during Kimel's tenure, collecting 19 Academic All-America accolades since 1997.

Kimel registered her 250th career victory Feb. 22, 2015 in a win over William & Mary. She is one of just six active Division I coaches with 250 or more wins.

Duke returned to the NCAA semifinals to punctuate an outstanding 16-5 campaign in 2015. Led by a veteran group of eight seniors, the Blue Devils concluded the season ranked fourth in the final national poll. The team was ranked inside the top five for all but three weeks of the season and earned the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Championship field. Senior attacker Kerrin Maurer continued to etch her name in the program record books, becoming Duke's career assist leader while pacing the squad in points, goals, assists and draw controls for the spring. She garnered first team All-America recognition from the IWFLCA and was joined on the All-South Region and All-ACC teams by goalkeeper Kelsey Duryea, defender Claire Scarrone and midfielders Katie Trees and Taylor Trimble.

The Blue Devils recorded 14 or more wins four times from 2009 to 2014, advancing to the national quarterfinals on five occasions and the semifinals in 2011. Under Kimel's watch, Duke produced 13 All-America selections during that time, while Emma Hamm (2011) and Carolyn Davis (2009) were named finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy. Led by Davis and Caroline Cryer, the 2009 squad rewrote the program's offensive record book, totaling team highs in goals scored (313), assists (150) and points (463). In 2013, Kelsey Duryea became the first goalkeeper in program history to receive All-America recognition as a rookie, rounding out the season ranked top-10 nationally in save percentage and saves per game. A two-time first team All-American on defense, Taylor Virden wrapped up her senior campaign (2014) ranked second in program history in career draw controls.

From 2004 to 2008, Duke put together one of the most successful stretches in program history, advancing to four consecutive national semifinals from 2005 to 2008 and earning at least a share of four-straight ACC regular season titles from 2004 to 2007. During that span, the Blue Devils placed 21 players on both All-America and all-region lists, in addition to posting three Tewaaraton finalists. Kimel led Duke to a 13-8 overall record and the Blue Devils' fourth-straight NCAA semifinal appearance in 2008, earning womenslax.com Coach of the Year honors for her efforts.

Led by Tewaaraton Trophy recipient and two-time ACC Player of the Year Katie Chrest, the 2005 and 2006 Duke squads combined for a 35-7 overall record, including a program-best 18 victories in 2006, a 7-2 mark in the ACC and two conference regular season titles. After seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments bids, the 2005 installment earned a trip to the national semifinals for the second time in program history to ignite Duke's string of four straight appearances.

From 2000 to 2002, the Blue Devils advanced to three consecutive NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, and in 2001, made the program's first ACC Championship game. However, success did not always come easy, as Duke's 12th women's varsity program began its inaugural season in 1996 with four-straight losses before earning the Devils' first win -- a 10-6 victory over UMBC on March 18, 1996. The Blue Devils would finish the season at 3-12, marking the first and only year Duke women's lacrosse has posted a losing record. Duke began its rapid ascension the following season, recording an 8-8 mark before breaking through in 1998 with the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. The 1999 season took Duke to new heights as the Blue Devils achieved the program's first trip to the NCAA semifinals.

KIMEL'S EARLY YEARS

Prior to her arrival at Duke, Kimel was the head coach at Davidson College, leading the newly-created Wildcats program to a 4-8 record in 1994 as one of the nation's youngest head coaches in her first and only season at Davidson.

Kimel was no stranger to NCAA Division I women's lacrosse before her time at Davidson, having played at the University of Maryland from 1990-93. During her career, she led the Terrapins to four consecutive national semifinal appearances and the 1992 NCAA National Championship. The Havertown, Pa., native was a two-time All-America selection and the 1993 NCAA National Defensive Player of the Year, appearing in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd." Kimel graduated from Maryland in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in speech communications, majoring in scoring.

Prior to her collegiate career, Kimel was a standout at Haverford High School, earning first team All-Central League, All-Delaware County and USWLA All-America honors. Her numerous accomplishments have landed her in both the Haverford Hall of Fame and the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame - Delaware County.

Kimel has also been a prominent figure on the international level as a member of the U.S. Elite Team from 1992-96 and as an alternate for the U.S. national team that captured a gold medal at the 1993 World Cup.

In addition, Kimel served as chair of the IWLCA Growth Committee from 1999-2000 and as Chair of the NCAA South Region Selection Committee. From 1998-2002, she was on the selection committee for the U.S. Elite/Development squads, also working as an assistant coach for the U.S. Development squad from 2000-03. Kimel has also worked as Chair of the IWLCA/USL Division I All-America committee and completed a four-year term as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Committee in 2007. In 2006, she became co-chair of the IWLCA External Relations Committee and served on the Tewaaron award selection committee in 2008. During the summer of 2008, Kimel was elected to the IWLCA Board of Directors and acts as a Division I representative.

Kimel's family tree includes many outstanding athletes, beginning with her father, Mike Manning, who played basketball at West Chester University, and her mother, Sallie Manning, who was a member of the tennis and field hockey squads at West Chester. Both her brother, Mike, and husband, Jack, played baseball at Western Carolina before moving on to play for the Texas Rangers organization, while her sister, Lindsay, played lacrosse at James Madison University and served as an assistant coach for the 2003 and 2007 World Champion U.S. under-19 teams.

Her extended family also includes three collegiate basketball players - uncles Ed (Villanova) and Chris Manning (Philadelphia College of Textile) and cousin Alicia Manning (Lafayette) - one collegiate swimmer - uncle John Manning (Villanova) - two baseball players - cousins Brian Manning (Villanova) and Pat Manning (Atlanta Braves minor league) - and one hockey standout - brother-in-law Matt Mulhern (Boston College).

Kimel and her husband Jack reside in Durham with their three children - daughters Frances "Caroline" and Claire and son Russell McKinley "Mac."

AMANDA BARNES

ASSISTANT COACH • FIFTH SEASON AT DUKE
NORTH CAROLINA, 2008

Amanda Barnes enters her fifth season with the Duke coaching staff after joining the Blue Devils as an assistant coach in the summer of 2011.

In four seasons at Duke, Barnes has guided two Blue Devils to All-America honors, including defender Taylor Virden in 2013 and 2014 and goalkeeper Kelsey Duryea in 2013. Duryea became the first goalkeeper in program history to earn the distinction as a freshman while concluding the 2013 season ranked fourth nationally in save percentage (.507) and 10th in saves per game (9.00).

In 2015 Barnes oversaw a defensive unit that ranked second in the ACC and 12th nationally in goals against average (8.00), and anchored Duke's run to the NCAA semifinals. Duryea moved into fourth on the Blue Devils' career saves list and was joined on the IWFLCA All-South Region and All-ACC teams by defender Claire Scaronne. Duryea also led all conference goalies in goals against average (7.84) for the season and was second in save percentage (.474).

Under Barnes' direction, the defense posted a 9.84 goals against average in 2014. Virden ranked second in the ACC in caused turnovers per game (1.47) and fifth in the league in ground balls per contest (2.11) en route to earning All-America, All-South Region and All-ACC accolades. The 2013 campaign saw the Blue Devil defense allow just 8.95 goals per game and record the second shutout in school history in a 23-0 victory over Presbyterian Feb. 10.

In 2012, her first season in Durham, Barnes helped lead the defense to a top-10 national ranking in scoring defense. Senior goalkeeper Mollie Mackler led the ACC in save percentage (.417) and saves per game (6.0) in conference contests while also earning All-ACC recognition. The unit held 13 opponents to single-digit scoring and allowed just 8.89 goals per game, marking the program's first season with a team goals against average under nine since 2006.

A native of Bel Air, Md., Barnes came to Duke from Boston University where she served as an assistant coach during the 2011 season. With the Terriers, Barnes worked with Boston's two underclassmen goaltenders, helping freshman starter Christina Sheridan to America East All-Rookie Team honors.

Prior to her stint at Boston University, Barnes worked with the goaltenders at Ohio State, helping guide the Buckeyes to a 20-14 record during her time in Columbus. Under her tutelage, Ohio State's Kristen Gilwee set program records for career saves and wins after completing her career in 2009, while the Buckeyes' Annie Carruthers garnered 2010 American Lacrosse Conference Goalie of the Year honors the following season.

Before her coaching career, Barnes was a four-year letterwinner at North Carolina, where she helped lead the Tar Heels to the NCAA quarterfinals in each of her four seasons. The squad's starting netminder as a senior, Barnes was also a four-year member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll and graduated in the spring of 2008 with a degree in Exercise & Sport Science - Sport Administration and a minor in English.

In addition, she was a multi-year participant in the Carolina Leadership Academy, and received the program's highest honor, the Three-Dimensional Leader award. Barnes also has extensive experience working as a camp instructor, including North Star, Between the Pipes, NEMS, Elite 300 and UNC camps.

Barnes, who also starred in cross country and swimming at C. Milton Wright High School, led the Mustangs to the 2004 Maryland state lacrosse championship. She was inducted into her high school's hall of fame in the spring of 2009.

LAUREN MORTON

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON AT DUKE
BOSTON UNIVERSITY, 2008

Lauren Morton enters her second season with the Duke coaching staff in 2016, overseeing the program's offensive personnel.

The Blue Devils returned to the NCAA semifinals for the first time since 2011 during Morton's first season in Durham. A balanced attack averaged 12.38 goals per contest under her watch, with senior Kerrin Maurer leading the way in points, goals, assists and draw controls. Maurer ranked among the ACC leaders in assists and points and became the Blue Devils' career assist leader during the spring. She also collected first team All-America, All-South Region and All-ACC recognition, while midfielders Katie Trees and Taylor Trimble also made the all-region and All-ACC lists.

Morton came to Durham after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Georgetown University, where she worked primarily with the team's offensive unit. During her two years in Washington, D.C., the Hoyas compiled a 24-15 record and made back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament, reaching the second round of the championship in 2014. Morton oversaw two All-America and 11 All-BIG EAST selections and directed an offense that averaged 12.00 goals per game in that time.

Prior to joining the Hoyas, Morton served as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Boston University, for the 2011 and 2012 campaigns. During her tenure in Boston, the Terriers captured the 2012 America East regular season title and went 10-2 in conference play, including posting a 6-0 mark in 2012. While at Boston University, she coached three IWLCA All-Region honorees and one All-American in Danielle Etrasco.

Morton began her collegiate coaching career at Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., helping guide the Leopards from 2008-10. She has also previously been involved with Ultimate Goal Lacrosse in Philadelphia, an organization that helps athletes ages 12-18 focus on all aspects of development, communication and teamwork.

A 2008 graduate of Boston University, Morton was a four-year letterwinner and two-time captain for the Terriers in the midfield. She received All-America recognition from the IWLCA as a senior, in addition to earning a spot on the all-region first team and being named the team's most valuable player. Morton collected all-region second team honors her junior year and was selected to the America East All-Rookie Team following her freshman season.

As a senior at Boston University, Morton was selected the recipient of the Aldo "Buff" Donelli Leadership Award, presented to a senior who demonstrated outstanding leadership both on and off the field, as well as the John B. Simpson Award, given to both a male and female senior who demonstrates enthusiasm and leadership. She earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from the university.

A native of Glenside, Pa., Morton graduated from Gwynedd Mercy Academy in Gwynedd Valley, Pa.

TAEAR ERRINGTON

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST SEASON AT DUKE
CAMPBELL, 2014

Taelar Errington joined the Blue Devils as a volunteer assistant coach in December, 2015.

Errington came to Durham after previously coaching at nearby Campbell University. She served as an assistant coach at her alma mater during the 2015 campaign, helping guide the Camels to a 5-13 ledger in the program's third season.

A midfielder and two-time captain during her playing career, Errington transferred from UMBC to Campbell for the Camels' inaugural season in 2013. She twice earned Big South honors after totaling 60 goals, 19 assists, 26 ground balls, 45 draw controls and 17 caused turnovers in her two seasons in Buies Creek. The Valley Lee, Md., native concluded her final year ranked 43rd in the country with an average of 2.57 goals per contest.

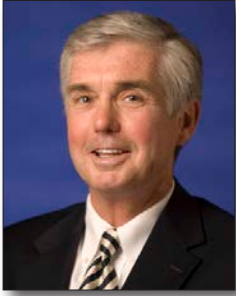

At UMBC, Errington played in 23 games as a sophomore, tallying 13 goals and four assists. She also notched one goal and two assists as a freshman but missed much of the year due to injury.

A member of the Big South All-Academic Team and the Big South Presidential Honor Roll, Errington graduated from Campbell in 2014 with a degree in exercise science.

KOSKINEN STADIUM

When people speak of the top multi-sport facilities in the South and in the nation, Duke's Koskinen Stadium comes to mind. In a relatively short period, the cozy stadium has emerged as one of the finest soccer and lacrosse complexes in the country.

Koskinen Stadium, named and dedicated in 1999 through the support of John and Patricia Koskinen, is situated ideally on Duke University's West Campus. It sits adjacent to the William David Murray Building and near both Wallace Wade Stadium and Cameron Indoor Stadium. This location -- in the heart of Duke's athletic complex -- allows easy access for Duke fans both on campus and throughout the local community.

The latest addition to the Duke University Athletics facilities improvements was unveiled Jan. 10, 2015 in a dedication ceremony for the Kennedy Tower overseeing Koskinen Stadium and Morris Williams Track and Field Stadium. The tower is named for current Duke Senior Deputy Director of Athletics Chris Kennedy and his late wife Ana.

Kennedy Tower is 11,000 square feet and four floors and service each of the lacrosse, soccer and track and field programs at Koskinen Stadium and Morris Williams Stadium, respectively. It was made possible by the incredible generosity of a host of anonymous donors.
