Nike

- In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment. Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.

- Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke's position on worker's rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.

- Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract. Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore.

Duke Nike Classic

Once again in 2017, Duke will host the 27th annual Duke Nike Classic. Called the Duke Women's Soccer Classic in 1991 and 1992, the tourney added adidas as a title sponsor in 1993 until 2008 as it was known as the Duke adidas Classic for 16 years. The Blue Devils are now in the ninth year of the Duke Nike Classic.

With a set-pairings format, the tournament champion is decided by a points system. Two points are awarded for each victory and one for each tie with goal differential used as a tiebreaker.

An all-tournament team is also awarded each year.

Robbie Church

Head Coach

17th Season

Pfeiffer, '80

Riding 29 victories over the last two seasons, including a second NCAA College Cup appearance over the last six years, head coach Robbie Church enters his 17th campaign with the Blue Devils.

Church returns 10 starters, 24 letterwinners and welcomes the No. 5 recruiting class in the nation in 2017.

Church looks to continue the success Duke has had over the last 14 years with 179 wins, 13 NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the NCAA College Cup in 2011 and 2015.

Even though Church dealt with key injuries to three starters during the 2016 campaign, the Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals before falling to top-seeded West Virginia on the road, 1-0.

Returning nine starters in 2015 and welcoming in one of the top recruiting classes in the nation, Church could sense it could be a special season. After knocking off fifth-ranked North Carolina in ACC action, Duke went on a run winning six out of the final 10 matches before dropping a 1-0 decision to Penn State in the national championship. Duke totaled a 14-6-5 overall and 4-3-3 league mark and lead the ACC in shutouts with 14.

After dealing with the loss of a key senior class and many newcomers on the roster, the Blue Devils struggled in 2014 posting an 8-9-1 overall record and missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2002 campaign. But many of those student-athletes return after gaining great experiences and are motivated to excel in 2015.

Dealing with season-ending knee injuries to starters Gilda Doria and Cassie Pecht, the Blue Devils posted a 9-9-6 overall record in 2013, but played their best soccer at the end. Duke advanced to the Elite Eight for a school-record third straight year, before falling to top-seeded Virginia Tech.

In 2012, Duke notched a 15-6-2 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Blue Devils registered a school-record 207 points, school-record 77 assists and was only two goals away from matching the single-season mark of 67.

The Blue Devils totaled one of the best seasons in Duke history in 2011 with a school-record 22 victories, an ACC regular season title with an 8-1 record, a school-record 16 shutouts and a trip to the NCAA College Cup. Duke registered a 4-1 win over Wake Forest in the semifinals of the NCAA College Cup before falling, 1-0, to Stanford in the national championship match. For his efforts, Church was named the Soccer America National Coach of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year.

In 2010, Duke advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, following upset victories against California and fifth-ranked Florida. The Blue Devils featured a very young lineup that included its top three scorers being freshmen -- Mollie Pathman, Laura Weinberg and Kaitlyn Kerr. Duke turned in an 11-8-4 overall mark.

In 2009, Duke registered an 8-9-4 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament first round, while dealing with numerous injuries all season long. Duke started five freshmen to go along with senior standouts Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall. The two All-ACC selections combined for 14 goals and 16 assists on the year to lead the Blue Devils.

In 2008, Duke advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight for the second straight year, while totaling a 15-6-3 overall ledger. Duke scored 54 goals and registered a school record-tying 13 shutouts on the season. In the ACC, Duke finished fifth with a 4-3-3 record.

Duke's tandem of Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall teamed together to notch 27 goals, which was the most in school history for two players in a single season.

In 2007, Duke garnered a 10-6-7 overall and 3-3-4 ACC records. The Blue Devils knocked off 21st-ranked South Carolina, 13th-ranked Georgia and Indiana on the road to advance to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals before falling to 12th-ranked Notre Dame, 3-2, in South Bend, Ind.

For the second straight season in 2007, Duke registered eight one-goal contests and a total of seven ties, but put it all together when it counted in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Devils were ranked as high as 10th nationally during the season. Junior Lorraine Quinn garnered All-America accolades and then went on to help the United States U-23 National Team claim the Nordic Cup title over the summer.

The 2006 season was one of close matches as well with the Blue Devils registering eight one-goal games and four ties. One of the major highlights was knocking off third-ranked Florida State on senior day with a 3-1 victory and senior Rebecca Moros earning All-America accolades.

In 2005, the Blue Devils were ranked as high as sixth in the nation and knocked off top-ranked North Carolina on its home field with a 2-1 victory in Chapel Hill. The win was only the second in school history over the Tar Heels. Senior defender Carolyn Ford went on to be selected as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as

COACHING HONORS:

Duke registered 11 shutouts.

In 2004, the Blue Devils collected a 15-8 overall and 5-4 ACC mark. Church led Duke to an NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance and the five league victories was the most since 1997. For his efforts, Church was named NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year.

Church, who replaced former head coach Bill Hempen in 2001, is only the second coach in Duke's 29-year history. Over the past numerous years, Church has brought in recruiting classes rated in the top 25 by Soccerbuzz.com and TopDrawerSoccer.com - third in 2006, seventh in 2002, eighth in 2003 and 2007, 20th in 2004 and 22nd in 2008. The 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes were listed as one of the top in the nation as well, including the No. 2 class in 2014, No. 6 class in 2015, No. 4 in 2016 and No. 5 in 2017 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Church earned his 100th career victory as a women's head coach against Florida International on Sept. 20, 2002, and collected his 200th career victory (men and women) on Sept. 26, 2003, against Davidson. With a 2-1 win over California in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Church posted his 200th win as a women's head coach.

In 2003, he guided the Blue Devils to 14 victories, which equaled the most wins for Duke since 1994, and to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Church did all of this with only three seniors, as 16 of 22 letterwinners were underclassmen.

The Blue Devils finished with a 4-3 record in the ACC, which tied for third place, and were ranked as high as sixth nationally.

Before arriving at Duke, Church compiled a 21-19-1 record in two seasons as head coach at Vanderbilt. He led the Commodores to the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Tournament semifinals in each of his two seasons.

In 1994, Church became the first head coach at UNC Charlotte, a position he held until 1998. While at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to a 66-30-10 mark in five seasons, including the school's first NCAA Tournament bid in 1998 and three Conference USA titles.

Church coached men's college teams at Lynn University (1990), East Carolina (1982-84) and Belmont Abbey (1985-89), where he also served as associate athletic director.

Church began his career as a head coach at East Carolina from 1982-84. In 1984, he was a men's assistant coach at Duke under John Rennie. After a one-year stint with the Blue Devils, Church accepted the head coach and associate athletic director position at Belmont Abbey.

Over the next five years, he led the Crusaders to a 69-35-1 record, while graduating 90 percent of his players. Included in that stretch were two Carolinas Conference Championships and an NAIA National Tournament appearance in 1989.

Church moved on to the College of Boca Raton, now Lynn University, in 1990, leading the men's team to a 17-4-2 mark. In one season, he guided Boca Raton to the District 25 Championship and the NAIA national finals.

Throughout his 31 years as a college head coach, Church has amassed a record of 379-230-59. He was recognized as the Carolinas Conference and NAIA Coach of the Year in 1989, the NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year in 2004, the Conference USA Coach of the Year in 1997, the Soccer America National Coach of the Year in 2011, the Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2011 and the ACC Coach of the Year in 2011. In addition, Church was the NAIA South Region Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1989. He was also tabbed the NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year in 1988 and NAIA District 25 Coach of the Year in 1990.

In 1991, Church left the college ranks to become the head men's and women's soccer coach at Charlotte Country Day School. In three seasons at the helm of the men's program, Church compiled a 40-22-9 record, including a state finals appearance in 1993. The women's program was equally successful during his two seasons as head coach, tallying a 24-7-3 mark and winning the 1992 state championship.

A four-year starter at Pfeiffer College, Church was his team's leading scorer and MVP as a senior. He was selected NAIA All-South Region, was an All-Conference performer, and was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. He graduated from Pfeiffer with a bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education in 1981. Church went on to earn his master's degree in health and physical education from the University of South Carolina in 1985.

Church and his wife, the former Linda Atkins, have two children, Ashley and Kyle. Ashley is a 2008 graduate of UNC Wilmington and was a four-year letterwinner on the women's soccer team, Kyle is a 2010 graduate of Charlotte and was a four-year letterwinner on the men's basketball squad. The Church family resides in Durham.

Erwin van Bennekom

Assistant Coach

3rd Season

De Haagse Hogeschool, '04

Erwin van Bennekom began third season with the Duke women's soccer program.

A native of The Netherlands, van Bennekom boasts nearly 14 years of coaching experience, including the professional and collegiate levels.

In his first season with the Blue Devils, van Bennekom helped lead Duke to the NCAA Championship match, before falling to Penn State, 1-0. He also helped bring in the No. 4 ranked recruiting class nationally, including the Gatorade National High School Player of the Year, Ella Stevens.

He backed that up with the No. 5 recruiting class and helped lead the Blue Devils to the NCAA quarterfinals.

Van Bennekom spent the 2014 campaign with the Alabama women's soccer program. In one season, he helped guide the Tide to a 10-7-3 mark, which was a four-win improvement from the year before (6-12).

Prior to and following the 2014 campaign with Alabama, van Bennekom served as the assistant coach of Sky Blue FC for the 2013 and 2015 National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) seasons under head coach Jim Gabarra. The Sky Blue FC squad advanced to the NWSL playoffs in 2013.

During his time there, he coached United States National Team and Olympic gold medalists Christie Rampone, Kelly O'Hara and Jillian Loyden. He also coached Duke alumna Kim DeCesare along with multiple other national team players from all over the world (Australia, Canada, Denmark, Mexico) and U-23 and U-20 U.S. National team players.

Van Bennekom spent three seasons (2011-13) with the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) women's soccer team, where he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. While there, van Bennekom helped the Highlanders go from a record of 2-17 in 2011 to 8-10-1 in 2013.

He served as the director of girl's coaching for STA Soccer Club, based out of Morristown, N.J., in 2013.

From 2010-13, van Bennekom was the head coach for several teams in the Women's Premier Soccer League, including the Jersey Blues (Sky Blue FC reserve team), which he led to an impressive 16-1-1 record. He coached the Real New Jersey SC Power and NJ Elite '95, both top-ranked club teams in the country.

Van Bennekom is a 2004 graduate of De Haagse Hogeschool and the KNVB (translated in English as Royal Dutch Football Association) Academy in his home country, which is renowned worldwide for its player and coach development program.

A standout player on the pitch as van Bennekom competed in a variety of semi-professional leagues in the United States from 2006-09. He also played in the first division of the National Futsal League in Holland from 2002-04. Growing up, van Bennekom was a member of Holland's youth academy club system.

He holds a UEFA "B" and UEFA "C" License, KNVB TC2 & KNVB TC3 License, US Soccer USSF "A" & "B" License, Rene Meulensteen Technical Training Diploma, Raymond Verheyen Football Periodization Certificate and is currently working towards his UEFA A Diploma.

Carla Overbeck

Assistant Coach

26th Season

North Carolina, '90

In her collegiate coaching debut, Carla Overbeck made an immediate impact on the Duke University women's soccer program, helping the 1992 Blue Devils advance to the NCAA title game. Over the last 25 years, she has continued her work with the Blue Devils as Duke has advanced to the NCAA Tournament 22 times, including a second NCAA College Cup appearance in 2011 and a third NCAA College Cup trip in 2015.

A three-time All-America selection at the University of North Carolina, Overbeck was a member of four unbeaten Tar Heel national title squads from 1986-89. North Carolina posted a phenomenal 95-match unbeaten streak (89-0-6) during her career.

Overbeck was a four-time member of the NCAA All-Tournament Team and a two-time All-ACC selection. In addition, she was a member of the 1986 Soccer America All-America Freshman Team and was the Most Valuable Defensive Player of the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

Overbeck's playing accomplishments include competing for the United States National Team. Overbeck was an instrumental player for the U.S. in winning the 1991 Women's World Cup in China. She captained the 1995 U.S. World Cup squad that advanced to the semifinals and also served as captain of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team that won the gold medal.

In 1998, Overbeck competed on the gold-medal-winning Goodwill Games squad. She again captained Team USA to the 1999 World Cup Championship and to a silver medal in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

On May 6, 2006, Overbeck was elected to the National Soccer Hall of Fame and was a 2010 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee. Overbeck, who graduated from North Carolina with a degree in psychology in 1990, attended Richardson High School in Richardson, Texas. She and her husband, Greg, have one son, Jackson (19) and a daughter, Carson Elizabeth (13). Jackson will be a freshman at Texas in the spring of 2017.

Lane Davis

Assistant Coach

2nd Season

Wichita State, '99

Lane Davis enters his second season with the Duke women's soccer staff, after spending three years at Saint Joseph's. Davis brings more than 14 years of college coaching experience to the Blue Devils.

He is in charge of the goalkeepers, along with helping with video breakdown, scouting, alumni relations and team travel.

Over his three years with Saint Joseph's, Davis has helped develop the Hawks into one of the top backlines in the Atlantic 10. Goalkeepers accumulated 22 shutouts over the time, including eight in each of the last two years. Under his guidance, Davis helped goalkeeper Allison Ebling set the program record for wins in a season (11), while tallying eight shutouts en route to helping Saint Joseph's to a third place finish in the A-10 as well as back-to-back conference tournament appearances.

Prior to arriving at Saint Joseph's, Davis served as an assistant at UMBC. In the fall of 2012, he helped goalkeeper Lauren Kadet earn America East All-Conference Second Team honors and defender Amira Walcott garner All-Rookie Team accolades.

Davis also spent three seasons at George Washington (2009-11). During his tenure as an assistant coach with the Colonials, he was responsible for working directly with the goalkeepers while also serving as recruiting coordinator. George Washington had three players selected to Atlantic 10 All-Conference teams during Davis' three seasons, while the Colonials earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award recognition every year.

Davis began his collegiate coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Kansas. Over his three seasons with the Jayhawks, he helped guide the team to a Sweet 16 appearance in the 2003 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Kansas won its first Big 12 title, made its second-straight NCAA appearance and achieved a No. 6 ranking during the year.

Following Kansas' success in 2004, Davis took over as an assistant at Missouri State. Focusing on goalkeeper and defensive improvement, he helped the Bears' goalkeeper Jackie Jasper to a First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference selection, while defender Kate Hercules was named Defensive Player of the Year in the MVC.

After his successful stint with Missouri State, Davis joined U.C. Riverside as recruiting coordinator and goalkeeper coach for two seasons. While with the Highlanders, he helped goalkeeper Brittany Goetz lead the Big West and set the team's single-season record for saves (135) in 2008.

Davis has been a member of several state Olympic Development Programs, including with Region II ODP where he has been the head goalkeeper coach for various age groups. He has earned the Advanced National Goalkeeping Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) and has both a National "A" License and National Goalkeeping License from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF).

Prior to coaching, Davis played collegiately at McPherson before suffering a career-ending knee injury as a freshman. He transferred to Wichita State where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a minor in exercise physiology in 1999. Davis would go on to receive his master's of education in sports administration from Kansas in 2002.

Samantha Childress

Video Coordinator

2nd Season

Appalachian State, '16

Samantha Childress continues her role as the video coordinator for the Duke women's soccer program for a second season, where she will be responsible for filming training sessions and games, as well as breaking down game film for individual players throughout the season.

Childress is a recent graduate of Appalachian State University with a degree in Appropriate Technology. She is beginning graduate coursework at Duke University's Nicholas School of the Environment towards her Master of Environmental Management (MEM).

At Appalachian State, Childress was a four-year starter on the women's soccer team where she finished second in the university's record book for both career goals (25) and season goals (10) during her career. Additional collegiate honors include All-Southern Conference Freshmen team, All-Southern Conference Second Team, and NSCAA Scholar All-South Third Team.

Since 2013, Childress has been an assistant coach for North Carolina's Olympic Development Program (ODP) and has coached at a number of camps and clinics through both Appalachian State and Duke women's soccer programs.

Childress is originally from Kernersville, N.C.

Kevin M. White

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
 ADJUNCT PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
 ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, 1972

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 66, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. In 2006, White was named the GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-A Central Region Athletic Director of the Year while at Notre Dame. In 2013, White was named one of four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision recipients of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA. A testament to the respect he has garnered within college athletics, White earned multiple high profile awards in 2014-15, including the National Football Foundation's John L. Toner award, Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, Bobby Dodd AD of the Year, and the 2015 Carl Maddox Sports Management Award.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke Athletics' record-breaking fundraising efforts; streamlined and invested in staffing and forged partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams to historically high levels; commissioned and executed a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; implemented significant diversity and inclusion efforts for Duke Athletics; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured seven NCAA Championships – women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and 2015, men's lacrosse in 2010, 2013 and 2014, and women's golf in 2014 – and 20 ACC titles. On the strength of 14 teams participating in postseason competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 32nd in the 2017 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 32nd-place showing marked the 14th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 35 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's nine years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012), 12th (2013), ninth (2014), 20th (2015), 24th (2016), and 32nd (2017) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Eighty-five Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past nine seasons with 15 – men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2017), field hockey (2016), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013, 2014), women's golf (2012, 2015) and women's tennis (2009, 2010, 2014) – reaching No. 1. In all, 151 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure. In 2016-17, Duke claimed three ACC championships in men's basketball, men's golf and women's golf. Individually, Duke student-athletes claimed one National Player of the Year honor, three ACC Player of the Year recognitions, six individual ACC championships, and five ACC Scholar Athletes of the Year awards. In 2016, Duke was the only athletic department in the nation to have a bowl champion, a Sweet 16 appearance in men's basketball and secure a baseball NCAA postseason berth.

Individually, 303 student-athletes earned All-America, 552 All-ACC and 267 All-Region or District honors the past nine years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 13 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012 and 2014), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Virginia Elena Carta (women's golf in 2016), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012).

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2016-17 academic year, all 27 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better in the fall, while 26 of 27 accomplished that in the spring semester. Additionally, 67 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the fall semester, and 73 did so in the spring. Overall, 489 Blue Devil student-athletes made the latest All-ACC Honor Roll and continued an amazing stretch wherein Duke led the conference for the 29th time in the past 30 years.

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 97% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 13 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Also, 12 Blue Devil teams – good for third nationally – were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sports in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report, including the men's basketball and football teams. In the 2017 report, Duke (992) ranked fourth among all FBS schools. In all, Duke totaled the highest APR scores among ACC institutions in 11 of the league's 25 sports – women's cross country (1000), men's fencing (1000), women's fencing (1000), football (992), men's golf (1000), women's golf (1000), men's lacrosse (995), women's lacrosse (1000), women's soccer (1000), women's track and field (1000), and volleyball (1000). Also, seven additional Duke programs ranked among the ACC's top five in their respective sports.

Last year, five Duke student-athletes were selected as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, while 54 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Scholar All-America accolades. In White's nine-year tenure, former women's tennis player Parker Goyer won a Rhodes Scholarship (2009), while pole vaulter Sally Liu (2009) and swimmer Allie Speidel (2011) earned Marshall Scholarships.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA Student-Athlete Development program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, more than 600 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 2,700 community service hours during the 2016-17 academic year.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. A portion of ticket sales Blue Devil regular season home sporting events are directed annually to the Duke University Libraries and the Rubenstein-Bing Civic Student-Athlete Civic Engagement program (ACE). Per White's vision from 2011, the Duke Athletics Library Fund has generated significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution. The civic engagement program, known as ACE, was started in 2015 in a partnership with Stanford University. The foundation of the venture includes student-athletes from both Duke and Stanford working together in under-resourced communities in the United States and abroad. Through immersive three-week summer service assignments that started with 40 student-athletes from the two schools in 2016, the student-athletes had opportunities otherwise not afforded to them during the school year due to academic and athletic responsibilities.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign was a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways – for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). The initial $250 million goal has been exceeded by the Duke Athletics fundraising team by more than $100 million ($365 million was raised in the campaign that ended June 30, 2017). Several facility projects have been initiated, including major renovations to Brooks Field at Wallace Wade Stadium, including Blue Devil Tower and the Davis Family Kicking Field at the Brooks Practice Facility, a grand entrance and entertainment space to the front of iconic Cameron Indoor Stadium (Rubenstein Pavilion), and the Scott Family Athletics Performance Center that now houses several of Duke Athletics' administrative units, as well as new strength and conditioning and sports medicine areas, a ticket office and team merchandise store.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the recently formed Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Moreover, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football." Always in demand as a visionary leader, White currently serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) Board of Directors and on the Advocates for Athletic Equity Board of Directors.

For several years, he was a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. In addition, he previously was an ex-officio member of the Sugar Bowl Committee during his tenure at Tulane, was a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee while at Arizona State, and also worked closely with the Fiesta Bowl during his stay in Tempe. Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 24 current or former directors of athletics were mentored by White. That impressive list of ADs includes:

Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan. He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

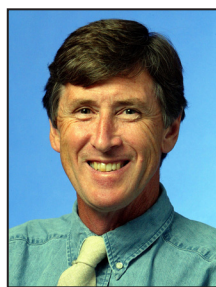

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter. Additionally, White was recognized with honorary degrees from Loras College (2012), Notre Dame (2008, along with his wife), the United States Sports Academy (2007) and St. Joseph's College (2001). White is also a Notre Dame Honorary Monogram Club Member.

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 12 grandchildren.
