COACHING STAFF

Duke's track & field and men's cross country program continues to thrive under the guidance of Director of Track & Field Norm Ogilvie, who enters his 24th cross country season this fall and his 25th track & field season in Durham.

In 2014, Duke saw some of the most successful track & field seasons to date, both at the conference and national level. Nationally, the program produced its third NCAA Champion in the past four years after multi-event competitor Curtis Beach claimed his second national title in the heptathlon at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Championships in his home town of Albuquerque, N.M. Duke qualified four individuals and a relay for the NCAA Indoor National Championships and three student-athletes and a relay for the outdoor national championships.

In 2014 Duke track & field team members collected 13 All-America honors on the track with Juliet Bottorff completing the difficult 5,000/10,000 double to earn two first team All-America accolades during the outdoor season and an additional first team All-America honor for the indoor 5,000. Joining Bottorff and Beach in garnering first team All-America honors was Tanner Anderson, who placed eighth in the indoor high jump. Second team All-America honors were earned by Anima Banks (indoor distance medley relay), Audrey Huth (indoor distance medley relay), Elizabeth Kerper (indoor distance medley relay), Haley Meier (indoor distance medley relay), Megan Clark (indoor pole vault), Karli Johannot (indoor high jump), Brian Atkinson (10,000) and Thomas Lang (javelin).

Duke performed equally well at the conference championships, with six individuals and a relay crowned ACC champion. Bottorff once again headlined the Duke contingent by securing titles for the indoor 5,000 and outdoor 10,000, while Haley Meier (outdoor 1,500), Anima Banks (indoor distance medley relay), Lauren Hansson (indoor distance medley relay), Abby Farley (indoor distance medley relay), Audrey Huth (indoor distance medley relay), Curtis Beach (heptathlon), Thomas Lang (javelin) and Robert Rohner (decathlon) all placed first at the conference meet in their respective events. A total of 15 individuals garnered all-conference honors. As a team, the Duke women earned a second-place finish at the indoor conference championships, the highest finish in program history, while the men's team saw similar success, placing fourth overall. Both teams also performed admirably during the outdoor season, with each placing fourth overall at the conference championships.

Under Ogilvie's tutelage, the men's middle distance group at Duke continues perform at a high level. In 2014, Michal Filipczak set a school record in the indoor 800, besting the previous mark that stood since 2010. One year earlier, Duke was represented by two relays, the 4x800 and the 4xmile, that finished in the top 10 nationally. Eight individuals participated in the relays, including Beach, Filipczak, Kyle Moran and Tommy Meister in the men's school record breaking 4x800 and Nate McClafferty, Brian Schoepfer, Mike Moverman and James Kostelnik comprising the 4xmile relay.

Ogilvie, who also has oversight of the men's cross country program, guided his 2013 team to an overall record of 97-31, the team's sixth-best winning percentage since 2000, and nearly reached 98 wins, the highest win total since 2005. Throughout the season, the Blue Devils earned first-place team finishes at three meets, including the Bull City Classic, the Royal Cross Country Challenge and the Three Stripe Invitational. Duke concluded the season with an eighth-place finish at the Southeast Regional Championships. Two individuals, Shaun Thompson and Brian Atkinson, garnered All-ACC honors, placing fourth and 20th, respectively, at the ACC Championships. Thompson's fourth-place finish was the highest conference meet finish for a Blue Devil harrier since 2000, when Sean Kelly captured an individual ACC title.

In the fall of 2010, the men's cross country team garnered the program's first automatic bid to the NCAA Championships while finishing the year with a 98-25 record, matching the team's highest win total since 2005. Ranked as high as ninth nationally, Duke concluded the season with a second-place finish at the NCAA Southeast Regional, a team title for the third consecutive season at the IC4A Championships and a 21st-place finish at the NCAA Championships in addition to going undefeated during the regular season. With the team's victory at the IC4A Championships, Ogilvie surpassed the 1,000 career wins milestone at Duke.

Over Ogilvie's two-plus decades at Duke, he has coached 418 All-East selections, 58 ACC individual champions, 12 IC4A Champions, 64 ECAC Champions and 69 All-Americans. In cross country, Ogilvie has led Duke to an ACC team title, four IC4A team titles and six NCAA appearances. His career win-loss-tie record in cross country at Duke stands at 1,269-447-3 following the 2013 season. In addition, Ogilvie has overseen one ACC individual champion, one Southeast Region individual champion, 23 All-Southeast Region selections and one All-America in cross country.

Named the ACC Cross Country Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Duke men to their first ACC title since 1977, Ogilvie has worked directly with all male middle-distance and distance runners the past two decades in Durham. The field events have developed significantly under his direction and coaching hires. Virtually every Duke field event record for both the men's and women's programs have occurred during Ogilvie's tenure.

Prior to his time at Duke, Ogilvie spent three semesters at the University of Colorado, assisting with distance runners.

As an athlete, Ogilvie owns a personal best of 14:07 for 5,000m and has covered one mile in 4:07.

A 1981 graduate of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, with a degree in journalism, Ogilvie completed his master's degree from Duke in July of 1996. In addition to coaching, Ogilvie has covered track & field meets for network television for the past 20 years, while also serving as the president of the IC4A Coaches Association through May of 2002.

Ogilvie was promoted to Director of Track & Field at Duke in June of 2003. His wife, Jan, coaches the Duke jumpers. They have two children, Jade (16) and Starr (10).

Christine Engel

Head Coach (W. Cross Country)

Assistant Coach (Track & Field)

1st Season at Duke
1st Season as W. Cross Country Head Coach
B.S. - Clemson '96

Christine Engel enters her first season with the Blue Devils in the fall of 2014. Engel was named Head Women's Cross Country Coach and Assistant Track & Field Coach in August of 2014. Her primary responsibilities include coaching Duke's middle and long distance runners.

Engel brings a wealth of coaching experience to the Duke women's cross country team. Over the past six years, Engel held the position of head men's and women's cross country coach and assistant women's track & field coach at Elon University. During her tenure at Elon, Engel coached four Southern Conference individual champions and two NCAA East Preliminary Round qualifiers. Engel also helped lead 24 different student-athletes to 75 All-Southern Conference honors.

Elon's record books were rewritten during Engel's time with the program. Overall, 17 of Elon's top 20 all-time 5K performances and 16 of the school's top 20 all-time 6K performances came during Engel's tenure. On the track, school records fell in the indoor 800, 1,000, one mile, 3,000, 5,000 and distance medley relay, while outdoor school records in the 800, 3,000, 5,000, 10,000 and 3,000 steeplechase all were set with Engel as the coach.

Most recently, Engel guided the Elon women's cross country team to a second-place finish at the 2013 Southern Conference Championships with five runners earning all-conference honors at the competition. The second-place showing tied the team's highest conference finish in program history. The Phoenix followed the performance with a ninth-place effort at the NCAA Southeast Regionals, also the highest finish in school history at the event.

On the men's side, Engel coached Elon's top male competitor, Luis Vargas, to a third-place finish at the 2013 conference championships, the second straight all-conference showing of his career. Vargas also became the first competitor in Elon history to earn All-Region honors at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships after placing 22nd overall.

During the 2014 indoor track season, with Engel coaching, four school records fell for the women's distance team, including school bests at 1,000 meters, the mile, 3,000m and 5,000m. With Engel's guidance, Elon's Allyson Oram won the Southern Conference Championship at 3,000m, after setting a school-record mark. All-Southern Conference honors were earned by Tereza Novotna as well, while Elyse Bierut and Kimberly Johansen garnered all-freshman accolades.

Engel assisted in Novotna claiming the 3,000m steeplechase title at the outdoor conference meet in 2014, marking the second straight year an Elon competitor won the same event title, while setting a school record in the process. Engel also guided a second Elon competitor to All-SoCon honors for the 5,000. The 2014 outdoor season was also the second in which an Elon distance runner qualified for the NCAA East Preliminary Round meet. Engel had four members of the team earn all-freshman conference honors during the same season.

Prior to Elon, Engel served as the assistant cross country and track and field coach at Columbia University, assisting three student-athletes to All-Ivy League honors in cross country and two to All-Northeast Region accolades. One Columbia harrier also garnered All-America honors following a 23rd-place finish in cross country.

In addition to her college coaching experience, Engel also helped qualify six runners for the 2008 Olympic trials in the marathon, serving as a coach of the Impala Racing Team, an all-women's club team. Engel's coaching résumé also includes three years as the head cross country and track & field coach at West Morris Central High School in Chester, N.J.

Engel also proved to be a standout member of Clemson's track & field team, earning All-ACC honors twice, including a conference championship title as a member of Clemson's distance medley relay. Engel served as a leg on Clemson's school record setting 4x800, distance medley relay and 4x1,500m relay. Clemson recognized Engel's extraordinary efforts as a student-athlete by naming her to the Clemson University Athletic Wall of Fame.

COACHING STAFF

Shawn Wilbourn is currently in his seventh season as a member of the Duke track & field coaching staff after joining the Blue Devils following the Olympic Trials in July of 2008. Wilbourn works with Duke's combined-event, pole vault and sprints and hurdles student-athletes.

The 2014 season saw Wilbourn lead multi-event standout Curtis Beach to his second NCAA Indoor Championships heptathlon title. Beach was crowned the national champion in spectacular fashion, amassing a conference, school and personal-record total of 6,190 points en route to his second first team All-America honor. Earlier in the indoor season, Beach earned a first-place finish at the conference championship, scoring 5,987 points, a meet record. Teammate Ian Rock, putting in a personal-best effort of 5,510 points, placed second after winning the event in 2013.

The United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) recognized Wilbourn as the Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year following the conclusion of the 2014 indoor season. During the outdoor season under Wilbourn's tutelage, rising junior Robert Rohner was crowned the ACC decathlon champion after accumulating 7,277 points, the third-most in school history. The Blue Devils swept the event, as Rock and Beach placed second and third, respectively.

The female multi-event athletes were similarly successful in 2014, as redshirt junior Karli Johonnot set a school record in the indoor pentathlon and the outdoor heptathlon. In addition to Johonnot, fellow redshirt junior Teddi Maslowski posted the third-highest pentathlon point total and the second-highest heptathlon point total in school history while also setting school records in the long jump, the 100 hurdles, the 400 hurdles and serving as a member of the record-setting 4x400m relay team that qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. At the conference level, both Johonnot and Maslowski performed admirably in the multi-event competition, placing second and sixth, respectively, at the indoor conference championships and seventh and fourth during the outdoor conference meet.

In addition to the multi-event student-athletes seeing significant success, the sprint group also performed well throughout the 2014 season, setting school records during the indoor season in the 200, 400 and 4x400, while records fell in the 100, 200, 400, 100 hurdles, 400 hurdles, 4x200 and 4x400 during the outdoor season. The 4x400, comprised of seniors Lauren Hansson and Elizabeth Kerpon, Maslowski and sophomore Madeline Kopp, became the first Duke women's 4x400 in school history to qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships after placing third in its heat and fourth overall at the NCAA East Preliminary Round competition.

In the pole vault, junior Megan Clark completed the most successful season of her college career with Wilbourn's assistance, setting school records for both the indoor and outdoor pole vault. Clark, who earned All-ACC honors during both the indoor and outdoor season, qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships, earning second team All-America honors for her 14th-place finish.

During his Duke tenure, Wilbourn has coached two NCAA Champions, 11 All-Americans, eight ACC Champions and 27 All-ACC honorees. At the conclusion of the 2014 season, his student-athletes combined to own 27 school records.

Prior to working at Duke, Wilbourn held a similar position at Georgia after spending four years at Cortland State University, the last two as Director of Men's and Women's Track and Field and Cross Country. He was honored with numerous Atlantic Region and New York State Coach of the Year honors for his mentoring at Cortland State, while coaching 18 All-Americans and two national champions.

Wilbourn's other collegiate coaching stops include the University of Arizona, Arizona State University and his alma mater, Long Beach State University. Wilbourn earned his master's in kinesiology from Long Beach in 2003.

As an athlete, Wilbourn was a 1996 Olympic Trials finalist in the decathlon and competed at the World Championships for the United States in 1997. His career best in the decathlon is 8,268 points.

Wilbourn was also selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round of the 1991 NFL draft. He spent time under contract with the San Francisco 49ers during the 1992 NFL campaign.

In addition, Wilbourn is a USATF Level II certified coach as well as a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

His wife, Makeba, is a professor in the Department of Psychology and Neuroscience at Duke. They have one daughter, Justice (10), and one son, Braeden (7).

B.J. Linnenbrink joined the Duke track & field staff as an assistant coach in July of 2009, specializing in throws for both men and women.

The 2014 season ended with redshirt junior Thomas Lang earning Duke's third All-America honor in the javelin. The top-16 finish marks the first since Duke school record holder John Austin secured the same accolade in 2011. Prior to his 11th-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, Lang won the conference title in exciting fashion, claiming the victory on his sixth and final attempt by sending the implement 229-1 (69.83), the second farthest mark in Duke history.

Lang qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships after placing seventh at the NCAA East Preliminary Round meet. Under Linnenbrink's guidance, a total of five Duke throwers advanced to the preliminary round meet and competed in four different throwing events.

In addition to Lang, multiple throwers saw similar success at the conference level in 2014. Redshirt junior Stephen Boals garnered All-ACC honors in the shot put during the indoor season after placing second and setting a school-record mark of 59-4.25 (18.09), while recent graduate Michelle Anumba received the same accolade after finishing third with a season-best distance of 52-10.75 (16.12). A total of 11 top-five Duke throws performances came during the 2014 season, with records falling in the men's indoor shot put and the women's weight throw.

In 2012, the throwing program had one of its best performances in school history, including sophomore Michelle Anumba accomplishing the task of being the first Duke female thrower to earn first team All-America honors. Under Linnenbrink's direction, four throwers qualified for the 2012 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship: Anumba (shot put), Michael Barbas (shot put), Erica Brand (discus) and Andrea Hopkins (javelin). Also in the outdoor season, Anumba (shot put) and Shannon Sullivan (javelin) finished first at the ACC Championships in their respective events while Barbas (shot put), Brand (discus) and Hopkins (javelin) earned All-ACC honors for finishing in the top three in their respective events.

Throughout his Duke tenure, Linnenbrink has coached four All-Americans, six ACC Champions and 20 athletes to All-ACC honors. At the conclusion of the 2014 season, his athletes combined to own 11 of the 12 school records in throwing events at Duke.

Prior to his arrival at Duke, Linnenbrink held a similar position at Notre Dame from 2003-07. During that period, he tutored 15 NCAA Regional qualifiers and 17 All-BIG EAST performers, including 2005 BIG EAST hammer throw champion Chip Roberts. In addition, he guided Notre Dame's first female thrower to qualify for the NCAA Championships as well as the first Irish thrower to advance to the outdoor NCAA competition since 1945.

Linnenbrink saw his Irish throwers advance to the NCAA Midwest Regional 15 times in five seasons with two qualifying for the USATF Championships. Additionally, the Notre Dame top-10 lists were radically altered in almost every throwing event under his direction with his student-athletes claiming 10 top-10 efforts on the men's side and a staggering 26 top-10 performances on the women's side.

As a member of Notre Dame's staff, he was part of five BIG EAST Coaching Staff's of the Year - 2003 & 2005 men's indoor, 2003 & 2006 men's outdoor and 2006 women's indoor.

A former NCAA and USATF Championship qualifier at Florida State, Linnenbrink owns the Seminole school record in the weight throw (20.91m/68-7.25) and ranks among the top-five in FSU history in the hammer throw (59.48m/195-2), earning All-Atlantic Coast Conference accolades as a senior.

Before his successful two-year stint at Florida State, Linnenbrink dominated at the junior college level, where he earned two NJCAA All-America honors at Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, Kan., in addition to seven All-Jayhawk East Conference awards.

Linnenbrink received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Florida State in 2002 and in 2006, he earned his master of science degree in physical education from Emporia State.

He is a USATF Level II certified coach in throwing events.

Linnenbrink and his wife, the former Monica Hardy, married July 31, 2004.

Jan Ogilvie

Assistant Coach

Jumps
20th Season at Duke
B.S. - Bowling Green State '78
M.A. - Indiana '80

Jan Ogilvie oversees the horizontal and lateral jumping events for the Duke track and field program. She returned full time to the track & field staff in the fall of 2011 after spending two years as the Director of Duke Aquatics for the East and West Campus from 2009-11. During that time, Ogilvie served as the volunteer jumps coach for the Blue Devils. She was also previously the head women's cross country and track & field coach from 1997-2003 before transitioning to Director of the Brodie Gym from 2003-09. In her 17 seasons at Duke, she has coached at least one school record holder in each of those events.

The 2014 season saw a strong showing from Duke's high jump trio, Tanner Anderson, Michael Krone and Carl Heinz. Anderson earned the first All-ACC indoor honor of his career after placing second with a season-best clearance of 7-3.00 (2.21). Anderson's indoor season came to a close after earning All-America accolades, finishing eighth at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a mark of 7-0.50 (2.15). During the outdoor season, Duke, represented by Anderson, Krone and Heinz, was the only team to qualify three high jumpers for the NCAA East Preliminary Round competition. Earlier in the season, Anderson placed third at the conference meet, garnering the third All-ACC outdoor award of his career, while Heinz moved into Duke's top five in the event with a clearance of 6-10.25 (2.09).

During the 2013 season, Ogilvie coached Anderson to a new Duke indoor record in the high jump, clearing 7-3.25 (2.22) at the Virginia Tech Challenge. Anderson went on to finish fourth at the ACC Indoor Championships, narrowly missing All-ACC honors. During the outdoor season, Anderson's had his best performance when he won the collegiate division high jump competition at the 2013 Penn Relays by clearing 7-2.25 (2.19). With the performance, the Valdese, N.C., native qualified for his third consecutive NCAA East First Round competition.

In 2012, Ogilvie guided the duo of Krone and Anderson to finish one-two at the ACC Outdoor Championships with Krone clearing a career best 7-3.75 (2.23) and Anderson clearing 7-3 (2.21). The duo also qualified for the NCAA East First Round with the marks. Indoors, Anderson served as the top performer in the event with a clearance of 7-1 (2.16) to win the Millrose Collegiate.

In the spring of 2011, Ogilvie tutored one of the top freshmen high jump duos in the country in Anderson and Krone. Anderson won the IC4A Championship and set a program record with a leap of 7-4.25 (2.24) while earning All-ACC honors during the indoor and outdoor seasons. He also qualified for the indoor NCAA Championships with a program record of 7-2.50 (2.19). Krone notched an indoor best of 7-0.25 (2.13) and earned All-East accolades outdoors.

Ogilvie also guided 2011 graduate Mike Kotecki to an ACC silver medal in 2008. Kotecki cleared 6-8.25 (2.03), the No. 3 all-time mark at Duke, as a sophomore at the ACC Championships to claim second place after beginning his collegiate career as an unheralded walk-on. She also previously led horizontal jumper Jade Ellis to Duke records in the long and triple jumps, as well as Ifey Anoliefo, the program record holder in the women's long jump, and triple jump record holder Jodi Schlesinger. Ogilvie mentored a seven-time NCAA qualifier in the high jump in Debra Vento, whose 6-1.50 (1.86) clearance is tops in school history. Vento went on to garner All-America status, as well as multiple ECAC and ACC Championships, and placed as high as third at the NCAA Championships.

Prior to her career at Duke, Ogilvie was the head women's coach at Boston University, where she won several New England Coach of the Year awards. She also previously served as an assistant coach at Indiana University, Syracuse University and Kansas State University during a career that began in the early 1980s.

Ogilvie and her husband, Director of Track and Field Norm Ogilvie, live in Durham with their two daughters - Jade (16) and Starr (10).

Matt LoPiccolo

Assistant Coach

M/W Track & Field
Second Season at Duke
B.A. - Plattsburgh State '97
M.A. - Plattsburgh State '98

Matt LoPiccolo joined the Duke coaching staff in the fall of 2013 as an assistant track & field coach under the direction of associate head coach Shawn Wilbourn.

Assisting with the sprints, LoPiccolo helped the Blue Devils see one of the most successful seasons in Duke history. In 2014, a total of 10 school records were set in the sprint events during the year, including in the indoor 200, 400 and 4x400, and the outdoor 100, 200, 400, 100 hurdles, 400 hurdles, 4x200 and 4x400. The 4x400, comprised of Lauren Hansson, Elizabeth Kerpon, Teddi Maslowski and Madeline Kopp, became the first Duke women's 4x400 in school history to qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships after placing third in its heat and fourth overall at the NCAA East Preliminary Round competition.

Prior to Duke, LoPiccolo held the head coach track & field position at SUNY Oneonta University from 2000-13. During his tenure, LoPiccolo received a variety of coaching honors, including 2013 NCAA Division III Atlantic Region Men's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, 2013 State University New York Athletic Conference Men's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, 2006 NCAA Division III Atlantic Region Women's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, and 2006 SUNYAC Women's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year.

Oneonta's track & field program thrived under LoPiccolo's tutelage. In just two years, LoPiccolo improved the University's women's indoor track & field team from a 25th-place finish at the Eastern College Athletics Conference meet in 2003 to ECAC champions the following year. The Red Dragons would repeat as ECAC champions in 2006 and finish the season with a third-place finish at the NCAA Division III Championship meet. In 2013, LoPiccolo guided his men's track & field team to an NCAA Division III sixth-place finish, the highest in school history. The men's program won the SUNYAC Indoor Championship meet the same year.

In addition to team accomplishments, individual performances improved under LoPiccolo's guidance. The former Oneonta coach led 41 student-athletes to Division III Track & Field All-America honors. LoPiccolo also qualified 114 individuals for the SUNYAC Track & Field Championship meet and 23 individuals for the ECAC Track & Field Championship meet. Most recently, LoPiccolo coached the fastest 200-meter runner in school history to two consecutive NCAA Division III individual national championships.

LoPiccolo also placed a heavy emphasis on academics while coaching at Oneonta, as evidenced by the 22 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) All-Academic Team individual award winners he coached over his 13-year career. The 2006 season was an especially successful year in the classroom for LoPiccolo's student-athletes, with an NCCA Woman of the Year Finalist, NCAA Top VIII Award Finalist and a USTFCCCA Division III Women's Outdoor Track & Field Scholar-Student-Athlete of the Year.

LoPiccolo earned a B.A. in mathematics and an M.A. in Administration and Leadership from Plattsburgh State University of New York. In 1998, LoPiccolo earned All-America honors while competing for Plattsburgh in the 800-meters.

Will Feldman
Volunteer Assistant Coach
 Cross Country/Distance
 Second Season at Duke
 B.S. - Suffolk '12

Nate Arnold
Volunteer Assistant Coach
 Multi-Events
 First Season at Duke
 Memphis '13

Will Feldman joined the Duke cross country and track & field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in August, 2013.

Throughout the 2013 cross country season and 2014 track & field season, Feldman assisted in the success of the Duke women's middle distance and distance program. In the fall, Juliet Bottorff earned All-America honors in cross country. Bottorff saw similar success during the indoor and outdoor track & field seasons, collecting an additional three All-America accolades. Duke's distance medley relay also garnered second-team All-America honors following a 10th-place finish.

Feldman joined Duke after a four-year stint with Emmanuel College in Boston, Mass., and an additional two years coaching at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, Mass. While at Emmanuel College, Feldman was integral in the development of the college's cross country program, including acting as the recruiting director over a four-year span.

Following his time with Emmanuel College, Feldman worked with MIT's middle distance and distance student-athletes, utilizing performance software such as Dartfish to analyze the gait of MIT's runners and maximize runner efficiency. In 2010, Feldman earned a USATF Level II coaching certification.

Nate Arnold joined the Duke track & field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach for multi-events in August, 2014.

Arnold joined the Blue Devils after serving as a graduate assistant track & field coach at the University of the Cumberland while getting his Master of Arts in teaching/special education. He coached the jumps and multi-events, specializing in pole vault and javelin. Under Arnold's watch, the University of the Cumberland produced four Mid-South Conference medalists and two conference champions.

Arnold also spent the summer of 2012 in Latvia as a coaching apprentice under Olympic pole vaulter Aleksandrs Obizajevs.

As an undergraduate at the University of Memphis, Arnold pole vaulted for the Tigers for four years, graduating in December of 2013 with his bachelor's degree in liberal studies.

Sean-Patrick Oswald
Volunteer Assistant Coach
 Cross Country/Distance
 Second Season at Duke
 B.S. - Duke '11

Mark Mueller
Volunteer Assistant Coach
 Sprints
 First Season at Duke
 B.S. - Duke '11

Sean-Patrick Oswald, a 2011 graduate of Duke University, returns to his alma mater to assist the track & field and cross country coaching staff for the 2014-15 season.

The former Blue Devil saw much success in his track & field career. Oswald currently holds the school record in the indoor 800-meters and is a member of the school record holding indoor distance medley relay team. Oswald's success on the track earned him a number of honors, including being named to the All-East team twice and earning All-ACC honors. Oswald also made the ACC Academic Honor Roll three times.

In addition to the track & field and academic accolades Oswald infuses into the coaching staff, the Duke alum also brings two years of coaching experience to the program. While working as a scientist for Merck & Co., Oswald acted as an assistant coach for the North Penn High School track & field program from 2011-13.

Mark Mueller joined the Duke track and field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in August, 2014.

As an undergraduate at Stanford University from 2006-2011, Mueller was a dual-sport athlete, lettering four years in track and field as a sprinter and three years in football. On the track, Mueller earned a 2011 All-America honorable mention accolade, 2011 Pac-10 All-Academic and 2011 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Scholar-Athlete honors, and was named to the 2010 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association All-Academic Track and Field Team.

Mueller placed sixth in the 2010 Pac-10 Championships in the 200 and was part of the 4x400 relay team that qualified for the NCAA Track and Field Championships in 2011.

Mueller graduated from Stanford in 2011 with his Bachelor of Arts in classical studies with a minor in religious studies. In the summer of 2010, he traveled to Arad, Israel, to teach English to Sudanese refugees, helping them develop basic English language skills.

Since graduating from Stanford, Mueller founded Sports & Scholars, serving as a private coach for over a dozen athletes running in international competitions.
