The Coaching Staff

Fresh off Duke's most successful combined season ever and the Duke men's highest ACC outdoor track and field scoring output since 1963, Director of Track and Field Norm Ogilvie is eager to begin his 19th cross country season in the fall of 2009 and his 20th track and field season at Duke in January 2010. Ogilvie-coached athletes won the IC4A team title in cross country in the fall of 2008 and had its highest NCAA regional finish, fourth, in several years. Indoors, Duke won the ECAC team title and had eleven male and eleven female athletes win All-East honors. Duke also had the distinction of sweeping the mile and 1,500m runs for men and women, indoors and outdoors, in 2009. Outdoors, Duke sent four athletes to the NCAA Championships. In all, eleven school records were shattered, indoors and outdoors, in 2008-09.

Named the Atlantic Coast Conference Cross Country Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Duke men to their first ACC title since 1977, head coach Norm Ogilvie has done the hands-on coaching of all male middle distance and distance runners for the past two decades in Durham. In 2008-09, he guided three sophomores to an NCAA individual berth in cross country, multiple IC4A titles and an ACC individual title in the steeplechase. Ogilvie-coached distance relay teams altered the Duke all-time top-five list no less than five times in 2009, including the four-mile relay, which ranked No. 7 in the nation.

Over Ogilvie's 19 track and field seasons at Duke, he has coached 176 All-East selections, seven ACC individual champions, nine IC4A champions, two ECAC champions and five All-Americans. In cross country, Ogilvie has coached an ACC team title, two IC4A team titles and three NCAA appearances, including a 14th-place finish in 2001. Ogilvie has coached one ACC cross country champion, one Southeast Region individual champion and two runners-up, 17 All-Southeast region selections and one All-American. His career record versus Division-I opponents is 826-288-1 over nine cross country seasons.

Promoted to director of track and field at Duke in June of 2003, Ogilvie took over the reins of the Duke women's program from his wife, Jan, who decided to continue her career in Duke's physical education department and spend more time with the family's two daughters, Jade, 12, and Starr, 6.

The men's track & field team under Ogilvie has been consistently strong in the distances, the events he coaches directly. Indoors, Ogilvie-coached athletes have accounted for 23 of the top 25 all-time marks from 800 to 5,000 meters at Duke, while the field events have also developed significantly under Ogilvie's direction and coaching hires. Thirteen of the 14 indoor field records for men and women and 16 of the 18 outdoor field school records for men and women have been accomplished under Ogilvie's watch.

Prior to his time at Duke, Ogilvie spent three semesters on the University of Colorado staff, assisting with distance runners. As an athlete, Ogilvie owns a personal best of 14:07 for 5,000m and has covered one mile in 4:07.

A 1981 graduate of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, with a degree in journalism, Ogilvie completed his masters' degree from Duke in July of 1996. In addition to coaching, Ogilvie has also covered track and field meets for network television for the past 20 years. Ogilvie was also the president of the IC4A Coaches Association through May of 2002.

Kevin Jermyn, who was named Associate Head Track & Field Coach in 2003 and Head Women's Cross Country Coach in July 2004, enters his tenth season with the Blue Devils. Jermyn's primary responsibilities include coaching the women's middle and long distance runners. Jermyn has helped bring the Blue Devil women's middle and long distance program to national prominence. Jermyn was awarded ACC Coach of the Year and NCAA Southeast Region Coach of the Year honors for the 2004 and 2005 cross country seasons and also received the NCAA East Region Assistant Coach of the Year honor for distance in the 2004 outdoor track and field season.

The women's cross country team finished second and third at the 2004 and 2005 NCAA Cross Country Championships. Duke also won the 2004 and 2005 ACC and NCAA Southeast Region Championships. The Blue Devils have finished in the top 25 at the NCAA Cross Country Championships for six consecutive years, which included three consecutive top ten team finishes. On the track, the Blue Devils middle distance group won the 2005 Penn Relays Distance Medley Championship of America title, the first Penn Relays title in school history for the women. Jermyn's athletes have rewritten every middle and long distance relay school record indoors and outdoors. The success of the Blue Devil middle and long distance runners also led Duke to a school record 12th place finish at the 2007 NCAA Indoor Championships and the team championship at the 2009 ECAC Indoor Championships.

Individually, Jermyn has coached eleven athletes to a total of 28 NCAA All-America performances in just nine years. Jermyn coached Shannon Rowbury to Duke's first ever NCAA individual championship with her victory in the one-mile run at the 2007 NCAA Indoor Championships. Jermyn also coached Rowbury and Clara Horowitz to two NCAA runner-up finishes each (Rowbury in the mile in 2005 and 3,000m in 2007; Horowitz in the 5,000m and 10,000m in 2006). At the NCAA Regionals, Jermyn has guided 19 athletes to All-Southeast Region honors in cross country and eight All-East Region performers in outdoor track. At the ECAC Championships, Jermyn has guided a total of 44 All-East performers, including eight individual and six relay championships. At the ACC Championships, Jermyn has guided 23 All-ACC performers and seven ACC Champions. Jermyn has coached six women who have represented the United States in international cross country competitions.

A true student and fan of the sport, Jermyn is continually involved in coaching education programs, clinics and camps. Jermyn is an USATF Level III certified coach in endurance and Level II certified in sprints, relays and hurdles. During the summer, Jermyn directs the Duke Running Camp.

Jermyn's experience as a national class runner, from high school through the professional ranks, is an invaluable asset to his coaching. Jermyn competed professionally in cross country and track and field for the Reebok Enclave. Jermyn was a member of the victorious Reebok Enclave team at the 1998 USATF Cross Country Championship and raced to a personal best of 3:43.56 for 1,500-meters on the track. As an undergraduate at Georgetown University, Jermyn led the Hoyas as team captain to numerous BIG EAST and IC4A team championships and NCAA Championship appearances. Individually, Jermyn was an All-America, All-East and All-BIG EAST selection in track and field. As a prep at Tottenville High School in Staten Island, N.Y., Jermyn was a three-time national high school champion, two-time New York state champion and a winner of the prestigious Millrose Games high school mile.

Jermyn graduated from Georgetown University cum laude in 1998 with a bachelor of science degree in accounting and finance and a minor in psychology. Jermyn obtained a master's degree in liberal studies from Duke University in 2006. Jermyn's thesis was on the coaching implications of gender differences among collegiate runners.

SHAWN WILBOURN

ASSISTANT COACH
MULTIS/POLE VAULT/SPRINTS/HURDLES

SECOND SEASON AT DUKE

Shawn Wilbourn, who joined the track and field staff following the Olympic Trials in July 2008, is in his second season as an assistant coach in charge of multi-events, the pole vault, sprints, hurdles and horizontal jumps.

Wilbourn had an impressive debut in his first season with Duke, leading two Blue Devil athletes to the NCAA Championships and both a men's and women's competitor to ACC individual titles. Tyler Clarke (decathlon) and Jade Ellis (long jump) advanced to the NCAA outdoors meet in 2009, while Ellis and Amy Fryt (pole vault) each captured ACC crowns. In addition, Ellis and Clarke both set school records in their respective events, while Fryt, holder of Duke's second-best all-time mark in pole vault behind only Olympian Jillian Schwartz, also added an ECAC indoor title to her resume.

Just as impressive for Wilbourn was his first recruiting class at Duke, head-lined by Gatorade High School Athlete of the Year and national high school record holder in the decathlon, Curtis Beach.

Prior to working at Duke, Wilbourn held a similar position at Georgia after spending four years at Cortland State University, the last two as Director of Men's and Women's Track and Field and Cross Country. He was honored with numerous Atlantic Region and New York State Coach of the Year honors for his mentoring at Cortland State, while coaching 18 All-Americans and two national champions.

Wilbourn's other collegiate coaching stops include the University of Arizona, Arizona State University and his alma mater, Long Beach State University. Wilbourn earned his masters in kinesiology from Long Beach in 2003.

As an athlete, Wilbourn was a 1996 Olympic Trials finalist in the decathlon and competed at the World Championships for the United States in 1997. His career best in the decathlon is 8,268 points.

Wilbourn was also a professional football player, drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round in 1991. He played with the San Francisco 49ers during the 1992 NFL campaign.

Wilbourn is a USATF Level II certified coach, and a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

LIZ WORT

ASSISTANT COACH
MIDDLE/LONG DISTANCE

THIRD SEASON AT DUKE

After a stellar running career with the Blue Devils, Liz Wort joined the coaching staff in 2007-08 as an assistant to the women's middle and long distance programs.

Wort still holds the school record in the 3,000m steeplechase with a time of 9:51.76, and achieved All-America status three times during her career. She is fourth all-time at Duke in the indoor mile (4:44.64), third in the indoor 3,000m (9:15.52) and part of both the indoor and outdoor 4x800m relay teams that set school standards.

At the 2007 NCAA indoor championships, Wort earned All-America status with a 10th place finish in the 3,000m. She has two more All-America qualifications from the NCAA outdoor championships in the 3,000m steeplechase in 2005 and 2007. She won the 2007 NCAA East Regional in the 3,000m steeplechase, becoming Duke's first NCAA East Regional champion.

She also was a three-time captain of the team.

In 2009, Wort helped senior Patricia Loughlin to a 10th-place finish in the steeple at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and the No. 2 all-time mark at Duke behind only Wort.

Wort is a 2007 graduate of Duke University, receiving her diploma in psychology with a certificate in the program for elementary education.

B.J. LINNENBRINK

ASSISTANT COACH
THROWS

FIRST SEASON AT DUKE

B.J. Linnenbrink joined Duke as an assistant track and field coach for both the men and women in July of 2009. Linnenbrink will be in charge of the throwing events for the Blue Devils.

Linnenbrink held a similar position at Notre Dame from 2003-07, where he tutored 15 NCAA Regional qualifiers and 17 All-Big East performers in throwing events, including 2005 BIG EAST hammer throw champion Chip Roberts. This included the first female thrower from Notre Dame to qualify for the NCAA Championship meet and the first Irish thrower to advance to the Outdoor NCAA competition since 1945.

In addition, he was a part of five BIG EAST Coaching Staffs of the Year (men's indoor - 2003, 2005; men's outdoor - 2003, 2006; women's indoor - 2006).

Linnenbrink saw his Irish throwers advance to the NCAA Mid-east Regional 15 times in five seasons, with two qualifying for USATF competition. Additionally, the Notre Dame top-10 lists in virtually every throwing event were radically altered under the direction of Linnenbrink, with his pupils holding down 10 top-10 efforts on the men's side and a staggering 26 top-10 performances on the women's side.

A former NCAA and USATF championship qualifier in the weight throw at Florida State, Linnenbrink owns the FSU school record in the weight throw (20.91m, 68-7 1/4) and ranks among the top five in Seminoles' history in the hammer throw (59.48m, 195-2). He earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 2002 as well.

Before his successful two-year stint at Florida State, Linnenbrink dominated at the junior college level, earning two NJCAA All-America honors at Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, Kan. In his two years at Johnson County, Linnenbrink also collected seven All-Jayhawk East Conference awards.

Linnenbrink graduated from Florida State in 2002 with a bachelor of science degree in physical education. In 2006, he earned his master of science degree in physical education from Emporia State. Linnenbrink and his wife, the former Monica Hardy, were married July 31, 2004.

JAN OGILVIE

ASSISTANT COACH
HIGH JUMP

16TH SEASON AT DUKE

As Jan Ogilvie begins her 16th year on the Duke Track and Field staff, she also starts her second full-time title at Duke outside of track and field. As the head women's track and field and cross country coach from 1997-2003, Ogilvie served as the Director of Brodie Gym on East Campus from 2003-2009. Now, in addition to coaching Duke's high jumpers, she also serves the Blue Devils daily as the Director of Aquatics for both east and west campus.

In the high jump, Ogilvie's top pupil was All-American and ACC and ECAC champion Debra Vento. Vento, the school record holder in the high jump at 6-1.5, qualified for the NCAA meet seven out of a possible eight times during her indoors and outdoors career and placed as high as third at the NCAA Championships.

Ogilvie also guided current Blue Devil Mike Kotecki to an ACC silver medal with a 6-8.25 effort as a sophomore, all the more impressive considering Kotecki began his Duke career as an unheralded walk-on with a 6-2 personal best in high school.
