Duke Nike Classic

Once again in 2013 Duke will host the 23rd annual Duke Nike Classic. Called the Duke Women's Soccer Classic in 1991 and 1992, the tourney added adidas as a title sponsor in 1993 until 2008 as it was known as the Duke adidas Classic for 16 years. The Blue Devils are now in the fifth year of the Duke Nike Classic.

With a set-pairings format, the tournament champion is decided by a points system. Two points are awarded for each victory and one for each tie with goal differential used as a tiebreaker.

An all-tournament team is also awarded each year.

Robbie Church

Head Coach

13th Season

Pfeiffer, '80

After winning 37 matches over the last two years and advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth time out of the last four years, head coach Robbie Church enters his 13th season with the Duke women's soccer program.

Church and the Blue Devils will look to continue its success as Duke returns seven starters, 22 letterwinners and 95.4 percent of its scoring from last year, including All-America selections Natasha Anasi and Kaitlyn Kerr and the reigning National Rookie of the Year Cassie Pecht.

Over the last 10 years, Church has led Duke to 133 victories, 10 NCAA Tournament appearances and a trip to the NCAA College Cup in 2011.

In 2012, Duke notched a 15-6-2 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Blue Devils registered a school-record 207 points, school-record 77 assists and was only two goals away from matching the single-season mark of 67.

The Blue Devils totaled one of the best seasons in Duke history in 2011 with a school-record 22 victories, an ACC regular season title with an 8-1 record, a school-record 16 shutouts and a trip to the NCAA College Cup. Duke registered a 4-1 win over Wake Forest in the semifinals of the NCAA College Cup before falling, 1-0, to Stanford in the national championship match. For his efforts, Church was named the Soccer America National Coach of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year.

In 2010, Duke advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, following upset victories against California and fifth-ranked Florida. The Blue Devils featured a very young lineup that included its top three scorers being freshmen -- Mollie Pathman, Laura Weinberg and Kaitlyn Kerr. Duke turned in an 11-8-4 overall mark.

In 2009, Duke registered an 8-9-4 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament first round, while dealing with numerous injuries all season long. Duke started five freshmen to go along with senior standouts Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall. The two All-ACC selections combined for 14 goals and 16 assists on the year to lead the Blue Devils.

In 2008, Duke advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight for the second straight year, while totaling a 15-6-3 overall ledger. Duke scored 54 goals and registered a school record-tying 13 shutouts on the season. In the ACC, Duke finished fifth with a 4-3-3 record.

Duke's tandem of Elisabeth Redmond and KayAnne Gummersall teamed together to notch 27 goals, which was the most in school history for two players in a single season.

In 2007, Duke garnered a 10-6-7 overall and 3-3-4 ACC records. The Blue Devils knocked off 21st-ranked South Carolina, 13th-ranked Georgia and Indiana on the road to advance to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals before falling to 12th-ranked Notre Dame, 3-2, in South Bend, Ind.

For the second straight season in 2007, Duke registered eight one-goal contests and a total of seven ties, but put it all together when it counted in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Devils were ranked as high as 10th nationally during the season. Junior Lorraine Quinn garnered All-America accolades and then went on to help the United States U-23 National Team claim the Nordic Cup title over the summer.

The 2006 season was one of close matches as well with the Blue Devils registering eight one-goal games and four ties. One of the major highlights was knocking off third-ranked Florida State on senior day with a 3-1 victory and senior Rebecca Moros earning All-America accolades.

In 2005, the Blue Devils were ranked as high as sixth in the nation and knocked off top-ranked North Carolina on its home field with a 2-1 victory in Chapel Hill. The win was only the second in school history over the Tar Heels. Senior defender Carolyn Ford went on to be selected as the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as Duke registered 11 shutouts.

In 2004, the Blue Devils collected a 15-8 overall and 5-4 ACC mark. Church led Duke to an NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance and the five league victories was the most since 1997. For his efforts, Church was named NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year.

Church, who replaced former head coach Bill Hempen in 2001, is only the second coach in Duke's 25-year history. Over the past numerous years, Church has brought in recruiting classes rated in the top 25 by Soccerbuzz.com - third in 2006, seventh in 2002, eighth in 2003 and 2007, 20th in 2004 and 22nd in 2008. The 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes were listed as one of the top in the nation as well.

Church earned his 100th career victory as a women's head coach against Florida International on Sept. 20, 2002, and collected his 200th career victory (men and women) on Sept. 26, 2003, against Davidson. With a 2-1 win over California in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Church posted his 200th win as a women's head coach.

In 2003, he guided the Blue Devils to 14 victories, which equaled the most wins for Duke since 1994, and to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Church did all of this with only three seniors, as 16 of 22 letterwinners were underclassmen. The Blue Devils finished with a 4-3 record in the ACC, which tied for third place,

In three seasons at the helm of the men's program, Church compiled a 40-22-9 record, including a state finals appearance in 1993. The women's program was equally successful during his two seasons as head coach, tallying a 24-7-3 mark and winning the 1992 state championship.

A four-year starter at Pfeiffer College, Church was his team's leading scorer and MVP as a senior. He was selected NAIA All-South Region, was an All-Conference performer, and was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. He graduated from Pfeiffer with a bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education in 1981. Carla Overbeck

Assistant Coach

21st Season

North Carolina, '90

In her collegiate coaching debut, Carla Overbeck made an immediate impact on the Duke University women's soccer program, helping the 1992 Blue Devils advance to the NCAA title game. Over the last 21 years, she has continued her work with the Blue Devils as Duke has advanced to the NCAA Tournament 19 times, including a second NCAA College Cup appearance in 2011.

A three-time All-America selection at the University of North Carolina, Overbeck was a member of four unbeaten Tar Heel national title squads from 1986-89. North Carolina posted a phenomenal 95-match unbeaten streak (89-0-6) during her career.

Overbeck was a four-time member of the NCAA All-Tournament Team and a two-time All-ACC selection. In addition, she was a member of the 1986 Soccer America All-America Freshman Team and was the Most Valuable Defensive Player of the 1988 NCAA Tournament.

Overbeck's playing accomplishments include competing for the United States National Team. Overbeck was an instrumental player for the U.S. in winning the 1991 Women's World Cup in China. She captained the 1995 U.S. World Cup squad that advanced to the semifinals and also served as captain of the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team that won the gold medal.

On May 6, 2006, Overbeck was elected to the National Soccer Hall of Fame and was a 2010 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee. Overbeck, who graduated from North Carolina with a degree in psychology in 1990, attended Richardson High School in Richardson, Texas. Steve Springthorpe

1st Season

Methodist, 1987

Steve Springthorpe is entering his first season as assistant coach with the Duke women's soccer program, after spending the previous four seasons as head coach at N.C. State. At Duke, Springthorpe will be in charge of the goalkeepers, while working with the defenders and help with video breakdown as well.

In Springthorpe's tenure at N.C. State, the Wolfpack witnessed a great turnaround. When Springthorpe was hired in 2009, the Wolfpack had not won a game in Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) play for two seasons and had not had a 10-win season since 2002. Springthorpe quickly helped turn around the program, highlighted by a 2011 season in which the Wolfpack posted a 10-8-2 record after recording a final RPI of 41.

Before his stint at N.C. State, Springthorpe served as head coach at Fresno State from 2004-08, compiling a 52-40-12 overall record, the highest winning percentage in program history, and leading the Bulldogs to the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship game four-straight years, winning twice. Under Springthorpe, the Bulldogs made two appearances in the NCAA Tournament (2005, 2008).

Prior to leading Fresno State, Springthorpe spent five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Florida, working primarily with goalkeepers. While at Florida, Springthorpe helped the Gators to an impressive 87-28-5 mark, including three Southeastern Conference (SEC) regular season titles and three SEC Tournament championships.

Springthorpe began his coaching career at his Alma mater, Methodist University, in 1987. In his nine seasons as an assistant coach at Methodist, the Lady Monarchs advanced to the NCAA Division III semifinals three times and the NCAA Division III championship match in 1995.

A 1987 graduate of Methodist with a degree in sociology, Springthorpe was a two-time All-South Region and three-time All-Conference selection.

Springthorpe currently resides in Raleigh, N.C., with his wife, Trish, and his four children – Tyler, Elizabeth, Westley and Jackson.

Kevin M. White

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
 ADJUNCT PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
 ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, 1972

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 62, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. In 2013, White was named one of four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision recipients of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient and modern department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke's fundraising efforts during an economic downturn; completed partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams; commissioned a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured four NCAA Championships – women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and men's lacrosse in 2010 and 2013 – and 15 ACC titles (three in 2013). On the strength of 19 teams participating in NCAA Championship competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 12th in the 2013 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 12th-place showing marked the 10th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 20 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's five years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012) and 12th (2013) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Forty-eight Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past five seasons with eight – men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013) and women's tennis (2009, 2010) – reaching No. 1. In all, 75 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure.

Individually, 165 student-athletes earned All-America, 278 All-ACC and 171 All-Region or District honors the past five years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 10 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011 and 2013), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012). In 2012-13, Duke celebrated one individual NCAA and seven individual ACC titles.

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2013 spring semester, 25 of 26 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better and more than 90 made the Dean's List.

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 98% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 16 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Also, an ACC-best 15 Blue Devil teams were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sports in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report, including the men's basketball and football teams. In the 2013 report, Duke (989) ranked third among all FBS schools, behind only Northwestern (996) and Boise State (993), and eighth among all Division I – FBS and FCS – programs. In all, Duke totaled the highest APR scores among ACC institutions in 13 of the league's 25 sports – men's basketball (995), football (989), men's golf (1000), men's lacrosse (997), men's soccer (995), men's swimming and diving (1000), men's indoor track and field (1000), men's outdoor track and field (1000), women's golf (1000), women's lacrosse (1000), rowing (1000), volleyball (1000) and wrestling (1000).

Individually in 2013, seniors Abby Johnston (women's diving) and Anthony Lin (fencing) received prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. Six Duke student-athletes were selected as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, while 26 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Scholar All-America accolades. In White's five-year tenure, former women's tennis player Parker Goyer won a Rhodes Scholarship (2009), while track athlete Sally Liu (2009) and Allie Speidel (2011) earned Marshall Scholarships.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, approximately 500 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 2,000 community service hours.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. In May 2011, Duke Athletics announced that a portion of ticket sales from Blue Devil regular season home sporting events will be directed to the Duke University Libraries. Per White's vision, the Duke Athletics Library Fund will generate significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign is a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways – for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). In 2012-13, several facility projects were initiated, including the construction of new practice fields off Bassett Drive that will benefit Duke's lacrosse, soccer, recreation and club sports, and intramural programs.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White previously served on numerous NCAA committees, including being an ex-officio member of the NCAA Committee on Academic Performance and a member of its Penalty and Rewards subcommittee. For several years, he was a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. Additionally, White was part of the NCAA Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (COIA) that dealt with academics, fiscal reform and student-athlete well-being. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the recently formed Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Additionally, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football," and served on the Black Coaches and Administrators Board of Directors.

Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 23 current or former directors of athletics were mentored by White. That impressive list includes Jim Sterk of Washington State and San Diego State, Tom Boeh of Ohio University and Fresno State, Ian McCaw of Northeastern, Massachusetts and Baylor, Bruce Van De Velde formerly of Utah State, Iowa State and Louisiana Tech, Herman Frazier previously of Alabama-Birmingham and Hawaii, Rudy Keeling formerly of Emerson and previous commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), Scott Devine of St. Mary's College (Md.), Tom Collins formerly of Ball State, Tim Van Alstine formerly of Western Illinois, Mark Wilson of Tennessee Tech, Bubba Cunningham of Ball State, Tulsa and North Carolina, Sandy Barbour of Tulane and California-Berkeley, Jim Phillips of Northern Illinois and Northwestern, Bernard Muir of Georgetown, Delaware and Stanford, Sandy Hatfield Clubb of Drake, Vic Cegles of Long Beach State, Norwood Teague of Virginia Commonwealth and Minnesota, Bob Bieri previously of Loras College, Greg Capell previously of Loras College, Boo Corrigan of Army, Bill Scholl of Ball State, Josh Berlo of Minnesota Duluth, and Stan Wilcox of Florida State.

Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter.

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 10 grandchildren.
