RECAPPING THE SEASON OPENER

► Duke cruised in its season opener, beating 17th-ranked Air Force 18-4. The win was the 11th victory in 13 season-opening games for head coach John Danowski, while the 18 goals scored are the second most behind a 20-6 victory over Siena in 2011.

► The 14-goal margin matched the biggest with the win over the Saints seven seasons ago. It was Duke's 188th win since 2007.

PRESEASON FACTS

► The Blue Devils were picked as co-favorites with Notre Dame to win the ACC Championship in 2018, while seniors Danny Fowler and Justin Guterding and junior Cade Van Raaphorst were voted preseason All-ACC by the league's five coaches.

► Junior defenseman Cade Van Raaphorst was named to the Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-America first team, while Justin Guterding and Brad Smith were second team mentions. JT Giles-Harris garnered third team honors and Danny Fowler was honorable mention.

LAST TIME WE MET

► Justin Guterding scored three goals and added an assist to lead No. 7 Duke to a 10-5 victory over High Point in 2017.

► The Blue Devils limited the Panthers to one goal and only eight shots in the second half after leading by one tally, 5-4, at intermission.

► The Blue Devils received a two-goal, two-assist performance from Joey Manown, while Kevin Quigley chipped in a pair of tallies. Kyle Rowe secured 14-of-19 draws and scooped up 12 ground balls. Goalkeepers Danny Fowler (5 saves & 4 goals allowed) and Turner Uppgren (1 save & 1 goal allowed) split time in the Duke net.

► Connor Robinson, Sean Harrison, Jason Ashwood and Michael LeClair scored single goals for High Point while goalkeeper Tim Trouner, Jr., posted 11 saves.

SCOUTING HIGH POINT

► High Point opens its 2018 campaign Thursday night in Durham. The Panthers were picked to finish fifth in the Southern Conference after finishing in that spot in 2017.

► High Point, 4-10 overall a year ago, lost its top two scorers to graduation and will lean on senior Connor Robinson for production at attack. Jason Ashwood will bolster the midfield after registering 20 points last season.

► Defenseman Terrell Sands will anchor the close defense after earning preseason All-SoCon accolades. Brandon Savoie is back at the faceoff X and Tim Troutner Jr. is expected to step between the pipes.

A WIN OVER HIGH POINT WOULD

- Be head coach John Danowski's 385th career win
- Be the program's 555th overall victory
- Make Duke 56-15 all-time in the month of February

HOME SWEET HOME FOR THE BLUE DEVILS

► Duke has fared well in the comfy confines of Koskinen Stadium since 2007. The Blue Devils went 7-2 in Durham last season and are 95-17 all-time at home under John Danowski.

DANOWSKI SITS ATOP WINS LIST

- Head coach John Danowski etched his name at the top of the Division I men's lacrosse wins list, beating Jacksonville for his 376th career victory. Dom Starsia held the previous record of 375. Danowski is third among active coaches across all three divisions and is on pace to become the first Division I head coach to reach 400 wins potentially in the 2018 season.
- The Blue Devils' leader has 164 wins at Duke, 192 at Hofstra and 27 in his first stop at LIU Post.

DANOWSKI IN CENTURY CLUB TIMES TWO

- Danowski owns a 165-51 record at Duke, making him one of five coaches in Division I men's lacrosse to win 100-plus games with two programs.
- He captured 192 wins at Hofstra prior to coming to Durham. Denver's Bill Tierney joined the club in 2017.

DUKE IN THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY

- Duke is 55-14 (.797) all-time in the month of February. The Blue Devils first played in the second month of the year in 1983.
- Since 2007, Duke is 30-12 (.714) and has played five games in the month in three of previous four seasons.

AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

- Since 2006, Duke is 103-51 (.669) versus ranked opponents.
- The Blue Devils are slated to take on nine of the USILA preseason top 20, including four in the top 10.
- In 2017, Duke was 7-5 against top 20 foes.

REACHING THE PERFECT 10

- Since 2007, Duke is 147-19 when scoring at least 10 goals in a game.
- The Blue Devils are 14-31 when being held to fewer than 10 scores.
- Duke is 41-42 when allowing 10 goals in a contest and 119-8 when holding opponents under 10 goals.

BUILDING OFF OF FRESHMAN PRODUCTION

- The Blue Devils will be looking to get a sophomore bump from the group of six Blue Devil first-year players - JT Giles-Harris, Terry Lindsay, Sean Lowrie, Joey Manown, Kevin Quigley, Reilly Walsh - who played in all 18 games in 2017 and started a combined 59 contests, the most since the 2011 campaign.
- They started out on the right foot with Lowrie, Manown and Walsh combining for six goals. Giles-Harris was voted the ACC Defensive Player of the Week after helping anchor a stellar defensive effort.
- Five of the six had at least one point and registered 99 points overall last season. JT Giles-Harris was the first close defenseman to earn a starting role since Chris Hipps in 2011. Giles-Harris had 28 ground balls and nine caused turnovers compared to Hipps' 12 and six, respectively.

DUKE DEFENSE STRONG IN 2018 OPENER

- Duke returns the core of the 2017 defense that turned in its best season since 2009. The Blue Devils didn't miss a beat in the defensive half last week, holding Air Force to just four goals and only 11 shots in the first half. Overall, Duke allowed just four goals on 27 Air Force possessions.
- The Blue Devils return two of the three starting close defensemen in Giles-Harris and Cade Van Raaphorst from last year, with the hole being filled by fifth-year senior Kevin McDonough of Penn. Top defensive midfielders Sean Cerrone and Terry

DUKE IN ONE GOAL GAMES

- ▶ Duke is 76-70 all-time in games decided by one goal in program history.
- ▶ The Blue Devils played a program-high seven one-goal games in both 1994 and 1997.
- ▶ Duke is 19-14 in one-goal contests under head coach John Danowski.

GUTERDING AIMING TO LEAVE HIS MARK

- ▶ Attackman Justin Guterding will be climbing the Duke and NCAA record books this season. The veteran scorer is currently ranked fifth at Duke in career points and 52 points shy of becoming the third Blue Devil and 12th player in NCAA history to 300 career points. He is 20 points from moving into the top 25 in NCAA history. He most recently passed current assistant coach Ned Crotty for fifth on the Duke chart.
- ▶ If Guterding matches his 51 goals from last season, he will finish with 197, which would currently be tied for third in NCAA history. Zack Greer is the lone player in Division I lacrosse history to score 200 career goals. Guterding needs 54 overall this season to reach that mark and 60 to tie Greer's 206.

GUTERDING PART OF ELITE ACC GROUP

- ▶ Guterding led the ACC in goals (51, 2.83/gm), assists (46, 2.56/gm) and points (97, 5.39/gm) in 2017 to become just the fifth different player to achieve the feat since 1954. Duke's Steve Sachs accomplished it twice in 1967 and 1969, while Matt Ward is the most recent in 2006.
- ▶ It has only happened three times, including Guterding in 2017, since 1966. His 97 points are tied for second in ACC single-season history and he is one of four players to score 90-plus in a season. All four of them hail from Duke.

GUTERDING GOAL SCORING STREAK

- ▶ Justin Guterding, with a hat trick against Air Force, extended his nation's best goal streak of 28 games. His streak dates back to March 22, 2016 when Air Force held him to only one assist.

Rk.	Player, School, Pos. Class	Goals	Streak
1.	Justin Guterding, Duke, A, Sr.	84	28

GUTERDING'S ASSIST GAME THRIVING

- ▶ Guterding averaged 2.56 assists per game in 2017, more than a one assist per game improvement of his 1.4 in 2016. He continued his trend of increasing his assist production with a career-best seven against Air Force.
- ▶ His 46 total in 2017 ranked sixth in Duke single-season history. Only Jordan Wolf, Matt Danowski and Ned Crotty have more assists in a season than Guterding.

- ▶ Guterding has 99 career helpers to rank seventh on the career charts. Danowski and Crotty sit atop the list with 183 and 147, respectively.

70, 71, 72 AND COUNTING FOR GUTERDING

- ▶ With four points at Marquette in 2017 Justin Guterding became the first Blue Devil to record at least 70 points in each of his first three seasons, going for 70, 71 and 97 in his respective seasons. He also is the fastest Blue Devil to 100 career points and is tied for the fastest player to 200 points.
- ▶ Guterding registered 97 points in 2017 to become the fourth different Blue Devil in program history to score 90 points in a season. His total is tied with current assistant coach Matt Danowski for second on the Duke single-season list.
- ▶ Only Jordan Wolf has scored 100 points in a season for Duke and just 15 different Division I players have reached the century mark in NCAA history 17 times - Lyle Thompson of Albany has done so three times.
- ▶ He is one of four Blue Devils to rank in the top 10 in school history in career points (248), goals (149) and assists (99). The others are Matt Danowski, Jordan Wolf, and Dave Hagler.

SMITH AIMING FOR JUNIOR JUMP

► Brad Smith registered 20 goals and 19 assists for 39 points his sophomore season, surpassing his total of 14 in his 19 games as a rookie. His stock continues to rise as he matched his career high with four points (3g, 1a) in the season opener against Air Force.

► In 2016, Smith had nine goals and five assists and registered multiple points in four games with a season-high three points against Georgetown. In 18 games in 2017, Smith had multiple points in 12 outings and registered a career-high four goals against Boston University.

► The midfielder looks to continue his ascension and needs just 43 more points this year to become the 45th player in Duke history to score 100 career points.

NCAA ACTIVE LEADERS

► Duke has a trio of players peppered throughout the top 10 NCAA DI active leaders lists.

► Justin Guterding is second in points (238) and goals (146), third in assists (92), fourth in points per game (4.33), fifth in goals per game (2.65) and eighth in assists per game (1.67).

► Danny Fowler is fourth in career saves (447).

FRESHMEN TID BITS

► Duke welcomed a group of 10 freshmen to campus this fall. It is a talented group with four listed among Inside Lacrosse's top 100.

► Nakeie Montgomery, a midfielder from Dallas, was considered the top player in the group after a heralded career at Episcopal School of Dallas.

GUTERDING'S SWITCH FROM 33 TO 14

► One of the noticeable differences in the Blue Devils in 2017 was the new number for attackman Justin Guterding.

► Duke's top scorer changed his number to 14 to honor the late Eddie Blatz. Blatz was a high school teammate of Guterding's at Garden City and played at Georgetown from 2014-16.

ALL IN THE FAMILY FOR GILES-HARRIS

► JT's brother, Joe, is Duke's top defensive player on the Duke football team. He garnered four All-America awards in 2017, including second-team honors by the Walter Camp Foundation.

VAN RAAPHORST'S ATHLETIC LINEAGE

► Junior close defenseman Cade Van Raaphorst traded the football for the lacrosse stick despite hailing from a family of elite college quarterbacks.

► Cade is the son of Jeff Van Raaphorst, quarterback at Arizona State leading the Sun Devils to the Pac-10 and Rose Bowl title in 1987. He was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2006. Jeff also played in the NFL for a few seasons.

► Uncle, Mike Van Raaphorst, was the backup quarterback to Carson Palmer at Southern California.

JOHN DANOWSKI

2007-P • 384-190 (35 seasons) • 165-51 at Duke (11 seasons)

Cemented as one of the top coaches in college lacrosse, John Danowski has led the Duke men's lacrosse team to unprecedented success and himself to the top over the Division I men's lacrosse wins list. Danowski was introduced as Duke's eighth head men's lacrosse coach on July 21, 2006 and quickly led the Blue Devils to some of the most successful lacrosse seasons in school history, to three NCAA Championships in five seasons and.

In Danowski's 11 years at the helm of the Blue Devils lacrosse program, he has compiled an impressive 164-51 record in leading Duke to seven ACC regular season titles and four ACC tournament titles, eight straight appearances in the national semifinals from 2007-14, four in the NCAA title match and ultimately to the 2010, 2013 and 2014 national titles. The 2014 NCAA crown put Danowski, a winner of 383 career games, among a small group of nine coaches to win three national titles and among eight to capture consecutive crowns. Meanwhile, Duke's run of eight straight NCAA semifinals rank as the second most of any program since 2000 with Syracuse. Most recently, Danowski passed Dom Starsia as the winningest Division I lacrosse history, garnering his 376th win with a 13-6 victory over Jacksonville.

A winner of nearly 80 percent of his games at Duke, the individual awards Blue Devil players have garnered is equally impressive. In 11 seasons, Danowski mentored 64 All-America selections, 36 All-ACC choices, two Tewaaratron Trophy winners, a pair of USILA Attackman of the Year honorees, a USILA Defenseman of the Year, three USILA Midfielder of the Year award recipients and 21 USILA Scholar All-America picks.

While the success on the field is unsurpassed in Duke lacrosse history, the student-athletes excellence in the classroom also is unrivaled. The Blue Devils consistently lead the ACC in All-ACC Academic picks as well as players on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.
