DUKE SUFFERS SETBACK

► The top-ranked Blue Devils stumbled last weekend in a 10-9 loss at No. 17 Penn. Duke led 7-4 at the half, but the Quakers used a strong 6-2 second half to come away with the win. Duke led by as many as four, 7-3. Penn netted a goal with six seconds left in the second period that sparked a 3-0 run by the Quakers to make it 7-6 early in the fourth quarter as Duke went scoreless in the third. The Blue Devils jumped ahead by three again only to have Penn answer with the game's final four goals to secure the victory.

LAST TIME OUT

► Both Justin Guterding and Brad Smith tallied two goals and an assist apiece, while rookie midfielder Nakeie Montgomery netted his first collegiate goal and posted two overall.

► Danny Fowler made a season-high 11 saves in the cage. Duke won just 7-of-22 faceoffs and went on a 19:47 scoreless stretch between the third and fourth quarters.

LAST TIME WE MET

► Bolstered by three goals each from Jack Bruckner and Justin Guterding, 17th-ranked Duke rallied from a 6-2 third-quarter deficit to upend 16th-ranked Richmond, 9-8 in Richmond in 2017.

► With the game knotted at 6-6 after three quarters, Richmond's JP Forester put the Spiders back in front 7-6 in the early minutes of the fourth period. The Blue Devils, behind play from Bruckner and Guterding, stormed ahead 9-7 with three consecutive tallies.

► The Spiders pulled within one on a goal by Forester with 5:35 remaining, but Duke goalkeeper Danny Fowler made his 10th and final save of the afternoon with 1:06 left in the game before JT Giles-Harris preserved the victory by intercepting Richmond's last gasp heave as time expired.

► At the faceoff X, Kyle Rowe won 11-of-19 draws and secured five ground balls.

CHEMOTTI RETURNS TO DURHAM

► For the second time since being named Richmond's head coach in advance of its inaugural season in 2014, Dan Chemotti returns to his alma mater. Chemotti's first visit as a head coach was a memorable one as the Spiders upset Duke 12-10 in 2016.

► A 2002 Duke graduate, Chemotti helped lead the Blue Devils to consecutive ACC titles his junior and senior years. The Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four seasons and he was elected captain as a senior.

SCOUTING RICHMOND

► Richmond comes to Durham after an 11-7 loss to Notre Dame last weekend. The Spiders are 2-2 with wins over Bucknell and Mount St. Mary's.

► The Spiders are led on offense by Teddy Hatfield's 15 points (11g, 4a). Ryan Lanchbury has a team-best six goals and seven points overall. Richmond is averaging 8.75 goals per game and shooting just .265 for the year. The Spiders have scored in double figures just once this season.

► Sean Menges leads the defense with 17 ground balls and seven caused turnovers. Garrett Smith handles the faceoff duties, winning 39-of-87 draws (.448) and picking up six ground balls. In goal, Blake Goodman is 2-2 with a 9.06 goals against average and a .556 save percentage. The Spiders are allowing 9.50 goals per game.

BALL SECURITY

► The Blue Devils lead the nation in fewest turnovers per game, averaging only 8.80 per game. Duke had a season-high 12 turnovers against Jacksonville and a season-low seven versus Air Force and Penn. At the same point in the 2017 campaign, Duke was averaging 11.40 turnovers per game and ranked 16th nationally.

WHAT GIVES

► Duke enters Saturday's contest with the nation's No. 2 scoring offense, while Richmond features a stout defense allowing only 9.50 goals per game. The Blue Devils have scored at least 15 goals in four of five games and Richmond has allowed double-digit goals in only two of its four outings.

► In addition, Duke's eighth-ranked man-up offense will be going up against Richmond's eighth-ranked man-down defense. The Spiders have allowed just two man-up scores in 12 man-down situations (.833) and Duke has scored six extra-man goals on 11 chances (.545).

BLUE DEVILS STILL TOPS IN SHOT PERCENTAGE

► Despite scoring just nine goals on 32 shots - a .281 shot percentage - at Penn, the Blue Devils remain atop the Division I shot percentage list at .434. Canisius is just behind Duke at .422. Overall, Duke has 79 goals on 182 shots.

Opponent	Goals	Shots	Pct.
Air Force	18	38	.474
High Point	18	41	.439
Jacksonville	19	40	.475
Denver	15	31	.484
Penn	9	32	.281

UPPGREN GOALIE REUNION

► Saturday will feature a reunion of goalie brothers Turner Uppgren and George Uppgren. Turner is a junior for the Blue Devils and backs up Danny Fowler, while George is a freshman for the Spiders and has yet to see game action.

► Both excelled at Choate Rosemary Hall before joining their respective college teams.

A WIN OVER RICHMOND WOULD

- Be head coach John Danowski's 388th career win
- Be the program's 558th overall victory
- Make Duke 215-129 all-time in the month of March

DANOWSKI SITS ATOP WINS LIST

► Head coach John Danowski etched his name at the top of the Division I men's lacrosse wins list, beating Jacksonville for his 376th career victory. Dom Starsia held the previous record of 375. Danowski is third among active coaches across all three divisions and is on pace to become the first Division I head coach to reach 400 wins potentially in the 2018 season.

► The Blue Devils' leader has 168 wins at Duke, 192 at Hofstra and 27 in his first stop at LIU Post.

DUKE IN THE MONTH OF MARCH

► Duke is 214-129 (.624) all-time in the month of March. Since 2007, Duke is 57-16 (.781) and was 4-1 last season. The Blue Devils have made it through March undefeated just once - 7-0 in 2007 - under head coach John Danowski.

AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

► Since 2006, Duke is 104-52 (.667) versus ranked opponents.

► The Blue Devils are slated to take on nine of the USILA preseason top 20, including four in the top 10.

► In 2017, Duke was 7-5 against top 20 foes.

REACHING THE PERFECT 10

► Since 2007, Duke is 150-19 when scoring at least 10 goals in a game.

► The Blue Devils are 14-32 when being held to fewer than 10 scores.

► Duke is 42-43 when allowing 10 goals in a contest and 121-8 when holding opponents under 10 goals.

HOME SWEET HOME FOR THE BLUE DEVILS

► Duke has fared well in the comfy confines of Koskinen Stadium since 2007. The Blue Devils went 7-2 in Durham last season and are 98-17 all-time at home under John Danowski.

OPPONENT SCORING DROUGHTS

► Duke returned the core of the 2017 defense that turned in its best season since 2009. The Blue Devils haven't missed a beat, holding three of five teams scoreless in the first quarters and four of the five foes to at least one scoring drought over 15 minutes. The 40 goals are tied for the third fewest in five games to start a season under Danowski. The 2008 squad sacrificed just 27 in its 5-0 start.

DUKE IN ONE GOAL GAMES

► Duke is 76-71 all-time in games decided by one goal in program history after losing to Penn, 10-9.
 ► Duke is 19-15 in one-goal contests under head coach John Danowski.

GUTERDING IN THE RECORD BOOKS

► Justin Guterding is moving up in the Duke and NCAA record books. He currently ranks fourth at Duke and 23rd in NCAA history in career points and is 26 points shy of becoming the third Blue Devil and 13th player in NCAA history to 300 career points. His 161 goals are two away from breaking into the top 30 in career goals.
 ► If Guterding matches his 51 goals total from 2017- he needs 34 more - he will finish with 197, good for third in NCAA history. Zack Greer is the lone player in Division I lacrosse to score 200 career goals. Guterding needs 39 more to reach that mark and 45 to tie Greer's 206.

GUTERDING GOAL SCORING STREAK

► Justin Guterding, with two goals against Penn, extended his nation's best goal streak of 32 games. His streak dates back to March 22, 2016 when Air Force held him to only one assist.

Rk.	Player, School, Pos.	Class	Goals	Streak
1.	Justin Guterding, Duke, A, Sr.		97	32

GUTERDING'S ASSIST GAME THRIVING

► Guterding averaged 2.56 assists per game in 2017, more than a one assist per game improvement of his 1.4 in 2016. He has continued his upward trend of this season, averaging 3.80 assists per game through five games.

► His 46 total in 2017 ranked sixth in Duke single-season history. Only Jordan Wolf, Matt Danowski and Ned Crotty have more assists in a season than Guterding.

► Guterding has 111 career helpers to rank fifth on the career charts. Danowski and Crotty sit atop the list with 183 and 147, respectively.

70, 71, 72 AND COUNTING FOR GUTERDING

► With four points at Marquette in 2017 Justin Guterding became the first Blue Devil to record at least 70 points in each of his first three seasons, going for 70, 71 and 97 in his respective seasons. He also is the fastest Blue Devil to 100 career points and is tied for the fastest player to 200 points.

► Guterding registered 97 points in 2017 to become the fourth different Blue Devil in program history to score 90 points in a season. His total is tied with current assistant coach Matt Danowski for second on the Duke single-season list.

► Only Jordan Wolf has scored 100 points in a season for Duke and just 15 different Division I players have reached the century mark in NCAA history 17 times - Lyle Thompson of Albany has done so three times.

► He is one of four Blue Devils to rank in the top 10 in school history in career points (274), goals (163) and assists (111). The others are Matt Danowski, Jordan Wolf, and Dave Hagler.

JOE ROBERTSON ROOKIE IMPACT

► Rookie attackman Joe Robertson is off to a strong start for the Blue Devils, tallying 13 goals and six assists for 19 points in his five games. In the past three games he has 13 points from eight goals and five assists and was named to the USILA Team of the Week following his four-goal outing in the fourth quarter against Denver.

► Robertson, averaging 2.60 goals and 3.80 points per game, is eighth in goals per game and seventh in points per game amongst Division I rookie scorers in both categories. He is 10th in assists at 1.20 per game.

NCAA ACTIVE LEADERS

► Duke has a pair of players peppered throughout the top 10 NCAA DI active leaders lists. Justin Guterding and Danny Fowler represent the Blue Devils on the lists.

SMITH AIMING FOR JUNIOR JUMP

► Brad Smith registered 20 goals and 19 assists for 39 points his sophomore season, surpassing his total of 14 in his 19 games as a rookie. His stock continues to rise as he matched his career high with four points (3g, 1a) in the season opener and has 13 points through four games.

► As a rookie in 2016, Smith had nine goals and five assists and registered multiple points in four games. In 18 games in 2017, Smith had multiple points in 12 outings and nearly tripled his scoring output.

► The midfielder looks to continue his ascension and needs just 34 more points this year to become the 45th player in Duke history to score 100 career points.

FRESHMEN TID BITS

► Duke welcomed a group of 10 freshmen to campus this fall. It is a talented group with four listed among Inside Lacrosse's top 100.

► Nakeie Montgomery, a midfielder from Dallas, was considered the top player in the group after a heralded career at Episcopal School of Dallas.

ALL IN THE FAMILY FOR GILES-HARRIS

► JT's brother, Joe, is Duke's top defensive player on the Duke football team. He garnered four All-America awards in 2017, including second-team honors by the Walter Camp Foundation.

VAN RAAPHORST'S ATHLETIC LINEAGE

► Junior close defenseman Cade Van Raaphorst traded the football for the lacrosse stick despite hailing from a family of elite college quarterbacks.

► Cade is the son of Jeff Van Raaphorst, quarterback at Arizona State leading the Sun Devils to the Pac-10 and Rose Bowl title in 1987. He was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2006. Jeff also played in the NFL for a few seasons.

► Uncle, Mike Van Raaphorst, was the backup quarterback to Carson Palmer at Southern California.

UP NEXT

► Duke starts a three-game road swing at No. 9 Loyola next weekend. The Blue Devils and Greyhounds face off at 3 p.m. The game will be streamed live on Facebook.

JOHN DANOWSKI

2007-P • 387-191 (35 seasons) • 168-52 at Duke (11 seasons)

Cemented as one of the top coaches in college lacrosse, John Danowski has led the Duke men's lacrosse team to unprecedented success and himself to the top over the Division I men's lacrosse wins list. Danowski was introduced as Duke's eighth head men's lacrosse coach on July 21, 2006 and quickly led the Blue Devils to some of the most successful lacrosse seasons in school history, to three NCAA Championships in five seasons and.

In Danowski's 11 years at the helm of the Blue Devils lacrosse program, he has compiled an impressive 164-51 record in leading Duke to seven ACC regular season titles and four ACC tournament titles, eight straight appearances in the national semifinals from 2007-14, four in the NCAA title match and ultimately to the 2010, 2013 and 2014 national titles. The 2014 NCAA crown put Danowski, a winner of 383 career games, among a small group of nine coaches to win three national titles and among eight to capture consecutive crowns. Meanwhile, Duke's run of eight straight NCAA semifinals rank as the second most of any program since 2000 with Syracuse. Most recently, Danowski passed Dom Starsia as the winningest Division I lacrosse history, garnering his 376th win with a 13-6 victory over Jacksonville.

A winner of nearly 80 percent of his games at Duke, the individual awards Blue Devil players have garnered is equally impressive. In 11 seasons, Danowski mentored 64 All-America selections, 36 All-ACC choices, two Tewaaratron Trophy winners, a pair of USILA Attackman of the Year honorees, a USILA Defenseman of the Year, three USILA Midfielder of the Year award recipients and 21 USILA Scholar All-America picks.

While the success on the field is unsurpassed in Duke lacrosse history, the student-athletes excellence in the classroom also is unrivaled. The Blue Devils consistently lead the ACC in All-ACC Academic picks as well as players on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.
