LOCK DOWN D SEALS SEASON-OPENING WIN

- Trailing 6-5 at halftime of Sunday's season opener against Drexel, the Blue Devils finished with a stingy defensive effort to earn a 9-7 victory.
- The defense held the Dragons to just seven shots and one goal in the final 30 minutes.
- Duke's effort in the ride limited Drexel to just 5-of-11 on second half clearing attempts.
- The defensive performance set up the Blue Devil attack to round out the contest on a 6-1 scoring run.

BALANCED SCORING AGAINST THE DRAGONS

- Junior Kyra Harney and sophomores Olivia Jenner and Ellie Majure notched two goals each in Sunday's season-opening win against Drexel.
- Four different Blue Devils also recorded assists, including Jenner to give her a team-high three points on the afternoon.
- Majure's two tallies marked a career high.

BLUE DEVIL ROOKIES SHINE IN FIRST START

- Freshmen Catherine Cordrey and Callie Humphrey started their first collegiate contest, joining the midfield for the season opener against Drexel.
- Humphrey stuffed the stat sheet in her Duke debut, recording two ground balls, one draw control and a team-high three caused turnovers.
- Cordrey finished with one ground ball and one caused turnover in addition to two shots on goal.
- Cordrey and Humphrey came to Durham after helping lead Summit High School (N.J.) to the 2016 state title.

JENNER BACK ON THE DRAW

- Sophomore attacker Olivia Jenner did not miss a beat in her return to the draw circle Sunday.
- Jenner accounted for five draws as Duke took the category by a 13-4 margin.
- Last season saw Jenner surpass Emma Hamm ('12) for the most draw controls recorded by a Duke player in a single season (110).
- With 115 career draw controls, Jenner is now 10th on the Blue Devils' all-time list in the category.

NEW LOOK BETWEEN THE PIPES

- Following the graduation of four-year starting goalkeeper Kelsey Duryea, the Blue Devils featured a new starter in the net Sunday for the first time since March 2, 2013.
- A two-time All-American, Duryea concluded her Duke career ranked second in program history in saves (613) and goalkeeper wins (48).
- Sophomore Jamie Lockwood got the starting nod Sunday against the Dragons, finishing with seven saves and one ground ball while allowing seven goals.
- In addition to Lockwood, the Blue Devils enter the spring with the services of junior Oralee Hesperheide and freshman Gabbe Cadoux, joined the goalkeeper group out of McDonogh School (Md.), where she was a three-year starter and Under Armour All-American.

FURMAN SERIES HISTORY

- Duke and the Paladins will square off for the first time in program history Friday.
- The Blue Devils are 2-0 historically against teams from the Atlantic Sun Conference.

SCOUTING THE PALADINS

- Furman enters its third season as a program after compiling a 22-14 ledger over the last two campaigns.
- The Paladins feature an experienced roster, returning their top 10 leading scorers from a year ago.

- Paige Gamble (32g, 30a) and Ashley Trice (49g, 5a) both return after combining for 116 points last spring.
- Goalkeeper Maggie Friel is also back to anchor the defense after posting an 8.91 goals against average and 7-5 record last season.
- Gamble, senior defender Samantha Eckels and senior midfielder Devon Horine were all first team All-Atlantic Sun selections a year ago.

NAVY SERIES HISTORY

- Duke leads the overall series against the Mids, 4-0.
- The Blue Devils claimed an 18-9 victory over Navy last February in Annapolis.
- Sophomore Olivia Jenner won 13 of the 29 total draws for the contest in her return to her hometown.
- 2016 graduate Kelci Smesko and junior Kyra Harney combined for 10 tallies in the win.

- Schwitter ranked second on the 2016 squad in draw controls (39) and caused turnovers (16) and was a key part of a defense that logged an 8.60 goals against average in 2016.

NEW FACES TO KNOW

- Duke head coach Kerstin Kimel made two additions to the coaching staff during the offseason, welcoming assistant coach Lars Keil and volunteer assistant Morgan Heisman.
- A defensive specialist, Keil came to Duke from Providence, R.I., where he was an assistant for the Brown men's lacrosse program during a historic 2016 campaign that saw the Bears make their first national semifinals appearance since 1994.
- A former goalkeeper at James Madison, Heisman has previously spent time as an assistant coach at Dartmouth and George Mason.
- The Blue Devils also welcomed six freshmen to the program this season in goalkeeper Gabbe Cadoux, midfielder Catherine Cordrey, attacker Sam DeBellis, midfielder Callie Humphrey, midfielder Lindsey Reynolds and midfielder Lexi Rieu.
- Kimel further bolstered the Duke roster with the addition of graduate student Jessie Ambrose, who was a three-year starter in the midfield at Columbia.

BULLARD NAMED TO U.S. WORLD CUP TEAM

- Former Blue Devil midfielder Sarah Bullard was selected to the 18-player U.S. women's national team that will compete in the 2017 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) Women's World Cup July 12-22 in Guildford, England.
- A 2011 graduate of Duke, Bullard is one of just two players on the roster who will be competing in their third World Cup after helping guide Team USA to championship titles in 2009 and 2013.

KIMEL PRESENTED WITH IWLCA SERVICE AWARD

- Duke head coach Kerstin Kimel was presented with an Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) Service Award in November at the 2016 Honors Banquet.
- Kimel was honored along with NCAA Division I Legislation committee co-chair Karin Brower Corbett, head coach at the University of Pennsylvania.
- Kimel and Corbett were recognized for their efforts to slow down early recruiting within the sport.
- Kimel was previously honored by the IWLCA in 2015 as the recipient of the Diane Geppi-Aikens Memorial Award, named in honor of the legendary Loyola coach whose courageous battle with cancer inspired the nation.

KERSTIN KIMEL

HEAD COACH • 22ND SEASON AT DUKE
MARYLAND, 1993

The only head coach in Duke women's lacrosse history, Kerstin Kimel has led the program from its inception in 1996, molding the Blue Devils into one of the nation's elite teams.

In Kimel's 22 seasons at the helm of Duke women's lacrosse, she has guided the Blue Devils to seven national semifinals, four ACC regular season titles, an ACC Tournament Championship and 19 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances - the third longest current streak in the nation.

A five-time ACC Coach of the Year, Kimel has overseen 59 All-America selections, 80 all-region honorees and 68 All-ACC picks. Six of her former players have competed on the U.S. National Team, representing the United States at the 2009 and 2013 World Cups. The Blue Devils have achieved equal success in the classroom during Kimel's tenure, collecting 59 IWLCA Academic Honor Roll accolades since 1997.

Kimel registered her 250th career victory Feb. 22, 2015 in a win over William & Mary. She is one of just seven active Division I coaches with 270 or more wins.

Duke returned to the NCAA semifinals to punctuate an outstanding 16-5 campaign in 2015. Led by a veteran group of eight seniors, the Blue Devils concluded the season ranked fourth in the final national poll. Attacker Kerrin Maurer became Duke's career assist leader and garnered first team All-America recognition from the IWLCA. Goalkeeper Kelsey Duryea headlined the Blue Devils' three All-America selections in 2016, and concluded an outstanding career as one of just three goalkeepers in ACC history to top 600 saves for her career. She ranked among the nation's leaders in save percentage while anchoring Duke to an 11-9 ledger and a trip to the NCAA second round.

The Blue Devils recorded 14 or more wins four times from 2009 to 2014, advancing to the national quarterfinals on five occasions and the semifinals in 2011. Under Kimel's watch, Duke produced 13 All-America selections during that time, while Emma Hamm (2011) and Carolyn Davis (2009) were named finalists for the Tewaaraton Trophy. Led by Davis and Caroline Cryer, the 2009 squad rewrote the program's offensive record book, totaling team highs in goals scored (313), assists (150) and points (463). In 2013, Duryea became the first goalkeeper in program history to receive All-America recognition as a rookie, rounding out the season ranked top-10 nationally in save percentage and saves per game. A two-time first team All-American on defense, Taylor Virden wrapped up her senior campaign (2014) ranked second in program history in career draw controls.

From 2004 to 2008, Duke put together one of the most successful stretches in program history, advancing to four consecutive national semifinals from 2005 to 2008 and earning at least a share of four-straight ACC regular season titles from 2004 to 2007. During that span, the Blue Devils placed 21 players on both All-America and all-region lists, in addition to posting three Tewaaraton finalists. Kimel led Duke to a 13-8 overall record and the Blue Devils' fourth-straight NCAA semifinal appearance in 2008, earning womenslax.com Coach of the Year honors for her efforts.

Led by Tewaaraton Trophy recipient and two-time ACC Player of the Year Katie Chrest, the 2005 and 2006 Duke squads combined for a 35-7 overall record, including a program-best 18 victories in 2006, a 7-2 mark in the ACC and two conference regular season titles. After seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments bids, the 2005 installment earned a trip to the national semifinals for the second time in program history to ignite Duke's string of four straight appearances.

From 2000 to 2002, the Blue Devils advanced to three consecutive NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, and in 2001, made the program's first ACC Championship game. However, success did not always come easy, as Duke's 12th women's varsity program began its inaugural season in 1996 with four-straight losses before earning the Devils' first win -- a 10-6 victory over UMBC on March 18, 1996. The Blue Devils would finish the season at 3-12, marking the first and only year Duke women's lacrosse has posted a losing record. Duke began its rapid ascension the following season, recording an 8-8 mark before breaking through in 1998 with the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. The 1999 season took Duke to new heights as the Blue Devils achieved the program's first trip to the NCAA semifinals.

Prior to her arrival at Duke, Kimel was the head coach at Davidson College, leading the newly-created Wildcats program to a 4-8 record in 1994 as one of the nation's youngest head coaches in her first and only season at Davidson.

Kimel was no stranger to NCAA Division I women's lacrosse before her time at Davidson, having played at the University of Maryland from 1990-93. During her career, she led the Terrapins to four consecutive national semifinal appearances and the 1992 NCAA National Championship. The Havertown, Pa., native was a two-time All-America selection and the 1993 NCAA National Defensive Player of the Year, appearing in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd." Kimel graduated from Maryland in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in speech communications.

Most recently, Kimel served as Co-Chair of the IWLCA Recruiting Issues Committee from 2014-16 and is currently the Chair of the IWLCA Division I Legislative Committee.
