In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment.

Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.

Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke's position on worker's rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.

In 1997, Duke was the first university in the country to adopt a code of conduct for apparel manufacturers requires licensees, their contractors and sub-contractors to accept independent monitoring of factory working conditions. Two years later, Duke established another standard by requiring its licensees to publicly disclose the names and locations of factories that manufacture Duke items. Duke remains very involved in these issues and committed to ensuring that products bearing its name and/or trademarks are manufactured under decent and humane working conditions.

Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract.

Nike will provide annual funding to local charities of Duke's choice.

Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore., beginning in the summer of 2009.

2014-15 SEASON OUTLOOK

DUKE LOOKS TO REPLICATE SUCCESS OF 2014 SEASON

The Duke women's tennis team enters the 2014-15 season on the heels of a successful 2013-14 campaign that included a quarterfinal appearance at the 2014 NCAA Tournament, an Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Indoor National Championship and a second-place finish in the ACC tournament.

The Blue Devils concluded the season with an overall mark of 27-5, posting 21 wins against nationally ranked opponents. Duke's 2014 season also included a run of 13 consecutive wins that ranged from Feb. 23 until April 11. During that stretch, Duke was defeating opponents by a margin of 77-12, including shutouts against four separate opponents.

Duke also saw success individually, as senior Ester Goldfeld reached the semifinal round of the NCAA Singles Championship and junior Beatrice Capra advanced to the quarterfinal round of the tournament. Capra also competed in the NCAA Doubles Championship alongside recent graduate Hanna Mar. The Duo played into the semifinal round of the tournament before falling in the penultimate match. The trio of Capra, Goldfeld and Mar garnered All-America honors for their performances.

DUKE WINS ITA INDOOR NATIONAL TITLE

For the second time in school history, and the first time since 2003, Duke earned the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Team Indoor Championship title. The event, held in Charlottesville, Va., pitted then 10th-ranked Duke against fifth-ranked UCLA in the final of the competition. With the team trailing UCLA 3-0, Duke battled back by winning two third set tiebreaks. For the second time in three matches, it came down to recent graduate Hanna Mar, who delivered with a 7-3 tiebreaker win in the second set and a 10-3 tiebreaker victory in the third set after dropping the first set, 6-3. For her efforts, Mar earned tournament MVP honors.

BLUE DEVILS IN ITA PRESEASON POLL

The Blue Devils once again open the season well represented in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's (ITA) preseason singles rankings, as four members of the team appear in the organization's preseason poll to start the 2015 season. For the second consecutive year, junior Beatrice Capra headlines the Blue Devils, ranking fourth in the nation. In addition to Capra, senior Ester Goldfeld also appears among the top 15 on the charts, ranking 12th overall. Sophomores Chaela Scholl and Alyssa Smith round out the Duke contingent, ranking tied for 99th and 109th, respectively.

Duke concluded the 2014 dual-match season ranked second overall by the ITA.

KAHAN STRONG IN RETURN TO LINEUP

After surgery forced redshirt senior Rachel Kahan to miss all of last season, the Unionville, Conn., native returned to Duke's lineup in impressive fashion, compiling a 20-6 singles record during the 2014 season and a 9-3 mark against conference opponents. Kahan enters this season tied third on Duke's all-time career ACC singles wins list with 28.

Kahan has been instrumental in the Blue Devils' success in NCAA play in recent years, owning a perfect 11-0 record in singles in the NCAA Tournament. Most recently, Kahan helped guide Duke to the quarterfinal round of this year's tournament, defeating East Tennessee State's Sofia Espana, 6-0, 6-0, and No. 30 South Carolina's Caroline Dailey, 6-1, 6-0, in the first two rounds before downing No. 14 Clemson's Jessy Rompies, 6-4, 6-3. In all three matches, Kahan led the Blue Devils off the courts in singles play.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Blue Devils carry a 14-match home win streak into the 2015 season, after remaining perfect in Durham the previous year. Duke reached the 14-win barrier for the second time in four years, after seeing 14 wins at home during the 2012 season.

Duke faced stout competition at home in 2014, including 11 matches against ranked opponents. While at home, the Blue Devils outscored their opponents, 70-8, with shutouts in seven of the team's 14 home matches.

The Blue Devils also hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament, earning 4-0 victories over East Tennessee State University and No. 30 South Carolina, advancing Duke to the round of 16 in Athens, Ga.

ASHWORTH RECOGNIZED

Head Coach Jamie Ashworth's efforts as head coach of the Duke women's tennis team were recognized in 2014, as Ashworth received the Wilson/ITA National Women's Coach of the Year award, an honor voted on by his peers. In addition to the national coach of the year accolade, Ashworth was also named the Wilson/ITA Carolina Region Coach of the Year.

In addition to the team's success on the court, the Blue Devils proved equally productive off the playing surface, showcasing a 3.56 grade point average during the 2013-14 academic year. The student-athletes under Ashworth's guidance also participated in numerous community service projects throughout the year.

DUKE ADVANCES IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

For the 17th time in school history, Duke advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Devils opened the tournament by defeating East Tennessee State, 4-0, in the first round of the contest. Duke returned to the courts and upended No. 30 South Carolina, 4-0, moving the team to the round of 16 in Athens, Ga. The team reached the quarterfinals of the event by bypassing No. 14 Clemson, 4-1, before suffering a 4-2 defeat of eventual champion and third-ranked UCLA.

Duke's participation in the 2014 NCAA Tournament marked the team's 25th consecutive appearance at the event, as well as the 26th time in 28 years the Blue Devils reached the national competition. After amassing a record of 3-1 in last season's national championship tournament, the Blue Devils moved to 63-25 all-time.

Under Ashworth's direction, the Duke women's tennis team has reached the NCAA Tournament in all 18 seasons of his tenure, while collecting an overall record of 47-16 during that span.

STACKED 2015 SLATE

Duke once again faces stout competition in 2015, with 19 of the team's 21 opponents ranked by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) in the final poll of the 2014 season. Duke, which concluded 2014 ranked No. 2, headlines the ACC, which boasts six teams among the nation's top 20, including No. 3 North Carolina, No. 7 Virginia, No. 12 Miami, No. 13 Clemson, No. 18 Georgia Tech and No. 19 Notre Dame.

In addition to ACC competition, the Blue Devils are also scheduled to face opponents from seven other conferences, including the Colonial Athletic Conference (William & Mary), the American Athletic Conference (No. 41 Memphis), the Southern Conference (No. 58 Furman), the Big Ten (No. 15 Northwestern), the SEC (No. 5 Florida), the Pac-12 (No. 8 Stanford) and the Mountain West Conference (UNLV). In 2014, Duke posted a near-perfect non-conference record of 10-1, with the only non-conference loss of the season coming in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Tournament in a 4-2 setback to eventual national champion UCLA.

DUKE'S DOUBLES RANKED

Duke's doubles pairs fared well in the 2013-14 season, amassing an overall record of 77-29 (.726), including a 24-6 ledger in conference contests.

The duo of senior Ester Goldfeld and sophomore Alyssa Smith led the Blue Devils in conference doubles matches, amassing a record of 6-1 in the 2013-14 season. The tandem played primarily at the No. 2 position last season, earning a record of 11-6 against conference opponents. In addition to teaming with Goldfeld, Smith took the courts alongside three other teammates, accumulating 25 total doubles wins.

YOUNG TALENT

The Blue Devils welcome three freshman to the team for the 2015 season. The trio of Christina Makarova, Rebecca Smaller and Samantha Harris make up the ninth-ranked recruiting class, according to tennisrecruiting.net.

Ambler Tennis Stadium and Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center

Over the past decade, Duke University has invested more than $25 million to make its athletic facilities among the finest in the nation. This commitment is evident in the changes instituted directly for the Blue Devil tennis teams. Duke Athletic Director Kevin White continues to lead the way in providing Duke with top facilities to help student-athletes stay in peak condition.

Originally completed in the summer of 1987, the Duke Tennis Stadium was renovated into the Ambler Tennis Stadium. The facility was funded by Merrill Ambler and features seat-backs for fan seating, a scoreboard, new court surfaces and restrooms.

In addition to the fine outdoor courts, the Duke athletic department completed the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center in the winter of 2000. Named after Karl and Alice Sheffield, the facility features six courts, offices for the coaches, a hall of fame room and locker rooms. It was awarded the 2000 United States Tennis Association Outstanding Tennis Facility on February 25, 2001. The Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is only the third tennis center in North Carolina to receive the award since it began in 1981.

The modern training room provides all of the equipment and services necessary to keep the Duke men's and women's tennis teams healthy and in action. The trainer's office is off the main training area, allowing the players convenient access to this care.

The weight room is another extensive area, directed by strength coordinator Dan Perlmutter. The 3,300 square-foot weight room has over three tons of free weights along with Nautilus, Hydra-Gym and Universal stations.

In 2008 the completion of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center - Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence - provided all of Duke's student-athletes with a new Academics Center featuring tutorial rooms, dedicated study space, computer lab areas and offices for academics staff, nearly tripling the size of the previous academics area.

Some more recent additions to the tennis facilities include a new state of the art Daktronics indoor scoring system. This project, which was installed in the fall of 2006, includes seven wireless scoreboards. There are six individual scoreboards (one mounted behind each court) that provides the player's name as well as the game and set scores. The main scoreboard shows the dual match score and scores of all six courts. Also the six main outdoor courts have been resurfaced in the US Open (Duke) blue color.

General Information

- There is no charge for tennis matches. All indoor matches occur in the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center. All outdoor tennis matches occur in the Ambler Tennis Stadium.
- The entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located between the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center and the Ambler Tennis Stadium.
- The handicap entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located on the south side of the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center
- The entrance to the Ambler Tennis Stadium is located behind the bleachers of the stadium via the stairwells
- Handicap seating is located on the south side of the courts closest to Krzyzewskiville.
- Restrooms in the Sheffield Tennis Center are located on court level under the bleachers.
- Restrooms in the Ambler Tennis Stadium are located underneath the bleachers between the two stairwells.

One of the winningest women's tennis coaches in the nation, Jamie Ashworth has led the Blue Devils to new heights. Since becoming the head coach in 1997, he has led the program to 14 20-win seasons and 18 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Under his guidance in 2009, the Blue Devils reached the pinnacle of success as they captured the program's first NCAA Championship. Over the past 18 years at the helm of the program, he has led Duke to a 410-98 (.807) overall record and a 140-31 (.819) ACC mark, while advancing to the NCAA Semifinals eight times, NCAA Championship match twice and notching ACC Tournament Championships on eight occasions.

Following the 2014 NCAA Team Championships tournament, Ashworth was named the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year, as voted on by his peers. He is also a two-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001 & 2003) recipient and five-time ITA Regional Coach of the Year (2000, 2003, 2008, 2011 & 2014).

In 2014, Ashworth once again led the Blue Devils to the NCAA Tennis Championship, marking the team's 18th consecutive trip to the national tournament during his tenure. Duke reached the quarterfinal round for the 12th time with Ashworth as head coach. The Blue Devils bounced back from an injury plagued 2012-13 season by posting a 27-5 overall record and an 11-3 conference mark. Duke opened 2014 with eight consecutive wins, four of which came during the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, where the Blue Devils earned the second title in program history in a hard-fought contest against No. 5 UCLA. Although Duke was recognized nationally throughout the year, the Blue Devils jumped to No. 1 following the tournament, a ranking the team held for five consecutive weeks from March 18 through April 15.

Individually, three singles players ranked among the top 35 in the nation at the conclusion of the season, and four doubles pairs appeared in the top-80 of the nationally ranked doubles teams. Three All-America honors were earned by members of the Duke team, in addition to three All-ACC accolades in 2014. Ashworth also assisted Hanna Mar in earning the ITA Carolina Region Senior Player of the Year award following a stellar senior campaign. Mar also received the Most Outstanding Player honor at the conclusion of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship, during which she remained undefeated and clinched the title by securing the final singles point in a hotly-contested match against UCLA.

The 2013 season marked Duke's 17th consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament with Ashworth at the helm, as the Blue Devils reached the round of 16 for the sixth time in as many years. Ashworth guided an injury-plagued Blue Devils squad to a 16-10 overall record and 5-5 ACC ledger. The Blue Devils closed the season with a 14th-place ranking on the ITA list. In addition to the team ranking, the Blue Devils also posted four singles players and four doubles pairs on the list. Three members of the Blue Devil squad garnered All-ACC honors, the 31st, 32nd and 33rd players to earn such an honor during Ashworth's tenure.

In 2012, Ashworth led Duke to a 29-3 (.906) record overall to become the ACC's all-time wins leader. Duke finished 11-0 in the ACC to become the first team in ACC history to have a perfect 11-0 record and win the ACC tournament in the same season. The team's 29 wins tied the 2009 national championship team for the second most in a season, while the Blue Devils also tied the 2009 team for the second-longest winning streak in program history with 18 straight victories. The 2012 campaign was the fifth straight 20-win season for the program, and the eighth time that the Blue Devils reached the 25-win plateau during Ashworth's tenure. The Blue Devils reached the NCAA semifinals for the eighth time in program history, and finished the season listed No. 3 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's final team rankings for the second consecutive year. The Blue Devils ended the season with six players ranked in the final ITA poll, four players named to the All-ACC team, and freshman Beatrice Capra honored as ACC Player of the Year.

The 2011 season saw Ashworth lead the program to its third straight quarterfinal appearance and the 16th overall in the NCAA Championships. The Blue Devils finished the season ranked No. 3, and had all six singles players and four teams of doubles in the final ITA rankings. Nadine Fahoum, Rachel Kahan, Ellah Nze and Reka Zsilinszka were All-ACC selections. Kahan was named ACC Freshman of the Year, while Nze and Zsilinszka each concluded their college careers with four consecutive All-ACC honors.

In 2010, Ashworth reached another milestone in his career as he garnered his 300th career victory when the Blue Devils blanked ACC foe NC State 7-0 on Feb. 25, 2010. Duke posted a 22-8 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. Duke also landed four players on the All-ACC Academic team.

Under Ashworth's guidance in 2009, Duke posted 29-3 overall record and finished the year on an 18-match win streak after blanking California 4-0 in the national title match. Both numbers rank second all-time in Duke tennis history.

Just a week after capturing the team title, Ashworth helped mentor Blue Devil freshman Mallory Cecil to the NCAA Individual Singles Championship and a No. 1 national ranking. Under his watch, Cecil, Ellah Nze and Reka Zsilinszka all captured All-America honors for singles, while Cecil was named the ITA Player of the Year. Duke was equally impressive in the classroom in 2008-09, landing an ACC-best five players on the All-ACC Academic team.

In addition to the NCAA title, the Blue Devils captured a share of the ACC regular season title and won the ACC Tournament Championship in thrilling fashion. Five Blue Devils earned at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament and seven players were ranked in the final ITA national poll.

In 2007-08, Ashworth helped put Duke back in the forefront of the nation's best teams, leading the Blue Devils to a 20-5 overall record and a runner-up finish in the ACC. Ranked ninth in the final national poll, Duke reached the NCAA Tournament for the 19th straight year and the 20th time overall. The Blue Devils advanced to the round of 16 as a team and had three individuals capture All-America honors after earning spots in the individuals tournament round of 16.

The 2006-07 campaign saw Duke go 12-10 (5-6 ACC) and reach the NCAA Tournament for the 18th straight year and 19th time overall. The Blue Devils finished the season with a national ranking of No. 21, led by sophomore Melissa Mang, who received All-ACC recognition for the second straight year, and freshman Amanda Granson, who led the squad in singles wins (23), dual match victories (15) and ACC triumphs (eight).

In 2005-06, Ashworth rounded out a decade as the head coach of the women's tennis program. His 10th year saw the Blue Devils go 20-8 overall and 9-1 in ACC play. Mang became the sixth Blue Devil freshman overall and third under Ashworth (Ansley Cargill, 2001; Kelly McCain, 2002) to receive ACC Rookie of the Year honors, as she also received All-ACC accolades along with Bercek and Jackie Carleton. Bercek and Carleton each received bids to the NCAA Singles Championships and Bercek garnered her third career All-America nod. The Blue Devils ended the campaign ranked ninth in the country.

After serving as a Duke assistant coach from 1994-95 through 1996-97, Ashworth took over the head coaching reigns on March 20, 1997, and paced Duke to a 12-1 overall record and a 4-0 conference mark to wrap up the season.

In his first full year as a head coach (1997-98), Ashworth led Duke to 27 wins, then a school record, the school's 11th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, Duke's best final national ranking at No. 2, its third consecutive Final Four and the program's first appearance in the NCAA title match.

The 1998-99 season was no letdown as he guided Duke to 27 wins, its 12th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, its fourth straight NCAA semifinal appearance and a final No. 3 national ranking.

In 1999-2000, Ashworth guided a young Blue Devil team to a 23-6 record, a 13th consecutive ACC Tournament title and a Sweet 16 NCAA finish. The following campaign (2000-01) saw Ashworth lead the Blue Devils to 27 victories and an Elite Eight NCAA finish, along with Duke's 14th consecutive ACC Championship and an undefeated 8-0 ACC regular season mark.

In 2001-02, Duke posted a 25-5 overall record and won the ACC regular season title with an 8-0 mark. In 2002-03, Ashworth led the Blue Devils back to the NCAA Final Four, tied an ACC record with 30 victories, won the ACC regular season and tournament titles, and claimed the National Team Indoor Championship. With one of his youngest teams in his coaching history, Ashworth led Duke to the Elite Eight and a 22-5 mark in 2003-04.

During Ashworth's term as the assistant coach, the Blue Devils recorded a 59-13 overall record and a perfect 20-0 ACC mark. In his first year as an assistant in 1994-95, Duke went 22-6, advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals and finished the year ranked No. 7. In 1995-96, he helped pace Duke to a 25-4 mark (then a school record for wins in a season), a trip to the NCAA Final Four and a national ranking of No. 3. In 1996-97, Duke advanced to its second straight NCAA Final Four, finishing the year third in the nation, once again.

Ashworth has coached 31 different All-ACC selections and 24 different All-America honorees, two national champions and four collegiate grand slam champions during his stint with the Blue Devils. That list that includes four-time All-America and 1998 NCAA singles national champion, Vanessa Webb, who is Duke tennis' only Honda Award winner and Olympian.

A 1994 speech communication graduate of Maryland, Ashworth was a four-year letterwinner for the Terrapins and served as a captain of the team his junior and senior years. He recently served on the ITA Board of Directors for the fifth year and just finished his sixth year on the Division I Women's Tennis Operating Committee.

A native of Amherst, N.H., Ashworth resides with his wife Caylan and his son Bryce in Durham.

MARC SPICIJARIC

ASSISTANT COACH
ILLINOIS '09
SIXTH SEASON

REKA ZSILINSZKA

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
DUKE '11
FIRST SEASON

Marc Spicijaric joined the Blue Devil coaching staff as an assistant coach in August of 2009. Spicijaric came to Durham after a standout career at the University of Illinois.

Among other duties, Spicijaric assists Ashworth in team training and recruiting for the Blue Devil tennis program. Duke's 2011 recruiting class ranked first in the nation, including freshmen Beatrice Capra, Ester Goldfeld, Monica Turewicz and Annie Mulholland. His hard work paid off in 2012 as Capra was named ACC Player of the Year, and Capra, Goldfeld and Turewicz were all ranked in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll.

In 2014, Spicijaric once again assisted with the success of the Duke women's tennis program, as the Blue Devils participated in the NCAA Team Championship tournament for the 18th consecutive season. Duke also claimed the ITA Indoor Team Championship title in exciting fashion as the Blue Devils outlasted UCLA, 4-3, in the final and amassed 20 or more wins in a season for the fourth time in his five year stint. Individually, members of the team thrived, as the Blue Devils boasted three All-Americans, three All-ACC honorees, three ITA Scholar Athletes, one All-ACC academic recipient, a Regional ITA Senior Player of the Year and a two-time ACC Player of the Week.

During his fourth year with the Duke women's tennis program, Spicijaric assisted Ashworth in leading an injury-plagued Blue Devil roster to a 16-10 season and Duke's 17th consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. With Spicijaric's guidance, three members of Duke's tennis team earned All-ACC honors in 2013.

In 2012, Spicijaric assisted the team to a 29-3 (.906) record overall and an 11-0 mark in the ACC to become the first team in ACC history to have a perfect 11-0 record and win the ACC tournament in the same season. Since Spicijaric joined the staff in 2009, the Blue Devils have had three consecutive 20 win seasons.

The 2010-11 season saw Spicijaric help guide Duke to its second 25-win season in three years. His recruiting efforts paid great dividends as freshman Rachel Kahan went 31-1 in singles play, on the way to garnering ACC Rookie of the Year honors.

In his first season, Spicijaric helped lead the Blue Devils to a 22-8 overall record and a final national ranking of ninth. Three players captured All-ACC honors, while Ellah Nze earned All-American recognition.

Spicijaric had a stellar four-year career with Illinois, helping the Illini to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including advancing to the national title match in 2007. He closed out his career with a 90-55 singles record, a 96-48 doubles mark and earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

A native of Wesley Chapel, Fla., Spicijaric played primarily in the No. 1 spot as a senior, posting a 19-5 overall singles record and a 25-9 doubles record. Ranked as high as No. 50 in 2009, he finished the year ranked 74th nationally and 13th in the Midwest region. He also was voted as Illinois' Most Valuable Player by his teammates.

Known as "Mr. Clutch" during the 2006-07 season, Spicijaric tied for the most wins on the team with a 32-17 overall record in singles action. He proved to be pivotal in leading the Illini to the national finals, losing just one match in the NCAA Tournament and scored the match-clinching win over Ohio State in the national quarterfinals.

In his junior season, Spicijaric concluded the year with a 14-14 singles record and 5-4 ledger in Big Ten matches primarily in the No. 3 slot. He boasted a five-match win streak in the heart of the Big Ten season and compiled a 16-11 doubles record to finish ranked 42nd by the ITA.

Reka Zsilinszka joined the Blue Devil coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in August of 2014. Zsilinszka joins the coaching staff following a stellar career as a member of Duke's women's tennis team.

Zsilinszka adds both coaching experience and playing experience to Duke's staff, spending two years at Durham University in the United Kingdom coaching both women's and juniors players. Prior to her time in the United Kingdom, Zsilinszka acted as the Hollow Rock Racquet and Swim Club tennis professional in 2010, while also serving as a Nike Junior Tennis Camp counselor from 2007 through 2011.

As a student-athlete, Zsilinszka saw one of the most successful playing careers in Duke history. In addition to recording two seasons with 40 or more singles wins and receiving two All-America selections, Zsilinszka also played an integral role in guiding Duke to its first national championship title for women's tennis. Zsilinszka posted a perfect 5-0 mark in tournament play and garnered the Most Valuable Player Award following the end of the 10-day contest. The conclusion of the 2009 season saw Zsilinszka record a career-high 41 singles victories, becoming just the second Blue Devil in Duke history to reach the 40-win plateau for two consecutive seasons. Zsilinszka also surpassed the 100-win mark, concluding her Duke career with an overall singles record of 142-33, the third most wins and the second best winning percentage in Duke history.

At the conference level, Zsilinszka also excelled, sitting atop Duke's career ACC singles wins list with 38 and earning four All-ACC honors during her time in Durham. Regionally, Zsilinszka received the 2011 Carolina Region Senior of the Year award.

In addition to assisting with the women's tennis team this season, Zsilinszka is also attending Duke University's School of Medicine. Zsilinszka currently resides in Durham, N.C.

JENNIE TODD

ATHLETIC TRAINER
ST. JOSEPH'S '97
13TH SEASON

Jennie Todd joined the Duke staff in August of 2001 and serves as an assistant athletic trainer. Her duties include working with the field hockey and women's tennis teams.

Todd joined the Blue Devils after two years at Notre Dame High School in Lawrenceville, N.J., the last year as the head athletic trainer. Prior to that, she was a student assistant athletic trainer at St. Joseph's University for four years.

Todd earned her bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's in 1997 and a master's degree from the Arizona School of Health Sciences in 2001. She has been a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association since 1998 and is also a member of the North Carolina Athletic Trainer's Association. She is also ATC-L certified and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

JEFF HOWSER

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
DUKE '71
13TH SEASON

Former ACC champion and All-America Jeff Howser is in his 13th season as Duke's speed and conditioning coach.

A graduate of Duke, Howser was a six-time ACC champion and was named as one of the ACC's top 50 track athletes of all-time in 2003. He went on to earn a bronze medal at the World Championships in the 110-meter high hurdles and was an alternate on the U.S. Olympic Team. Howser ran on the international level for 14 years, was a four-time U.S. Olympic Trials qualifier and two-time U.S. Olympic Trials finalist.

He served previously as the sprints and hurdles coach at the University of Florida, UCLA, NC State, Duke and the University of North Carolina.

Howser also has coached a number of top world-ranked professional track athletes such as Anwar Moore (13.00-110m hurdles), Jason Smoots (6.51-60m, 10.01-100m), Bershawn Jackson (47.30-400m hurdles), Leonard Byrd (44.45-400m), Michelle Collins (50.00-400m, 22.18-200m indoor), Daniel Caines UK (44.98-400m), Crystal Cox (50.34-400m, 22.34-200m), Jordan Vaden (19.98-200m), Marion Jones (7.08-60m, 10.91-100m), and other athletes from Jamaica, Great Britain, Trinidad, Ghana, Bermuda and the Bahamas. He also has served as a consultant in training program design for several other top-ranked track athletes from various countries which include LaShawn Merritt, Tyson Gay and Veronica Campbell-Brown. Howser also assists Athens 2004 Head Olympic Coach George Williams in coaching the Nike GW Elite Track Club. His coaching resume includes thirteen Olympians, five Olympic Gold Medalists, four World Championship Gold Medalists and one World Cup Gold Medalist. In addition, one of Howser's athletes ran the fastest high school electronic 40yd dash ever recorded (4.25 electronic at the Nike SPARQ Combine), which is also the second fastest time in history.

He holds certifications from the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the USA Weightlifting Association, is the North Carolina director for the National Association of Speed and Explosion and is a USA Track and Field Elite Athlete Coach.

In addition to his duties as overall head strength coach for Women's Lacrosse, Field Hockey and the Men's Distance program, Howser designs and implements the speed, agility and conditioning programs for Men's Lacrosse, Women's Soccer, Women's Tennis and Volleyball.

Kevin M. White

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

ADJUNCT PROFESSOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE '72

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 62, joined the Duke family after leading Notre Dame's athletics program to success both on the playing fields and in the classroom from 2000-08. He also has held a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. In 2013, White was named one of four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision recipients of the Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA.

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient and modern department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke's fundraising efforts during an economic downturn; completed partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams; commissioned a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured four NCAA Championships - women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and men's lacrosse in 2010 and 2013 - and 15 ACC titles (three in 2013). On the strength of 19 teams participating in NCAA Championship competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 12th in the 2013 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 12th-place showing marked the 10th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 20 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's five years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012) and 12th (2013) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Forty-eight Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past five seasons with eight - men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013) and women's tennis (2009, 2010) - reaching No. 1. In all, 75 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure.

Individually, 165 student-athletes earned All-America, 278 All-ACC and 171 All-Region or District honors the past five years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 10 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011 and 2013), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012). In 2012-13, Duke celebrated one individual NCAA and seven individual ACC titles.

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2013 spring semester, 25 of 26 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better and more than 90 made the Dean's List.

In two key elements in tracking a department's academic success, Duke ranked among the nation's best again. Duke posted a 98% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 16 teams achieved a 100% GSR. Also, an ACC-best 15 Blue Devil teams were ranked in the top 10% of their respective sports in the most recent Academic Performance Rate (APR) Report, including the men's basketball and football teams. In the 2013 report, Duke (989) ranked third among all FBS schools, behind only Northwestern (996) and Boise State (993), and eighth among all Division I - FBS and FCS - programs. In all, Duke totaled the highest APR scores among ACC institutions in 13 of the league's 25 sports: men's basketball (995), football (989), men's golf (1000), men's lacrosse (997), men's soccer (995), men's swimming and diving (1000), men's indoor track and field (1000), men's outdoor track and field (1000), women's golf (1000), women's lacrosse (1000), rowing (1000), volleyball (1000) and wrestling (1000).

Individually in 2013, seniors Abby Johnston (women's diving) and Anthony Lin (fencing) received prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. Six Duke student-athletes were selected as CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, while 26 others received National Scholar-Athlete or Scholar All-America accolades. In White's five-year tenure, former women's tennis player Parker Goyer won a Rhodes Scholarship (2009), while track athlete Sally Liu (2009) and Allie Speidel (2011) earned Marshall Scholarships.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, approximately 500 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 2,000 community service hours.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. In May 2011, Duke Athletics announced that a portion of ticket sales from Blue Devil regular season home sporting events will be directed to the Duke University Libraries. Per White's vision, the Duke Athletics Library Fund will generate significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign is a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways - for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). In 2012-13, several facility projects were initiated, including the construction of new practice fields off Bassett Drive that will benefit Duke's lacrosse, soccer, recreation and club sports, and intramural programs.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White previously served on numerous NCAA committees, including being an ex-officio member of the NCAA Committee on Academic Performance and a member of its Penalty and Rewards subcommittee. For several years, he was a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. Additionally, White was part of the NCAA Coalition on Intercollegiate Athletics (COIA) that dealt with academics, fiscal reform and student-athlete well-being. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the recently formed Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Additionally, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football," and served on the Black Coaches and Administrators Board of Directors.

Given his background and success, it is not surprising that 23 current or former directors of athletics were mentored by White. That impressive list includes Jim Sterk of Washington State and San Diego State, Tom Boeh of Ohio University and Fresno State, Ian McCaw of Northeastern, Massachusetts and Baylor, Bruce Van De Velde formerly of Utah State, Iowa State and Louisiana Tech, Herman Frazier previously of Alabama-Birmingham and Hawaii, Rudy Keeling formerly of Emerson and previous commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), Scott Devine of St. Mary's College (Md.), Tom Collins formerly of Ball State, Tim Van Alstine formerly of Western Illinois, Mark Wilson of Tennessee Tech, Bubba Cunningham of Ball State, Tulsa and North Carolina, Sandy Barbour of Tulane and California-Berkeley, Jim Phillips of Northern Illinois and Northwestern, Bernard Muir of Georgetown, Delaware and Stanford, Sandy Hatfield Clubb of Drake, Vic Cegles of Long Beach State, Norwood Teague of Virginia Commonwealth and Minnesota, Bob Bieri previously of Loras College, Greg Capell previously of Loras College, Boo Corrigan of Army, Bill Scholl of Ball State, Josh Berlo of Minnesota Duluth, and Stan Wilcox of Florida State. Prior to joining Notre Dame in 2000, White served as athletic director at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, where he originated the National Catholic Basketball Tournament.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State (1981-82) and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan (1976-80). He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter.

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 10 grandchildren.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

From 1977 through the 1981 season, the ACC women's tennis tournament was held in the fall. Starting with the 1982-83 academic year, the tournament took place in the spring. Beginning with the 1986 tournament, the order of finish was determined on the basis of dual match format. Beginning in 1990, the tournament determined the ACC team champion while the singles and doubles champions were determined in regular-season play.

2009 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

After watching Duke roll through 12 straight victories en route to both the ACC regular season and ACC Tournament titles, head coach Jamie Ashworth truly allowed the reality of winning the national championship started to creep into his mind. He liked the attitude of his team and that they had been in almost every imaginable situation on the court.

"I think towards the end of the regular season, just the attitude [really put the national championship in sight]," Ashworth said. "The ACC tournament match against North Carolina, it was then when I saw that how well we were playing in doubles. That was the first time that I really thought that we could win the whole thing."

The Blue Devils earned the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted the opening two rounds at Ambler Tennis Stadium. While they knew they had to be ready for every match, the one match circled on everyone's calendar was the potential quarterfinal contest with ACC rival Miami.

"We had this whole thing of thinking that the winner of us and Miami is going to win the national title," Ashworth said.

After clearing the way to College Station with wins over Richmond and Virginia, Ashworth noticed a certain swagger about his team.

"This was the first team I've ever had that wasn't going into the round of 16 with the mindset of, 'we could win it', but they honestly believed that they should win it, and it was such a noticeable thing," Ashworth said.

The Blue Devils met up with Arkansas in the round of 16 and for the first time since April 1, they lost the doubles point. Ashworth saw the loss as a wakeup call for his team. The squad quickly rebounded with four singles wins to earn a spot in the quarterfinal round against Miami.

The quarterfinal match that Duke circled had arrived and the Blue Devils were confident heading into the contest against the Hurricanes.

This time though, the match was filled with less drama. Duke took the doubles point with wins from Mang and Granson at No. 1 and Ellah Nze and Zsilinszka at No. 2.

Cecil came out on fire in singles and got off the court quickly with a 6-2, 6-1 win to give Duke a 2-0 lead in the match. Miami got a point back to make it 2-1. Unfolding on court four was perhaps the highlight of the match. Granson, who had lost to Michaela Kissell twice before, turned in a stellar performance. The junior dropped the opening set 6-3, but buckled down to take the next two sets 6-1, 6-3 and put Duke ahead 3-1. Zsilinszka clinched the match and sent Duke to its first semifinal appearance since 2003.

"We had a lot of confidence in that match, especially when we won doubles," Ashworth said. "We just had a belief that we were going to win. I think beating Miami in the quarters of the NCAA tournament was the biggest match for us the entire year, because it let our team realize that if we got by them, we could win the tournament."

As predicted, the quarterfinal proved to be Duke's toughest test of the tournament. The Blue Devils raced past Georgia 5-2 in the semifinals despite No. 1 Cecil losing her first match since March 22.

"I hate to see people lose, but it showed our team that we could beat a top five team without [Mallory] winning," Ashworth said. "It all started with the doubles."

Riding high on its 17-match win streak, Duke made it 18 with the biggest victory of the year on May 19. The Blue Devils took on No. 8 California in the title tilt and made quick work of the Bears in a 4-0 victory.

Doubles play was strong with wins at No. 2 and No. 3, and Zsilinszka made quick work of her opponent in singles action for the 2-0 lead. Then the magic started to unfold on courts five and six.

Playing in the final match of their careers, the senior tandem of Mang and Robinson stamped Duke's place in the history book as they won their matches within moments of each other. Robinson turned in a furious rally in the second set to come back from a 4-2 deficit to win 6-2, 6-4 at No. 6. At the opposite end of the stadium it was Mang punching the ticket for the Blue Devils with a forehand winner for the 6-1, 6-3 triumph at No. 5.

"It's unbelievable," Robinson said following the match. "I don't even have any words to describe the feeling. I love these girls and it's an amazing feeling."

"It hasn't quite sunk in yet, but it's unbelievable," Mang said. "I'm just so proud of these girls. To win this with Jess [Robinson] in our senior year is amazing. I could not ask for anything better."

Zsilinszka took home the tournament's Most Valuable Player Award after going 5-0 and not dropping a single set during the 10 days.

While the talent the Blue Devils possessed on the court was great, it was the team's ability to pull together and fight for each other throughout the season that led them to the top Ashworth believes.

"I think this was by far the closest team I had as far as trusting each other, believing in each other and wanting to win for each other," Ashworth said. "And I think that we had a lot of leaders in different ways and that really was so important to our success. I'm so proud of them. I couldn't have asked for more out of these girls."
