Norm Ogilvie

Director of Track & Field

26th Season at Duke

17th Season as Men's XC Head Coach

13th Season as Director of Track & Field

B.A. - Drake ('81)

M.A. - Duke ('96)

Following one of the most successful seasons in program history, highlighted by a combined 10 first team All-America selections, 16 NCAA Championships qualifiers and four ACC titles between the indoor and outdoor campaigns, Director of Track & Field Norm Ogilvie enters his 25th cross country season in the fall of 2015 and his 26th track & field season at Duke.

Under Ogilvie's direction, the men's and women's track and field teams have been on the rise over the last several seasons. The program has produced three NCAA titles in the past five years with multi-event athlete Curtis Beach capturing the heptathlon crown at both the 2012 and 2014 NCAA Indoor Championships and distance runner Juliet Bottorff crossing the line first in the 10,000 meters at the 2011 NCAA Outdoor Championships.

In 2015, 11 Blue Devils made it to the NCAA Indoor Championships, with nine finishing as first team All-Americans, both marking program bests. Pole vaulter Megan Clark led a stellar cast of Blue Devils who stood out on the national stage, taking home the silver medal after tying the ACC record with a clearance of 14-9.00 (4.50). Joining Clark in garnering first team All-America honors were Lauren Hansson, Elizabeth Kerpon, Madeline Kopp and Maddy Price taking sixth in the 4x400 and Brett Bofinger, Henry Farley, Nate McClafferty and Brian Schoepfer placing seventh in the distance medley relay. Teddi Maslowski (long jump) and Shaun Thompson (5,000) rounded out the Blue Devil contingent at the national meet with second team All-America honors.

At the 2015 NCAA Outdoor Championships in Eugene, Ore., javelin specialist Thomas Lang was Duke's lone first team All-American after placing sixth in the event with a school-record throw of 237-10 (72.50). Clark (pole vault), Maslowski (heptathlon), Erica Brand (discus) and Madison Heath (pole vault) also punched their tickets to Eugene, finishing as All-America honorable mentions.

At the conference level, Duke claimed four ACC titles, including Clark sweeping the indoor and outdoor pole vaults. At the outdoor competition, Lang won the javelin competition for the second consecutive season, while Tanner Johnson won the decathlon crown as a rookie. As a team, the men finished seventh at the indoor meet and sixth outdoors, while the women took fifth during the indoor season and eighth outdoors.

Ogilvie took the reins of the men's cross country program for the 24th season of his coaching career during a 2014 campaign that saw the Blue Devils earn two first-place team finishes. Ogilvie led Duke to its first victory of the season at the JMU Invitational, with the Blue Devils placing its first five finishers among the top 10. Duke also successfully defended its first-place showing from a year ago at the Three Stripe Invitational, as the Blue Devils placed four runners in the top-10 positions. While competing unattached, Shaun Thompson set a course record at the WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, N.C., crossing the line in a 5K time of 14:20.02 to earn the win. With Ogilvie's assistance, four competitors took to the start line at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships.

In the fall of 2010, the men's cross country team garnered the program's first automatic bid to the NCAA Championships while finishing the year with a 98-25 record, matching the team's highest win total since 2001. Ranked as high as ninth nationally, Duke concluded the season with a second-place finish at the NCAA Southeast Regional, a team title for the third consecutive season at the IC4A Championships and a 21st-place finish at the NCAA Championships in addition to going undefeated during the regular season. With the team's victory at the IC4A Championships, Ogilvie surpassed the 1,000 career wins milestone at Duke.

Over Ogilvie's two-plus decades at Duke, he has coached 418 All-East selections, 62 ACC individual champions, 12 IC4A champions, 64 ECAC champions and 81 All-America selections. In cross country, Ogilvie has led Duke to an ACC team title, four IC4A team titles and six NCAA appearances. His career win-loss-tie record in cross country at Duke stands at 1,290-510-3 following the 2013 season. In addition, Ogilvie has overseen one ACC individual champion, one Southeast Region individual champion, 23 All-Southeast Region selections and one All-American in cross country.

Named the ACC Cross Country Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Duke men to their first ACC title since 1977, Ogilvie has worked directly with all male middle-distance and distance runners the past two decades in Durham. The field events have developed significantly under his direction and coaching hires. Virtually every Duke field event record for both the men's and women's programs have occurred during Ogilvie's tenure.

Prior to his time at Duke, Ogilvie spent three semesters at the University of Colorado, assisting with distance runners.

As an athlete, Ogilvie owns a personal best of 14:07 for 5,000m and has covered one mile in 4:07.

A 1981 graduate of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, with a degree in journalism, Ogilvie completed his master's degree from Duke in July of 1996. In addition to coaching, Ogilvie has covered track & field meets for network television for the past 20 years, while also serving as the president of the IC4A Coaches Association through May of 2002.

Ogilvie was promoted to Director of Track & Field at Duke in June of 2003. His wife, Jan, coaches the Duke jumpers. They have two children, Jade and Starr.

Christine Engel

Head Coach (W. Cross Country)

Assistant Coach (Track & Field)

Second Season at Duke

Second Season as W. Cross Country Head Coach

B.S. - Clemson '96

Christine Engel enters her second season with the Blue Devils in the fall of 2015. Engel was named the head women's cross country coach and assistant track & field coach in August of 2014. Her primary responsibilities include coaching Duke's middle and long distance runners.

During her first season as the Duke women's cross country coach, Engel helped guide the Blue Devils to two first-place finishes, including at the season-opener Virginia Duals and at the Three Stripe Invitational. Engel also coached eight separate harriers to top-10 finishes throughout the season, including two first-place performances. At the ACC Championships, Engel led Duke to a top-10 showing, while two Blue Devils took the starting line at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships with Engel's assistance, as well.

In her debut season with the track & field team, Engel helped guide the Duke women distance runners to a successful 2015 season, including two that captured All-ACC honors at the indoor conference meet and three that qualified for the NCAA East Preliminary Round.

Engel brings a wealth of coaching experience to the Duke women's cross country team. Before coming to Durham, Engel held the position of head men's and women's cross country coach and assistant women's track & field coach at Elon University for six years. During her tenure at Elon, Engel coached four Southern Conference individual champions and two NCAA East Preliminary Round qualifiers. Engel also helped lead 24 different student-athletes to 75 All-Southern Conference honors.

Elon's record books were rewritten during Engel's time with the program. Overall, 17 of Elon's top 20 all-time 5K performances and 16 of the school's top 20 all-time 6K performances came during Engel's tenure. Additionally, on the track, school records fell in the indoor 800, 1,000, one mile, 3,000, 5,000 and distance medley relay, while outdoor school records in the 800, 3,000, 5,000, 10,000 and 3,000 steeplechase all were set with Engel as the coach.

Most recently, Engel guided the Elon women's cross country team to a second-place finish at the 2013 Southern Conference Championships with five runners earning all-conference honors at the competition. The second-place showing tied the team's highest conference finish in program history. The Phoenix followed the performance with a ninth-place effort at the NCAA Southeast Regionals, also the highest finish in school history at the event.

On the men's side, Engel coached Elon's top male competitor, Luis Vargas, to a third-place finish at the 2013 cross country conference championships, the second straight all-conference showing of his career. Vargas also became the first competitor in Elon history to earn All-Region honors at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships after placing 22nd overall.

During the 2014 indoor track season, with Engel coaching, four school records fell for the women's distance team, including school bests at 1,000 meters, the mile, 3,000m and 5,000m. With Engel's guidance, Elon's Allyson Oram won the Southern Conference Championship at 3,000m, after setting a school-record mark. All-Southern Conference honors were earned by Tereza Novotna as well, while Elyse Bierut and Kimberly Johansen garnered All-Freshman accolades.

Engel assisted in Novotna claiming the 3,000m steeplechase title at the outdoor conference meet in 2014, marking the second straight year an Elon competitor won the same event title. Novotna also set a school record in the process. In addition, Engel guided a second Elon competitor to All-SoCon honors for the 5,000. The 2014 outdoor season was also the second in which an Elon distance runner qualified for the NCAA East Preliminary Round meet. Engel also had four members of the team earn All-Freshman conference honors during the same season.

Prior to Elon, Engel served as the assistant cross country and track and field coach at Columbia University, assisting three student-athletes to All-Ivy League honors in cross country and two to All-Northeast Region accolades. One Columbia harrier also garnered All-America honors following a 23rd-place finish in cross country.

In addition to her college coaching experience, Engel also helped qualify six runners for the 2008 Olympic trials in the marathon, serving as a coach of the Impala Racing Team, an all-women's club team. Engel's coaching résumé also includes three years as the head cross country and track & field coach at West Morris Central High School in Chester, N.J.

Engel proved to be a standout member of Clemson's track & field team, earning All-ACC honors twice, including a conference championship title as a member of Clemson's distance medley relay. Engel also served as a leg on Clemson's school record setting 4x800, distance medley relay and 4x1,500m relay. Clemson recognized Engel's extraordinary efforts as a student-athlete by naming her to the Clemson University Athletic Wall of Fame.

Seventh Season at Duke
B.S. - Florida State '02
M.S. - Emporia State '06

Shawn Wilbourn begins his eighth season as a member of the Duke Track & Field coaching staff after joining the Blue Devils following the Olympic Trials in July of 2008. Wilbourn works with Duke's combined-event, pole vault, horizontal jumps and hurdles student-athletes, while previously coaching the Blue Devil sprinters, as well. The United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCA) recognized Wilbourn as the 2015 Southeast Region Women's Assistant Coach of the Year following the conclusion of the outdoor season.

The 2015 season saw Wilbourn lead another strong multi-event group to national prominence, headlined by Teddi Maslowski qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the heptathlon and Tanner Johnson claiming the decathlon crown at the ACC Outdoor Championships as a rookie. For the women, Maslowski and Karli Johonnot combined for seven All-ACC honors during the indoor and outdoor seasons. Maslowski set school records in the 60m hurdles, long jump and pentathlon during the indoor season and the 100m hurdles, long jump and heptathlon during the outdoor campaign. On the men's side, Johnson was joined on the podium at the ACC Outdoor Championships by Ian Rock in second place, while Robert Rohner finished fifth overall. It was the second straight season a Blue Devil took home the decathlon title, with Rohner placing first in 2014. Rock also finished with runner-up honors in the heptathlon during the indoor season, while Johnson captured fourth.

In addition to the multi-event student-athletes seeing significant success, the sprint group also turned in strong performances throughout the 2015 season. The women's 4x400 squad, comprised of Lauren Hansson, Elizabeth Kerper, Madeline Kopp and Maddy Price, earned first team All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Championships after racing to a sixth-place finish with a school-record time of 3:32.56. On the men's side, Brett Bofinger also claimed first team All-America status as a member of the men's distance medley relay that finished seventh at the national indoor meet. During the outdoor season, Bofinger joined Rohner, Michael Wilson and Chaz Hawkins to set the program record in the 4x400, clocking a 3:09.21.

In the pole vault, Wilbourn helped Megan Clark produce one of the most prolific seasons in Duke history, earning first team indoor All-America honors, being named the ACC Women's Indoor Field Performer of the Year and setting school records for both the indoor and outdoor pole vault. Clark, who claimed gold at both the indoor and outdoor conference championships, finished second at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a clearance of 14-9.00 (4.50) to tie the ACC record. The Fort Benning, Ga., product also qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships and earned honorable mention All-America accolades. For the men, Connor Hall put together a career year, highlighted by finishing second at the ACC Championships with a height of 16-7.50 (5.07), the fifth-best height in school history.

During his Duke tenure, Wilbourn has coached two NCAA Champions, 17 All-Americans, 11 ACC Champions and 52 All-ACC honorees. At the conclusion of the 2015 season, his student-athletes combined to own 32 school records.

Prior to working at Duke, Wilbourn held a similar position at Georgia after spending four years at Cortland State University, the last two as Director of Men's and Women's Track and Field and Cross Country. He was honored with numerous Atlantic Region and New York State Coach of the Year honors for his mentoring at Cortland State, while coaching 18 All-Americans and two national champions.

Wilbourn's other collegiate coaching stops include the University of Arizona, Arizona State University and his alma mater, Long Beach State University. Wilbourn earned his master's in kinesiology from Long Beach in 2003.

In addition to college coaching experience, Wilbourn has also imparted his knowledge to athletes following their collegiate careers. In 2008, Wilbourn coached former Georgia long jumper Patty Sylvester to the Beijing Olympics. The Grenadian posted a mark of 22-0.25 (6.71) the same year, a national record for the event.

As an athlete, Wilbourn was a 1996 Olympic Trials finalist in the decathlon and competed at the World Championships for the United States in 1997. His career best in the decathlon is 8,268 points.

Wilbourn was also selected by the Buffalo Bills in the fifth round of the 1991 NFL draft. He spent time under contract with the San Francisco 49ers during the 1992 NFL campaign.

In addition, Wilbourn is a USATF Level II certified coach as well as a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

Wilbourn has one daughter, Justice, and one son, Braeden.

B.J. Linnenbrink enters the 2016 track & field season with a new title, earning a promotion to associate head coach after joining the Blue Devil coaching staff as an assistant coach in July of 2009. Linnenbrink works primarily with Duke's men's and women's throwers while also overseeing the officials and volunteers that help run the Duke track & field meets at Morris Williams Stadium.

The 2015 season was a successful campaign for Linnenbrink, helping both Thomas Lang (men's javelin) and Erica Brand (women's discus) reach the NCAA Outdoor Championships, highlighted by Lang garnering first team All-America honors with a sixth-place performance. Under Linnenbrink's tutelage, the Blue Devil corps set or reset four of the 12 throwing records and combined for 19 event wins during the 2015 indoor and outdoor seasons, including a second consecutive outdoor ACC title for Lang in the javelin.

The Blue Devil throwing program continues to perform at a high level with Linnenbrink at the helm. In 2012, the throwing program had one of its best performances in school history, including sophomore Michelle Anumba accomplishing the task of being the first Duke female thrower to earn first team All-America honors. Under Linnenbrink's direction, four throwers qualified for the 2012 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship: Anumba (shot put), Michael Barbas (shot put), Erica Brand (discus) and Andrea Hopkins (javelin). Also in the outdoor season, Anumba (shot put) and Shannon Sullivan (javelin) finished first at the ACC Championships in their respective events while Barbas (shot put), Brand (discus) and Hopkins (javelin) earned All-ACC honors for finishing in the top three in their respective events.

Throughout his Duke tenure, Linnenbrink has guided four Duke throwers to a combined six All-America selections, helped five Blue Devils capture a total of seven conference crowns and has seen 15 student-athletes claim 27 All-ACC accolades.

Prior to his arrival at Duke, Linnenbrink held a similar position at Notre Dame from 2003-07. During that period, he tutored 15 NCAA Regional qualifiers and 17 All-BIG EAST performers, including 2005 BIG EAST hammer throw champion Chip Roberts. In addition, he guided Notre Dame's first female thrower to qualify for the NCAA Championships as well as the first Irish thrower to advance to the outdoor NCAA competition since 1945.

Linnenbrink saw his Irish throwers advance to the NCAA Mid-East Regional 15 times in five seasons with two qualifying for the USATF Championships. Additionally, the Notre Dame top-10 lists were radically altered in almost every throwing event under his direction with his student-athletes claiming 10 top-10 efforts on the men's side and a staggering 26 top-10 performances on the women's side.

As a member of Notre Dame's staff, he was part of five BIG EAST Coaching Staff's of the Year - 2003 & 2005 men's indoor, 2003 & 2006 men's outdoor and 2006 women's indoor.

A former NCAA and USATF Championship qualifier at Florida State, Linnenbrink owns the Seminole school record in the weight throw (20.91m/68-7.25) and ranks among the top-five in FSU history in the hammer throw (59.48m/195-2), earning All-Atlantic Coast Conference accolades as a senior.

Before his successful two-year stint at Florida State, Linnenbrink dominated at the junior college level, where he earned two NJCAA All-America honors at Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, Kan., in addition to seven All-Jayhawk East Conference awards.

Linnenbrink received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Florida State in 2002 and in 2006, he earned his master of science degree in physical education from Emporia State.

He is a USATF Level II certified coach in throwing events.

Linnenbrink and his wife, the former Monica Hardy, married July 31, 2004. They have one son, James.

Jan Ogilvie

Assistant Coach

Jumps

19th Season at Duke

B.S. - Bowling Green State '78

M.A. - Indiana '80

Jan Ogilvie oversees the high jumpers for the Duke track and field program and previously worked with the Blue Devil horizontal jumpers, as well. She returned full time to the track & field staff in the fall of 2011 after spending two years as the Director of Duke Aquatics for East and West Campus from 2009-11. During that time, Ogilvie served as the volunteer jumps coach for the Blue Devils. She was also previously the head women's cross country and track & field coach from 1997-2003 before transitioning to Director of the Brodie Gym from 2003-09. In her 18 seasons with the Duke track & field program, she has coached at least one school record holder in each of those events.

The 2015 campaign was another solid showing for the Duke jumpers. Highlighting the year were rookie Andrew Pancoast, placing sixth and earning second team All-ACC honors in the men's high jump at the ACC Outdoor Championships with a leap of 6-7.50 (2.02), and junior Maddie Morrow, qualifying for the NCAA East Preliminary Round in the women's high jump.

The 2014 season saw a strong showing from Duke's high jump trio, Tanner Anderson, Michael Krone and Carl Heinz. Anderson earned the first All-ACC indoor honor of his career after placing second with a season-best clearance of 7-3.00 (2.21). Anderson's indoor season came to a close after earning All-America accolades, finishing eighth at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a mark of 7-0.50 (2.15). During the outdoor season, Duke, represented by Anderson, Krone and Heinz, was the only team to qualify three high jumpers for the NCAA East Preliminary Round competition. Earlier in the season, Anderson placed third at the conference meet, garnering the third All-ACC outdoor award of his career, while Heinz moved into Duke's top five in the event with a clearance of 6-10.25 (2.09).

During the 2013 season, Ogilvie coached Anderson to a new Duke indoor record in the high jump, clearing 7-3.25 (2.22) at the Virginia Tech Challenge. Anderson went on to finish fourth at the ACC Indoor Championships, narrowly missing All-ACC honors. During the outdoor season, Anderson's had his best performance when he won the collegiate division high jump competition at the 2013 Penn Relays by clearing 7-2.25 (2.19). With the performance, the Valdese, N.C., native qualified for his third consecutive NCAA East First Round competition.

In 2012, Ogilvie guided the duo of Krone and Anderson to finish one-two at the ACC Outdoor Championships with Krone clearing a career best 7-3.75 (2.23) and Anderson clearing 7-3 (2.21). The duo also qualified for the NCAA East First Round with the marks. Indoors, Anderson served as the top performer in the event with a clearance of 7-1 (2.16) to win the Millrose Collegiate.

In the spring of 2011, Ogilvie tutored one of the top freshman high jump duos in the country in Anderson and Krone. Anderson won the IC4A Championship and set a program record with a leap of 7-4.25 (2.24) while earning All-ACC honors during the indoor and outdoor seasons. He also qualified for the indoor NCAA Championships with a program record of 7-2.50 (2.19). Krone notched an indoor best of 7-0.25 (2.13) and earned All-East accolades outdoors.

Ogilvie also guided 2011 graduate Mike Kotecki to an ACC silver medal in 2008. Kotecki cleared 6-8.25 (2.03), the No. 3 all-time mark at Duke, as a sophomore at the ACC Championships to claim second place after beginning his collegiate career as an unheralded walk-on. She also previously led horizontal jumper Jade Ellis to Duke records in the long and triple jumps, as well as Ifey Anoliefo, the program record holder in the women's long jump, and triple jump record holder Jodi Schlesinger. Ogilvie mentored a seven-time NCAA qualifier in the high jump in Debra Vento, whose 6-1.50 (1.86) clearance is tops in school history. Vento went on to garner All-America status, as well as multiple ECAC and ACC Championships, and placed as high as third at the NCAA Championships.

Prior to her career at Duke, Ogilvie was the head women's coach at Boston University, where she won several New England Coach of the Year awards. She also previously served as an assistant coach at Indiana University, Syracuse University and Kansas State University during a career that began in the early 1980s.

Ogilvie and her husband, Director of Track and Field Norm Ogilvie, live in Durham with their two daughters, Jade and Starr.

Matt LoPiccolo

Assistant Coach

M/W Track & Field

Third Season at Duke

B.A. - Plattsburgh State '97

M.A. - Plattsburgh State '98

Matt LoPiccolo joined the Duke coaching staff in the fall of 2013 as an assistant track & field coach and oversees the Duke sprinters.

LoPiccolo helped the Blue Devil sprinters see one of the most successful seasons in Duke history in 2015. The women's 4x400 squad, comprised of Lauren Hansson, Elizabeth Kerper, Madeline Kopp and Maddy Price, earned first team All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Championships after racing to a sixth-place finish with a school-record time of 3:32.56. On the men's side, Brett Bofinger also claimed first team All-America status as a member of the men's distance medley relay that finished seventh at the national indoor meet. During the outdoor season, Bofinger joined Robert Rohner, Michael Wilson and Chaz Hawkins to set the program record in the 4x400, clocking a 3:09.21.

Prior to Duke, LoPiccolo held the head coach track & field position at SUNY Oneonta University from 2000-13. During his tenure, LoPiccolo received a variety of coaching honors, including 2013 NCAA Division III Atlantic Region Men's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, 2013 State University New York Athletic Conference Men's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, 2006 NCAA Division III Atlantic Region Women's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year, and 2006 SUNYAC Women's Indoor Track & Field Coach of the Year.

Oneonta's track & field program thrived under LoPiccolo's tutelage. In just two years, LoPiccolo improved the University's women's indoor track & field team from a 25th-place finish at the Eastern College Athletics Conference meet in 2003 to ECAC champions the following year. The Red Dragons would repeat as ECAC champions in 2006 and finish the season with a third-place finish at the NCAA Division III Championship meet. In 2013, LoPiccolo guided his men's track & field team to an NCAA Division III sixth-place finish, the highest in school history. The men's program won the SUNYAC Indoor Championship meet the same year.

In addition to team accomplishments, individual performances improved under LoPiccolo's guidance. The former Oneonta coach led 41 student-athletes to Division III Track & Field All-America honors. LoPiccolo also qualified 114 individuals for the SUNYAC Track & Field Championship meet and 23 individuals for the ECAC Track & Field Championship meet. Most recently, LoPiccolo coached the fastest 200-meter runner in school history to two consecutive NCAA Division III individual national championships.

LoPiccolo also placed a heavy emphasis on academics while coaching at Oneonta, as evidenced by the 22 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) All-Academic Team individual award winners he coached over his 13-year career. The 2006 season was an especially successful year in the classroom for LoPiccolo's student-athletes, with an NCCA Woman of the Year Finalist, NCAA Top VIII Award Finalist and a USTFCCCA Division III Women's Outdoor Track & Field Scholar-Student-Athlete of the Year.

LoPiccolo earned a B.A. in mathematics and an M.A. in Administration and Leadership from Plattsburgh State University of New York. In 1998, LoPiccolo earned All-America honors while competing for Plattsburgh in the 800.

COACHING STAFF

Tommy Barrineau joined the Duke track and field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in September, 2014.

During his collegiate career at the University of Georgia from 2007-11, Barrineau was a standout multi-event athlete for the Bulldogs, highlighted by capturing the SEC heptathlon crown during the 2010 indoor campaign. Barrineau twice competed at the national meets, qualifying in the heptathlon for the 2010 NCAA Indoor Championships and punching his ticket in the decathlon for the 2011 NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Burke, Va., product totaled eight all-SEC selections during his time as a Bulldog and claimed the school record in the heptathlon with a score of 5,700. Barrineau graduated from Georgia in 2012 with a degree in health promotion and behavior.

Competing internationally, Barrineau has won a pair of Finnish national titles, winning the 2014 decathlon before capturing gold in the heptathlon in 2015. Barrineau's father, James Barrineau, was an All-American high jumper for Georgia and went on to compete for the U.S. at the 1976 Summer Olympics.

In addition to working with the Blue Devil coaching staff, Barrineau spent the spring of 2014 as the jumps coach for Durham Academy and works as a personal trainer. Barrineau is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the NCSA and owns a USATF Level I coaching certificate.

Sean McNulty joined the Duke cross country and track & field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in August, 2015.

Prior to arriving at Duke, McNulty served as the Director of Operations and an assistant coach with the New Jersey New York Track Club during the 2014-15 season. Before joining the track club, McNulty held the positions of head cross country coach and assistant track & field coach at Lafayette High School in Lexington, Ky., from 2012-14, where he helped guide the squad to a 6AAA cross country regional championship. McNulty also enjoyed a successful career as a competitor, spending four years as a member of Kentucky's cross country and track & field programs.

In addition to his passion for cross country and track & field, McNulty also enjoys competing in triathlons. In 2008, McNulty captured the USA Triathlon Junior Sprint National Championship title on his way to earning All-America honors. McNulty owns a USATF Level I coaching certification and is a member of the USATF National Coaches Registry.

Second Season at Duke
B.S. - Duke '11

Mark Mueller joined the Duke track and field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in August, 2014.

As an undergraduate at Stanford University from 2006-2011, Mueller was a dual-sport athlete, lettering four years in track and field as a sprinter and three years in football. On the track, Mueller earned a 2011 All-America honorable mention accolade, 2011 Pac-10 All-Academic and 2011 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Scholar-Athlete honors, and was named to the 2010 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association All-Academic Track and Field Team.

Mueller placed sixth in the 2010 Pac-10 Championships in the 200 and was part of the 4x400 relay team that qualified for the NCAA Track & Field Championships in 2011.

Mueller graduated from Stanford in 2011 with his Bachelor of Arts in classical studies with a minor in religious studies. In the summer of 2010, he traveled to Arad, Israel, to teach English to Sudanese refugees, helping them develop basic English language skills.

Since graduating from Stanford, Mueller founded Sports & Scholars, serving as a private coach for over a dozen athletes running in international competitions. He has also spent time as a high school varsity coach for multiple sports, including track and field, football, women's basketball and men's lacrosse.

Sean-Patrick Oswald, a 2011 graduate of Duke University, returns to his alma mater to assist the track & field and cross country coaching staff for the 2015-16 season.

The former Blue Devil saw much success in his track & field career. Oswald currently holds the school record in the indoor 800-meters and is a member of the school record holding indoor distance medley relay team. Oswald's success on the track earned him a number of honors, including being named to the All-East team twice and earning All-ACC honors. Oswald also made the ACC Academic Honor Roll three times.

In addition to the track & field and academic accolades Oswald infuses into the coaching staff, the Duke alum also brings two years of coaching experience to the program. While working as a scientist for Merck & Co., Oswald acted as an assistant coach for the North Penn High School track & field program from 2011-13.

Nick Stenuf

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Cross Country/Distance

Second Season at Duke

Nazareth College '08

Nick Stenuf joined the Duke cross country and track & field coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in October, 2014.

Prior to arriving at Duke, Stenuf served as a graduate assistant at Florida State University in 2011 and 2014. Between his two years at Florida State, Stenuf held the position of volunteer assistant coach at the University of Connecticut for the 2012 season, helping guide the women's cross country team to an eighth-place finish at the national championship. Before joining the Connecticut coaching staff, Stenuf interned and served as a volunteer assistant at Edinboro University in Pennsylvania.

Stenuf saw success as a student-athlete at Nazareth College in Rochester, N.Y., earning Division III All-America honors five times throughout his career. In addition to garnering All-America accolades once during his collegiate cross country career, Stenuf claimed the recognition twice during the indoor track & field season and twice during the outdoor campaign.

Stenuf currently resides in Durham with his wife, Chaeli Dougherty, and their son, Niko.
