Head Coach Jamie Green

Jamie Green, in his fifth year with the Blue Devils, has guided Duke to 10 tournament championships with a school record five coming this season. Green has now guided teams to 27 tournament titles in his career.

Duke has made five straight NCAA Regional appearances under Green, advancing to the NCAA Championship in three of those four years. In 2011, Duke won the 2011 NCAA East Regional and finished eighth in the NCAA Championship Stroke Play. In match play, the Blue Devils defeated top-seed UCLA, 3-1-1, before falling to Georgia, 3-2, in the semifinals.

Green's Blue Devils captured the 2013 ACC Championship setting a school record for lowest 54-hole score (-25) and matching a record for lowest 18-hole score (-15) along the way. It was the program's seventh league title and Duke's first since 2005.

Green, a 1993 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, has mentored five All-Americans, eight Academic All-Americans and 18 all-conference performers during his 10 seasons as a head coach.

Blue Devils Claim ACC Crown

All five Blue Devils finished under-par as Duke claimed the 2013 ACC Championships with a school-record 25-under 839. Duke trailed Florida State by 11 strokes after the first round and by four strokes after 36 holes of play en route to the come-from-behind victory.

The Blue Devils matched a school-record with a 15-under 273 in the second round before closing with a four-under 284 in a steady rain on Sunday to claim a three-shot win over Virginia Tech and Florida State.

The league title was the seventh in Duke history, the first since 2005 and the first under head coach Jamie Green.

Adam Sumrall fired a 69-69-70=208 (-8) to finish fifth overall. He had a string of 36 consecutive holes of bogey-free golf while posting the second-best Duke score in ACC Championship history.

Brinson Paolini and Julian Suri posted matching 211s (-5) to finish tied for seventh. Paolini became just the third Blue Devils to finished in the top 10 three times in ACC Championship play. Suri blistered the course for a six-under 66 in the second round to tie for second-lowest Duke round in ACC Championship history. He also fired a 66 in the second round of last year's event.

Austin Cody and Mads Soegaard recorded one-under 215s to tie for 17th overall. Cody recorded three back nine birdies on Sunday and closed with a two-under 70 to spearhead a late Duke charge. Soegaard was steady throughout the event with rounds of 71-72-72.

Paolini Wins Byron Nelson Award

Brinson Paolini was honored as the recipient of the 2013 Byron Nelson Award presented by Cleveland Golf/Srixon, as announced by the GCAA. He is the first Blue Devil to receive the award after being selected from a list of five finalists that included Evan Beck (Wake Forest), Pedro Figueiredo (UCLA), Charlie Hughes (Washington) and Andrew Yun (Stanford).

Paolini, tabbed No. 22 in the latest Golfweek/Sagarin Rankings, is in the midst of an outstanding senior campaign, recording a 71.8 stroke average and notching four top-five's, and 10 top-20 finishes. The Virginia Beach, Va., native leads the Blue Devils in stroke average, top-five finishes, top-10 finishes (6), top-20 finishes, even or under par rounds (17), rounds in the 60's (6) and rounds at 75 or under (26).

During his four years at Duke, Paolini has led the team to eight team victories, while also etching his name into program record books in career scoring average (2nd, 72.25), rounds in the 60's (2nd, 26), under-par rounds (3rd, 46), even-par or better rounds (2nd, 67), top-five finishes (2nd, 12), top-10 finishes (T-3rd, 18) and top-20 finishes (T-3rd, 27). The 2011 All-America selection is also among the all-time leaders in tournaments played (T-8th, 44) and rounds played (T-9th, 130).
