INSIDE LACROSSE MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICAN

DUKE LANDS 5 ON ALL-ACC

► For the second consecutive season, Duke placed five Blue Devils on the All-ACC squad. The five match a program record. Justin Guterding nabs the honor for the third time, while Danny Fowler and Cade Van Raaphorst repeat. Brad Smith and Joe Stein are first-time recipients. Fowler is the first Duke goaltender to garner All-ACC twice in his career.

GUTERDING NAMED ACC OFFENSIVE POTY

► After leading the conference in scoring all season and winning five ACC Offensive Player of the Week awards, Justin Guterding has been picked the ACC Men's Lacrosse Offensive Player of the Year.

► Guterding is the third Blue Devil to win the league's Offensive Player of the Year honor since it debuted in 2012. It marks the 14th time in Duke lacrosse history a Blue Devil has come away with a major ACC award. He is the second Blue Devil in history to be named ACC Rookie of the Year award and garner an ACC Player of the Year recognition - the other being current assistant coach Matt Danowski.

LOOKING AT DUKE

► Duke dropped to No. 4 in the USILA poll with the loss to Notre Dame last Friday. Senior attackman Justin Guterding continues to shine on offense and headlines one of the nation's top offenses with 51 goals and 36 assists for 87 points. Rookie Joe Robertson complements him on attack with 44 points. In the midfield, junior Brad Smith has a career-best 51 points and graduate student Peter Conley has chipped in 33.

► Defensively, Duke is holding opponents to 8.20 goals per game. Cade Van Raaphorst and JT Giles-Harris anchor the close defense with 17 and 20 caused turnovers, respectively. In goal, Danny Fowler sports a 8.35 goals against average and a .536 save percentage.

► Joe Stein and Brian Smyth share duties at the faceoff X. Stein is 92-of-163 (.564), while Smyth is 89-of-191 (.466). They have 37 and 42 ground balls, respectively.

2 • 2018 DUKE MEN'S LACROSSE GAME NOTES

LAST TIME WE MET

► Justin Guterding tallied a game-high seven points from three goals and four assists to headline a convincing 18-8 victory over Boston University last season.. Brad Smith chipped in four goals, while Kevin Quigley notched his first career hat trick.

► Duke, trailing 3-2 after consecutive goals from the Terriers' Jack Wilson, scored eight unanswered to open up an 11-3 advantage late in the second quarter. In goal, Danny Fowler played 49 minutes and made eight saves against six goals allowed.

SCOUTING BOSTON UNIVERSITY

► Boston University is 8-8 after losing to Loyola in the Patriot League semifinals Friday. The Terriers

► Chris Gray spearheads the offense with 71 points (31g, 40a). James Burr has a team-best 41 goals and 52 points overall, while Jack Wilson, on a 58-game point scoring streak, has 44 points. Overall, the Terriers are averaging 10.13 goals per game.

► Defensively, Boston U is giving up 11.25 goals per game and has given up 10-plus goals in 10 of 16 games. Isaac Lipton is the top takeaway artist with 20 caused turnovers. He also leads non-faceoff specialists with 50 ground balls. In goal Joe McSorley sports a 10.98 goals against average and a .521 save percentage in his 16 starts.

► Sean Christman has taken the majority of faceoffs, going 114-of-221 at the X (.516). Joe Stucky and Kevin Snyder both have taken a significant amount of draws, sporting .419 and .390 win percentages.

WHAT GIVES

► Sunday's matchup features BU's third-ranked man-up offense against Duke's 14th-ranked man-down defense. The Terriers are converting on 59 percent of their man-up opportunities, while the Blue Devils are stopping 74 percent of their foes extra-man chances.

► Duke has held six of its opponents without an extra-man goal and given up more than one in a game three times.

HOME SWEET HOME FOR THE BLUE DEVILS

► Duke has fared well in the comfy confines of Koskinen Stadium since 2007. The Blue Devils went 7-2 in Durham last season and are 101-18 all-time at home under John Danowski.

DUKE A FORCE ON BOTH ENDS

► Duke has proven it features one of the most complete teams with stalwarts both on offense and defense. The Blue Devils are one of two teams to have their offense and defense ranked among the top 10 statistically.

Duke's Depth at Midfield

► The Blue Devils have the luxury of depth at the midfield position. Duke has had seven midfielders play in all 15 games and is one of eight programs to have a midfield unit with 100 points on the season. ► Duke's top six midfield scorers are Brad Smith, Peter Conley, Sean Lowrie, Kevin Quigley, Reilly Walsh and Mitch Russell. Nakeie Montgomery is just behind Russell and has seen a lot of quality time on both midfield lines.

Midfield Units with More Than 100 Points

Conley, Smith a Special Duo

► Graduate student Peter Conley and junior Brad Smith make quite the dynamic duo as two thirds of Duke's first midfield. They are two of 21 midfielders to have at least 20 goals. Duke, Albany, Rutgers, Delaware and Vermont all have two players represented.

► Deemer Class holds the Duke single-season goals record for a midfielder with 50 in 2016 - a feat only five other midfielders in NCAA history have reached.

Danny Fowler Saving Best for Last

► Returning All-ACC goaltender Danny Fowler is having his best year between the pipes. He leads the ACC and is in the top 11 nationally in both goals against average (8.35) and save percentage (.536). His 8.40 saves per game are third in the ACC as Duke is allowing just 30 shots per game.

Danny Fowler Career Comparison

Year	GAA	SV%
2016	9.84	.497
2017	8.64	.526
2018	8.35	.536

Fowler Climbing Saves Chart

► Fifth-year senior goalkeeper Danny Fowler is steadily climbing the Duke career saves chart. Duke's full-time starter for the past three seasons, Fowler owns 576 career saves to rank fourth in Duke history.

► His 10 at Virginia in the regular season pushed him past Dan Loftus. Joe Kirmser holds the record at 847, while Chuck Sherwood is second with 583.

► Averaging 8.40 saves per game this season, Fowler needs three more games to become the second goaltender in Duke history to record 600 career stops.

► Overall for his career, Fowler has started 61 of the 68 games he has played and averages 8.47 saves per game.

GUTERDING IN THE RECORD BOOKS

► Justin Guterding recently became the third Blue Devil and 13th Division I player to amass 300 career points. He currently ranks second at Duke and sixth in NCAA history in career points. He is 18 points shy of moving into the top five in the NCAA records book. His 197 goals are tied for third in NCAA history.

► At his current average of 3.4 goals per game this season, Guterding needs three more games to pass Zack Greer's Duke and NCAA record 206 goals. Guterding only needs three to move to second and become the second player in NCAA Division I history to amass 200 career goals.

4.	Joe Saggese, Sacred Heart, A, Jr.	58	24
5.	Simon Mathias, Penn, A, Jr.	39	19

GUTERDING'S ASSIST GAME STILL THRIVING

► Guterding averaged 2.56 assists per game in 2017, more than a one assist per game improvement of his 1.4 in 2016. His pace has stayed steady in 2018, averaging 2.40 assists per game.

► His 46 total in 2017 ranked sixth in Duke single-season history. Only Jordan Wolf, Matt Danowski and Ned Crotty have more assists in a season than Guterding.

► Guterding has 128 career helpers to rank third on the career charts. Danowski and Crotty sit atop the list with 183 and 147, respectively.

MORE GUTERDING NUMBERS

► With nine points at Virginia, Guterding became the first Blue Devil to record at least 70 points in each of his four seasons. He amassed 70, 71 and 97 in the first three seasons and has 87 this year. He also is the fastest Blue Devil to 100 and 300 career points and is tied as the fastest player to 200 points.

► Guterding registered 97 points in 2017 to become the fourth different Blue Devil in program history to score 90 points in a season. His total is tied with current assistant coach Matt Danowski for second on the Duke single-season list.

► Only Jordan Wolf has scored 100 points in a season for Duke and just 15 different Division I players have reached the century mark in NCAA history 17 times - Lyle Thompson of Albany did so three times.

► Guterding is one of three Blue Devils to rank in the top 5 in school history in career points (325), goals (197) and assists (128).

STEIN'S EMERGENCE

► Rookie faceoff specialist Joe Stein earned All-ACC honors on the strength of his faceoff play in the latter half of the season. Since stepping up as the go-to guy against Richmond for an injured Brian Smyth, Stein has taken all but 80 of the faceoffs in the eight games in which he has played - he missed the Cleveland State contest due to illness - and sports a .586 success rate in that span.

► Prior to taking the reins against the Spiders, Stein took only 18 faceoffs and won seven (.389). His .586 win percentage in the past nine games would rank second in the league and 18th nationally. Currently, at .564 overall, he is second among rookies nationally, is third in the ACC and 23rd in Division I.

DUKE HOLDS ONE-TWO PUNCH AT THE X

► The Blue Devils are developing a special one-two punch at the faceoff X in Brian Smyth and Joe Stein. They have combined to go 181-of-354 (.511) overall and 56 percent (127-of-222) in the past nine games.

► Smyth has taken 191 draws, winning 89 (.466), while Stein has taken 163 and won 92 (.564). Smyth has stepped up and come on strong off the bench in Duke's previous four outings, winning 36-of-65 (.554) faceoffs, picking up 19 ground balls and scoring three goals and an assist for four points.

ROBERTSON LACROSSE FAMILY

► Lacrosse is a family affair for Duke's rookie Joe Robertson as he follows in the footsteps of his three older brothers to play Division I lacrosse. Matt, the oldest, played his final two seasons at Virginia. Ian was a Maryland Terrapin for three years and Phillip is a sophomore on the Princeton men's lacrosse team.

ROBERTSON NAME ON THE NATIONAL SCENE

► Duke rookie Joe Robertson is not the only one from his family having a strong lacrosse season. His brother, Phil, a sophomore at Princeton, is fourth in points for the Tigers with 36.

► Joe has 44 points in his 15 outings to rank third in scoring for the Blue Devils. Both rank among the top 40 in goals per game, the top 100 in points and the top 30 in shot percentage.

ALL IN THE FAMILY FOR GILES-HARRIS

► Sophomore close defenseman John Thomas (JT) Giles-Harris isn't the only one from his family making a name for himself as a Blue Devil.

► JT's brother, Joe, is Duke football's top defensive player. He garnered four All-America awards in 2017, including second-team honors by the Walter Camp Foundation.

VAN RAAPHORST'S ATHLETIC LINEAGE

► Junior close defenseman Cade Van Raaphorst traded the football for the lacrosse stick despite hailing from a family of elite college quarterbacks.

► Cade is the son of Jeff Van Raaphorst, quarterback at Arizona State leading the Sun Devils to the Pac-10 and Rose Bowl titles in 1987. He was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2006. Jeff also played in the NFL for a few seasons.

► Uncle, Mike Van Raaphorst, was the backup quarterback to Carson Palmer at Southern California.

UP NEXT

► Duke awaits its fate in the NCAA Tournament. The selection show will be televised live on ESPNU, May 6 at 9 p.m.

JOHN DANOWSKI

2007-P • 395-193 (35 seasons) • 176-54 at Duke (11 seasons)

Cemented as one of the top coaches in college lacrosse, John Danowski has led the Duke men's lacrosse team to unprecedented success and himself to the top over the Division I men's lacrosse wins list. Danowski was introduced as Duke's eighth head men's lacrosse coach on July 21, 2006 and quickly led the Blue Devils to some of the most successful lacrosse seasons in school history, to three NCAA Championships in five seasons.

In Danowski's 11 years at the helm of the Blue Devils lacrosse program, he has compiled an impressive 176-54 record in leading Duke to seven ACC regular season titles and four ACC tournament titles, eight straight appearances in the national semifinals from 2007-14, four in the NCAA title match and ultimately to the 2010, 2013 and 2014 national titles. The 2014 NCAA crown put Danowski, a winner of 395 career games, among a small group of nine coaches to win three national titles and among eight to capture consecutive crowns. Meanwhile, Duke's run of eight straight NCAA semifinals rank as the second most of any program since 2000 with Syracuse. Most recently, Danowski passed Dom Starsia as the winningest Division I lacrosse history, garnering his 376th win with a 13-6 victory over Jacksonville in 2017.

A winner of nearly 80 percent of his games at Duke, the individual awards Blue Devil players have garnered is equally impressive. In 11 seasons, Danowski mentored 64 All-America selections, 36 All-ACC choices, two Tewaaraton Trophy winners, a pair of USILA Attackman of the Year honorees, a USILA Defenseman of the Year, three USILA Midfielder of the Year award recipients and 21 USILA Scholar All-America picks.

While the success on the field is unsurpassed in Duke lacrosse history, the student-athletes excellence in the classroom also is unrivaled. The Blue Devils consistently lead the ACC in All-ACC Academic picks as well as players on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.
